

THE CONCEPTION-BAY MAN.

fect in your hands, hoping you will not deem it unworthy observation.
Yours respectfully,
W. HAYES.

In reply to our correspondent, we would observe that there are two classes of Editors—one class serving the Government, the other striving to serve the people. The former care little for even the appearance of Truth; having gained their positions, less by desert than servility, they pocket their thousands, and despise the men whose industry supplies the fund. It is unquestionably the duty of Editors to correct misrepresentations as soon as they are discovered to be such.
