Trouble with the Indians. PITTSBURGH, Oct. 7th.—The cases of Edward J. Keenan, deputy chairman of the Democratic state committee, and others, charged by the Hon. John Covide with colonizing the voters of his district, appeared before the Court to-day.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7th.—A mass meeting of German Republicans was held at the Cooper Institute this evening under the auspices of the German Grant and Colfax Campaign Club.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 7th.—There was a slight fall of snow at St. Joseph to-day.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8th.—The Herald's Washington Telegraph despatch says Gen. Sherman has written the authorities for more troops to aid in subduing the Indian warriors.

There is not much of public interest transpiring in this locality at present. The railway excitement is still simmering throughout the townships, opinions thereon are various, and the only thing that can be said on the question is that a general want of confidence is freely expressed in both schemes.

Mount Forest Correspondence.

There is not much of public interest transpiring in this locality at present. The railway excitement is still simmering throughout the townships, opinions thereon are various, and the only thing that can be said on the question is that a general want of confidence is freely expressed in both schemes.

Public improvements generally indicate the prosperity of any people or place. Mount Forest therefore can claim a fair share of progress even in this hard season.
