CHARITABLE.—Owen Connolly, Esq., has made a donation of one hundred pairs of blankets and sixty tons of coal for the relief of the deserving poor of all denominations in this city. He also gave the Sisters of Charity a quantity of groceries and proisions for distribution at Christmas. Mr. Connolly is one of our townsmen who has been very successful in business, and observes the Scriptural maxim of not letting his "left hand know what his right hand doeth." This is not the first occasion upon which his charity has been bestowed upor the poor, whose blessings he has for his thoughtfulness at this Christmas season.

News reaches us of a horrible shooting affray at Princetown, on Saturday evening affray at Princetown, on Saturday order last. A Mr. Howell, a resident of that place, had borrowed some longers, when building a winter clothing Mr. Wallace, and not having returned them, the latter, accompanied by his brother, visited Howell's premises for the purpose of taking them away. Howell, who had not been apprised of their intention, gun in hand, ordered them off; and, as they went he fired after them, the charge entering Wallace's body above the hip joint, rupturing the intestines, and lodging in the thigh Reversing the gun, he clubbed Wallace's brother with it over the head.
