Big Ben

BIG BEN is a household word because he's a clock of his word. He runs on time, he rings on time, he helps folks live on time.

These are family traits. All Westclox Alarms run true and ring true. They're all good looking, too. You can tell them by the family name, Westclox, on the face.

The Western Clock Company builds them in the patented Westclox way—the better method of clock making that won Big Ben's success. Needle-fine pivots of polished steel greatly reduce friction. Westclox run on time and ring on time.

That's why they say: "Westclox are best clocks." And you will, too; so look for that family name, Westclox, on the dial of the alarm you buy.

Your dealer has them. Big Ben is $4.00.

Twilight of the Demons.

Tragic mythology is getting as hard to rap as the Teuton heathen who have named so many pregnable "unimaginable" lines after their divinities. Hindenburg, the war-god, into whose wooden idol in the Thiergarten the worshippers no longer drive their votive nails, couldn't protect his line. He can no longer protect any line: Wood, a kindlier deity than the German Herr, who seems to be a union of Thor and Hindenburg, cannot save himself from the faithful. Siegfried is helpless, not only in love. Loge, habitual liar and traitor, would have been a better deity. The Americans have reached and crossed "the Freya defense position." After the unspeakable abominations done by the Germans, the choice of the goddess of marriage as a tutelary divinity is as "curious" as "silly" things German.

"The Ring of the Nibelungen" is a prophecy of the fate of Germany. World power is to come to him who is master of the enchanted gold-store of the Rhine Maidens. A promise treated as "a scrap of paper" brings on a curse. Murder and ruin follow. Valhalla is burned as pitilessly as if it were a French or a Belgian day. The Curse of the Ring is near its fulfillment. Only it is not the Twilight of the Gods that is come. It is the Twilight of the Demons.—New York Times.

Every Saturday evening after 7 o'clock, Choice Ends of Beef, Mutton, Lamb, Pork will be sold at cost. ELLIS & CO., LTD., 203 Water Street.—Nov. 29.

CREW ATTACKED.—A vessel which left port yesterday was obliged to return after sailing as far as Bay Bulls, where the crew having developed influenza. These were conveyed to the St. H. Hospital immediately on arrival.

I never thought
MACARONI
Could be so Good

This is what people are saying of this new Macaroni of Catelli's. It is so smooth and rich, and has such a delicious flavor, that it seems to be a different dish altogether.

CATELLI'S MILK MACARONI

Is made in a big Sunlit factory—of the genuine Semolina flour and pure, sweet milk. It is dried in special dust proof rooms by means of clean air, kept at special temperature.

If you know Macaroni only as a tough, stringy dish, strongly flavored with cheese, you have a treat in store when you use Catelli's Milk Macaroni in some of the deliciously inviting styles given in our new book—"The Girl at Catelli's".

Turkey Signs
Armistice Terms.

Shorn of all Power, the Ottoman Government Make an Abject and Humiliating Surrender --Twenty Five Conditions Agreed to.

Twenty-five clauses cover the terms of the armistice to Turkey, which has been granted by the Allies, and went into effect Tuesday, October 31st. There is no doubt whatever that the agreement of Turkey to the conditions means absolute and unconditional surrender. Every military, naval and civilian condition places upon Turkey the burden of responsibility, to shelve which, or fall in the carrying out of the same, places upon that country the penalties prescribed. There is nothing left unsaid or undone to safeguard the Allies, and every precaution has been taken to prevent internal disorders, during the period of the armistice. Altogether the twenty-five conditions, as under, leave Turkey entirely at the mercy of the Allies, and with the opening of the passage of the Dardanelles to Allied warships, the German vessels in the Black Sea will shortly have a period set to their operations in these waters. Thus ends the short-lived ambition of Turkey to dominate, with German aid, the Balkan Peninsula.

CONDITIONS.

London, Nov. 1.—The terms of the armistice granted by the Allies to Turkey follows:—

First.—The opening of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus and access to the Black Sea, Allied occupation of the Bosphorus forts.

Second.—The positions of all mine fields, torpedo tubes and other obstructions in Turkish waters are to be indicated, and assistance given to sweep or remove them as may be required.

Third.—All available information concerning mines in the Black Sea is to be communicated.

Fourth.—Allied prisoners of war and Armenian interned persons and prisoners are to be collected in Constantinople and handed over unconditionally to the Allies.

Fifth.—Immediate demobilisation of the Turkish army, except such troops are required for surveillance on the frontiers and for the maintenance of internal order. The number of effectives and their disposal to be determined later by the Allies after consultation with the Turkish Government.

Sixth.—The surrender of all war vessels in Turkish waters or waters occupied by Turkey. These ships will be interned in such Turkish port or ports as may be directed, except such small vessels as are required for police and similar purposes in Turkish territorial waters.

Seventh.—The Allies to have the right to occupy any strategic points in the event of any situation arising which threatens the security of the Allies.

Eighth.—Free use by Allied ships of all ports and anchorages now in Turkish occupation and denial of their use to the enemy. Similar conditions are to apply to Turkish merchant ships in Turkish waters for the purpose of trade and the demobilisation of the army.

Ninth.—Allied occupation of the Taurus Tunnel system.

Tenth.—Immediate withdrawal of Turkish troops from Northern Persia to behind the pre-war frontier already has been ordered and will be carried out.

Eleventh.—A part of Transcaucasia already has been ordered to be evacuated by Turkish troops. The remainder to be evacuated if required by the Allies after they have studied the situation.

Twelfth.—Wireless telegraph and cable stations to be controlled by the Allies; Turkish Government messages to be intercepted.

Thirteenth.—Prohibition against the destruction of any naval, military or commercial material.

Fourteenth.—Facilities are to be given for the purchase of coal, oil, fuel and naval material from Turkish sources after the requirements of the country have been met. None of the above materials are to be exported.

Fifteenth.—The surrender of all Turkish officers in Tripolitania and Cyrenia to the nearest Italian garrisons. Turkey agrees to stop supplies and communications with these officers if they do not obey the order to surrender.

Sixteenth.—The surrender of all garrisons in Hadram, Asir, Yemen, Syria and Mesopotamia, to the nearest Allied commander and withdrawal of Turkish troops from Cilicia, except those necessary to maintain order as will be determined under clause six.

Seventeenth.—The use of all ships and repair facilities at all Turkish ports and arsenals.

Eighteenth.—The surrender of all ports occupied in Tripolitania and Cyrenia, including Misurata to the nearest Allied garrison.

Nineteenth.—All Germans and Austrians, naval, military or civilian, to be evacuated within one month, from Turkish dominions and those in remote districts, as soon after that time as may be possible.

Twentieth.—Compliance with such orders as may be conveyed for the disposal of that portion of the Turkish army which is demobilised under class five.

Twenty-first.—An Allied representative to be attached to the Turkish Ministry of Supplies in order to safeguard Allied interests. This representative to be furnished with all aid necessary for this purpose.

Twenty-second.—Turkish prisoners are to be kept at the disposal of the Allied Powers. The release of Turkish civilian prisoners and prisoners over military age is to be considered.

Twenty-third.—An obligation on the part of Turkey to cease all relations with the Central Powers.

Twenty-fourth.—In case of disorder in the six Armenian vilayets, the Allies reserve to themselves the right to occupy any part of them.

Twenty-fifth.—Hostilities between the Allies and Turkey shall cease from noon, local time, Tuesday, the 31st October, 1918.

Gasolene Blaze.

Early last evening a fire occurred on board the sloop, Silvia, of Bonavista Bay, Green, master, which was lying at Ayre & Sons' Southside premises. The blaze was started by some gasolene, which, while being removed from one cask to another, ignited from a nearby lamp. Capt. Kane, of the West End Fire Station, visited the vessel, but the services of the brigade were not required, and the all-out signal was sent in two minutes after the outbreak. One of the crew had his hands rather badly burned in extinguishing the blaze.

AS AGE CREEPS ON

As age creeps on, vital force gradually decreases, until, when a man or woman is around 50, the kidneys and bladder need assistance to keep them in perfect working order.

Rheumatism, neuralgia and backache are common complaints of those getting on in years. It seems to be the custom to expect these afflictions—conditions they are simply the inevitable results of old age, and that there is no remedy for them.

There is a remedy—Gin Pills—and there are hundreds of people who can prove that the remedy is good.

Mr. Frank Lalonde, a well-known farmer of St. Raphael, Ont., was enabled to return to work at the age of 61 by the help of Gin Pills. Mr. Lalonde writes that he had suffered for years with pains in his back and sides, until finally he was forced to quit work. Gin Pills relieved him to such an extent that he now states he feels as strong at 61 as he did at 30 years.

Mrs. Hugh McLeod, of Lewis Cove Road, had a similar experience with Gin Pills. In her letter to us she says: "I am 61 years and the mother of 8 children. Five years ago I was troubled with backache and dull pains across the abdomen. I used a box of Gin Pills, and feel so much better that I will continue to use Gin Pills."

Testimonials such as these cannot be disregarded, for the aged speak the truth.

It is foolish to suffer when you don't have to. Use Gin Pills and enjoy your latter years. 50c a box. Sold by all dealers. Sample free upon request to The National Drug & Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Toronto, Ontario. U.S. residents should address N. Druggists, Inc., 200 Main St., Buffalo, N.Y.
