WHEN IT IS UNDERSTOOD, whether functional derangements or destructive organic changes in the vital organs, are the expressions of errors of nutrition from improverishment of the blood and starvation of the tissue, it is easily seen why Wheeler's Elixir of Phosphates and Calisaya, which secures the digestion and assimilation of food to keep up the work of repair, is successfully used in the treatment of the wide range lof affections for which it is recommended.

Raspberry Vinegar.—To one quart of raspberries, add one quart of vinegar, let it stand thirty-six hours, then strain; then to one pint of juice, add one pound of sugar, scald it slightly, strain and bottle it. It is a good summer drink.

Summer Drinks for Children.—Rice water, barley water, oatmeal water, with lemon and sugar, should be ready in every house where children are. These are surely better than cold tea, which is often given, or milk that cannot always be trusted.

Good Lemonade. - Take two lemons divide them and put each half into a lemon squeezer. When all the juice is extracted put the remainder of the lemons into a pitcher and pour boiling water on them; after they have stood a little squeeze all the geodness from them; add the juice, etc., to some loaf sugar—enough to sweeten pleasantly—then pour enough cold water to make the strength required—I think about one quart or a little more. Ice must be added.

The following is an excellent receipt for root beer: Put into a clean tub 2½ pounds of good sugar; 2 ounces bruised ginger; half an ounce of bruised gentian root; 2 ounces of bruised dande-loin root and any other kinds of roots which may be desired, although these we must look downward as well as upward in human life. Though many may able, add the juice of two lemons and have passed you in the race, there are the peel, with half an ounce of cream of many you have left behind.
