Discovered in New York-Too Poer for a Doctor.

New York, July 21.—A headth inapetor, going his rounds in the lower part of the city this morning, stumbled over a nest of smallpox in the big tenement at No. 25 Pell street. In one flithy room on the fourth floor he found a whole family sick with the disease. Constantine Traisco, 29 years old; his wife, Louise, 23 years years old; his wife, Louise, 23 years, and Derola years, were huddled together in two beds. The whole family was immediately sent to Riverside Hospital and inspectors were sent to vaccinate all the inmates of the tenement. The family were poor and could not afford a doctor. Louis Gabana, a homeless man, was also sent to the hospital this morning tuffering from smallpox.

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is carache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, to which the young are specially subject.

"By the way," inquired the young woman with the bundles, turning back for a moment, "do you fill mail orders?"

"I—I think not, miss," replied the new salesman, somewhat hesitatingly. "The matrimonial agency is the next block, south."
