Yesterday afternoon the Church Lads' Brigade numbering about 30 under command of Lt.-Col. Rendel attended Divine Service at St. Thom as's Church. Rev. Dr. Jones occu pied the pulpit and delivered an elo quent and forceful address. Owing to the downpour of rain the paradethrough the city had to be abandoned and the route to and from the church was by way of Harvey and Military Roads, the band rendering excelent music along the line march.

On return to the Armoury Lt.-Col Rendell read out the names on the Honor Roll. Three ex-members, Her-bert Paddon, Gordon Boone and John Hollands have laid down their lives on the battlefield; two others went down in the Clan McNaughton; Geo. and Nathan Rice is a prisoner of war A large number of the Old Comrade: took part in yesterday's turn out.
