as he was leaving for New York last week, that he had made a will some six months ago, bequeathing all he possessed, save a few legacies, to my boy. On the day he died he repeated the same to me, and informed me that the will would be found in yonder safe." She lifted one slender finger and pointed toward it as she said this, but with her piercing glance still riveted upon Richard Heatherton's face. Instantly and involuntarily his eyes sank beneath hers, while for his life, he could not wholly repress the start which her words sent through him. Miriam was quick to note it, and her heart gave a great bound of conviction. "He is the thief!" she said to her-"He is the burglar who entered this house and forced the safe! I will hunt him down-I will not spare him! I will sign no papers for either of

Your statements are very absurd, madam," remarked the elder gentleman with a sneer, for, to do him justice, he did not believe a word of her assertion, since, in the presence of Mr. Lawson's clergyman he had examined every document belonging to the dead man, and found no will, and greatly to his surprise, for, in view of the ill-will margin. Several games were postponwhich had existed between them for so many years, he had confidently ex-pected to find that he had left the bulk of his property to some charitable institution, as he had threatened to do in his hot anger at Richard's behavior

They may sound so to you, but they

Mr. Lawson's papers."
"It has been stolen," was the brief

brother-in-law?" hotly demanded "for I am confident that the examination was honorably conducted. The will was probably stolen at the time the was blown open and rifled of whatever of value it contained." "And upon the strength of what you assert Mr. Lawson told you, do you propose to lay claim to the whole of his fortune?" dyemanded her interloc-'Not exactly," Miriam answered, "but I shall at least make provision for my future to such an extent as I may." You are extremely obdurate, but I think that the law will convince you baffled man, while in his heart his re- tendance, 1,500.

spect for the indomitable pluck of the woman increased a hundredfold. "You can call the law to your aid if you choose, Mr. Heatherton," she resolutely returned; "I shall be ready

Heatherton at this. He had not dreamed that they would meet with such determined opposition to their plans. During the interview with his father previous to Miriam's appearance, they had arranged everything satisfactorily to their own minds, and imagined that they could easily induce her to BASEBALL. that they could easily induce her to accede to whatever terms they might THE METHODIST LEAGUE GAMES 8. The feature of the game was Donnelly's pitching, he having thirteen

But they now learned that the apparently frail little woman possessed a spirit and determination that could not center Methodist Church, defeated the pine and Harris. her power and knew it, and meant to

was a fat plum worth struggling for, and he did not mean to yield it, if by As for Richard Heatherton, he was no less anxious to avoid all publicity no less anxious to avoid all publicity in the settlement of his uncle's afters on account of Vera, for he befairs, on account of Vera, for he believed it would be almost a death-blow to his idolized child if she should ever discover the stigma that rested upon her birth. Yet he was in great need of money, and if he could but get possession of the handsome property Mr. Lawson had left, he would then quit the country again, and thus Vera need never learn the truth.

He had been taken wholly by surprise by what Miriam had stated regarding a will, for when he had seen her previous to her departure for Nantasket, she had appeared to have no thought of reaping any pecuniary benefit from the man who had befriended her, and in his heart he cursed him for having told her of it.
"Isn't ten thousand enough? What will you take to sign off?" he demanded in a sullen tone.

She turned and regarded him thoughtfully for a moment, then with tense lips and waning color she answer-When the mystery of my son's disappearance is explained, I will answer tions.

"Madam, you are incorrigible! Your obstinacy is intolerable!" Thomas Heatherton burst forth, his face crimson with passion. "My son is the rightful heir to his uncle's property, and you have no business to hamper his just claims in this way."

"Mr. Heatherton, I am a woman who, for more than twenty years, had to struggle against the tide, and was almost crushed by the burden of a great wrong," Miriam responded in a low, grave tone. "I am alone and friendless, my heart is nearly broken with grief and suspense over the terrible charges against my son and the mystery of his fate; but I, too, have rights, and I have no intention of being bribed to resign them. If your son is the legal heir to Mr. Lawson's property, then I, as his legal wife, am entitled to a befitting support from the estate -at least, I shall caim such, without relinquishing anything, until I learn with a slight bow to the gentlemen.

as she concluded, she turned and quietly left the room, without waiting to note the effect of her words. "Zounds! What a spirit that woman has! She'll never give in, Dick!" cried the older man with a not akin to ad-

"She shall!" His son hoarsely returned, and, white to his lips, "Oh, heavens! Why couldn't I have known the truth regarding that miserable marriage? It could have been annulled, and then my child, my Vera, would have been saved from a terrible blight!"

[To be Continued.]

IA CLUB MATCH

AT THE KENNELS

A closely-contested club match was Winnipeg, Man., July 7. - Winnipeg played at the Kennels yesterday. A suffered a disappointment today in tea was afterwards given. Mrs. Eccles the defeat of the Henley crew. The tea was afterwards given. Mrs. Eccles and Mrs. C. Leonard will be hostesses at a tea to be given on Monday. The score was as follows: Miss Beddome ½, Miss Beddome ½, Miss Beddome ½, Miss Beddome ½, Miss M. Puddicombe 7, Miss A. Hyman ½, Miss F. Zimmerman 5, Miss E. Scatcherd 3, Miss S. Scatcherd 3, Miss N. Harris 0. Miss H. Richardson came the Associated Press dispatch appropriate their defeat. The newsbeat every separate word into the brain of her listeners, "the whole of Mr.Lawson's fortune belongs by every legal right to my son, if he is living—to me, or perhaps I should say, his parents—as his heirs—if he is dead."

She caught her breath and her voice faltered over the cruel word; but recovering herself she resumed:

"For Mr. Lawson himself told me just as he was leaving for New York last"

L Zimmerman 5, Miss E. Scatcherd 3, Miss N. Harris 0, Miss H. Richardson 1, Miss N. Harris 0, Miss N. Hinth 0, Miss Dapers were loath to post the regatta news. Scholes' victory is exceedingly popular here, and softens the defeat of the Winnipegs. The general opinion was that the Winnipegs had a better chance in their event than had Scholes in the Diamond sculls. It is possible that Winnipeg will send an Miss M. Elliott 4, Mrs. F. T. Beck 3, Mrs. Adam Beck 4: total 17. Mrs. Adam Beck 4; total 17.

THOUGHT WINNIPEG

"HAPPY JACK" A LOSER TO BOSTON

Highlanders' Star Twirler De. Trotting Purses Will Be Decided CARTER'S FOR DIZZINESS. feated by the League Leaders.

"Happy Jack" Chesbro, of the New York Americans, was on the losing side yesterday. It is not a frequent occurrence for Chesbro, but yesterday it was up to him. What must have made it all the more bitter for the Highlanders' star twirler was the fact that the game was played on the home grounds, and that the opposing team was Boston, which has been holding first place for some time by a small ed on account of rain. The scores:

IN THE NATIONAL. At Pittsburg-Pittsburg-Chicago game IN THE AMERICAN.

"They may sound so to you, but they are true, nevertheless," Miriam firmly responded.

"But there was no will found among Mr. Lawson's papers."

At St. Louis—

0000000000004 4 0 to the dash system in light harness horse sport, they are more than overland Suglen; Owen and Sullivan. Umpire, O'Loughlin. Attendance, 1,800. At St. Louis-At Cleveland-"Do you mean to insinuate that I have not acted in good faith, in the examination of the papers belonging to wood. Umpire, Connolly. Attendance, 1548 1.648.

Batteries—Chesbro and McGuire; Gibse and Farrell. Umpire, Sheridan. Attendance, 1,566.

At Washington-Washington-Philadelphia game postponed; rain. IN THE EASTERN. At Toronto-

 $\begin{array}{c} \text{R. H. E.} \\ \text{..0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 0-2} & 4 & 5 \\ \text{..1 1 2 0 0 0 1 0 0-5} & 3 & 1 \end{array}$ Batteries — Falkenberg and Raub; Schultz and McAuley. Umpire, Egan. Attendance, 1,200. At Providencethat you have not quite so much power as you imagine," angrily retorted the dee and Lynch. Umpire, Haskell. At-

> At Baltimore-Jersey City-Baltimore game postponed; rain. DETROIT TEAM WON.

in Dashes-$100,000 in Stakes.

A radical change in the conduct of trotting races has been made by the management of the two Grand Circuit meetings to be held in New York at the Empire and Brighton Beach tracks, Aug. 8 to 20. Although the tendency in trotting has been to eliminate the old three in five plan, the circuit meetings in New York will be the first at which all the purse races will be dashes. The sum of $100,000 is offered for the two weeks' competition. and under the dash system, five or six opportunities will be offered during the meetings to trotters and pacers W. C. Findlay Captures the with records ranging from 2:05 to 2:30. Although there are a few objections At the Empire track last year the

.00000012-3 7 1 erned by a man on horseback, instead of by the pole horse.

The stake events will be contested on the Empire plan, but all other races will be dashes at distances of onehalf mile, a mile, one mile and an eighth and one mile and a half. The Shults Experimental Stake will be best resolutely returned; "I shall be ready to meet you with your own weapons at any time." Galt, Ont., July 7. — A baseball two in three. Purses will range from between Galt and the Detroit Business $500 to $900, and more money will be best two in three. An angry oath broke from Richard University team, result in a score of offered than was distributed last sea-

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF A DAY.

be easily overcome. She had them in Empress Avenue team after an exceed. TURF. ingly hard contest. Score, 8 to 7. Last Mr. Heatherton, in his purse-proud arrogance, could not endure the thought of having the facts of his son's early marriage with all its dispressful air. marriage, with all its disgraceful circumstances, aired before the public, inc. and the work. Murray's pitchas it would of necessity be, if they were driven to a lawsuit; while, on the other hand, Benjamin Lawson's fortune game. Clarke, of the Wellington Street nine, also twirled a very clever game, and with practice Wellington Street has a hard team to beat. The score Great interest is being taken in the

> DEFEATED HOME TEAM. Appin, July 6. — The Appin baseball team went to Glencoe on Tuesday, and

On Tuesday evening, at the Askin strike-outs. Batteries - Appin, Don-

YESTERDAY'S WINNERS. At Fort Erie - Zarkee, 3 to 2; Odoletta, 6 to 5; Minatour, 9 to 2; All Blue,

7 to 1; Florizell, 6 to 1; Bank Street, At Brighton Beach — Blue Coat, 30 to 1; Mineola, 6 to 5; Hurst Park, even; Carrie Jones, 10 to 1; Jane Holly, 5 to 1; Sonoma Belle, 10 to 1. At St. Louis — Fruit, 7 to 1; Miss Betty, 7 to 2; Red Leaf, 3 to 2; Flying Torpedo, 11 to 5; Goo Goo, 8 to 1;

I. O'Neil, 11 to 1.

At Chicago — Frances Dillon, 11 to 5; The Mighty, 13 to 5; Clifton Forge 4 to 5; Fonsuluca, even; Flaxman, 12 to 5; Black Wolfe, 11 to 5. At Niagara Falls - Billy Hamilton, Robert Henry, Percentum.

commenced today. Sixteen rinks are entered, eighteen ends up. The following were the rinks which complet-

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

EASTERN LEAGUE.

Boston Philadelphia

Detroit Washington

WINNERS WALKED AWAY FROM FIELD ed their scores today: Col. Moscrip, skip, 17; C. McIlhargey, skip, — Jas. MacKeny, skip, 12; P. J. Kelly, skip, 19. Col. Seyfert, skip, 18; L. Trow, skip, 15. J. E. Sanagan, skip, 9; J. Trow, skip, 18. J. Steele, skip, 15; J. Orr, skip, 19. J. J. Coughlin, skip, 15; G. H. Douglas, skip, 12.

Park Matinee—Straight Heats in Each Race.

The events in the matinee races at Queen's Park yesterday proved to be New York uninteresting, contrary to expecta-tions. Chicago ... Cincinnati Pittsburg

In all of the races the winners walked away from the rest of the field. The Class "D"-Lady Mac, McLeod Jubilum, Wood 3 4 Baltime Waffles, Barnes Time, 1:21, 1:211/4. Grey Pointer, Chantler1 Johnnie B., T. Flannigan Big Jack, D. Flannigan 3 Time, 1:301/2, 1:311/2.

CLUB TOURNAMENT IS ON AT STRATFORD

IT IS AN ELIXIR OF LIFE.—Since forgotten time, men have been seeking for the Elixir of Life, which tradition says once existed. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is an Elixir, before which pain cannot live. It is made up of six essential oils, carefully blended so that their curative properties are concentrated in one. It has no equal in the treatment of lumbago, rheumatism and all borbly pains. Stratford, Ont., July 7. — A two days' bowling tournament, instituted for members of the bowling club in this der rough sea of Matrimony.

It tells of inflammation in the throat, bronchial tubes, or lungs. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral quiets bruised membranes. Your doctor Soap Powder dusted in the bath, softens the water and disinfects.

Carter's Little Liver Pills.

Very small and as easy to take as sugar. FOR BILIOUSNESS. FOR'TORPID LIVER. FOR CONSTIPATION. FOR SALLOW SKIN. FOR THE COMPLEXION Price Purely Vegetable.

CURE SICK HEADACHE.

CHAMPION BOWLER

Trophy at Niagara-On-the Lake Tournament.

Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ont., July 8.now famous Empire plan was put into The feature of yesterday's play in the operation, requiring all horses to retire O. B. A. turnament, was the match that do not stand for money after two heats. This furnished the best racing and the fastest time in the history of the Grand Circuit, and it remains to Victorias, and W. G. Findlay, of St. be seen whether the shortest possible Catherines. The match was very close plan of racing meets with the same and exciting and was witnessed by the Scott Hudson, Jack Curry, John large number of spectators who Dickerson, Fred Noble and drivers crowded the lawns. The result was and horsemen generally have express- in doubt until the last shot had been It is better for the horse as they can start two or three times during a meeting. The idea was so favorably received that Deceived the provided that Deceived the provided that the provided the provided that the ceived that President Butler decided to have all late closing events at a dash, except the Shults experiment of Toronto to win the trophy in some stake, where the horses will be gov-Smith, of Balmy Beach Club, This morning the final round in the Conso-Catherines, and J. R. Code, Toronto, will be played, and the end of the tournament will probably be finished > Trophy final-Toronto Victorias, S 12; St. Catherines, W. G. Findlay, 13. Association, fourth round-Galt, Patrick, 15; Granites, Orr, 11; Canadas, Willison, 19; Canadas, Greenwood, 4; Granites. Dr. Hawke, bye, Fifth round, Granites, Dr. Hawke, 19; Canadas, Willison, 11; Balmy Beach, Smith, bye; St. Catharines, McCarron, > bye; Galt, Patrick, bye. Semi-final-Dr. Hawke, Granites, 15 Smith, Balmy Beach, 18; McCarron, St. Catherines, 11; Patrick, Galt, Final— G. H. Smith, Balmy Beach, 12; Patrick. Galt. 9. Consolation, fourth round-Granites Hargraft, 26; St. Catherines, Yielding, 4; Hamilton Thistles, Dr. Wardell, 9 Toronto Victorias, W. B. Smith, 7 Hamilton Thistles, Dexter, 17; Granites, Hargraft, 14; Niagara, Dorritty, 11; Balmy Beach, Edmonds, 19; Can adas. Greenwood, a bye: Canadas. O'Hara, 13: Prospect Park, McCullough, 12; Granites, Boeck, 15; Granites, Orr. 7. Fifth round-Caer Howell. J. R. Code, 19; Niagara, Dorritty, 17; Canadas, Greenwood, 13; Hamilton

Thistles, Dexter. 8. Doubles, 133 ends-Booth and Booth, 17; Minty and Patten, 4; Armstrong and Fairhead, 14; Taylor and Jones, 7; Hurdnell and Dorritty, 1; Wardell and McConechy, 19. Singles, 15 points—J. McKimmen, 15; A. J. Osborne, 8; Geo. Chapman, 15; A. Chatfield, 2; G. H. Smith, 15.

July Magazines.

ed their scores today: Col. Moscrip, A number of stories founded upon sporting incidents, adventure with rod and gun in various parts of the world, boating, racing, etc.; "Things a Woman Should Know in Learning to Swim," and many other interesting articles, finely illustrated, make the July "Outing," a very attractive num-STANDING OF BIG LEAGUES ber.

Pearson's for July contains rive special articles—"Running the Campaign," Thomas Nast-A Picture of the Times When History Was Warm in the Making," "Reconstruction," "Modern Methods of Finance," "The Battle of The Washita (Indian Fights and Fighters,") and "The Mysterious Renegade." A large number of short stories help to make the July Pearson's an attractive summer magazine.

The leading article of McClure's is a clear and mauly statement of the acts of "The Government in the Chicago Strike of 1894," by Ex-President Cleveland, in Ray Stannard Baker's paper, "Organized Capital Challenges Organized Labor," Mr. Baker thus expresses the motto of D. M. Parry's or ganization, of Mr. Job's Employers' Association of Chicago, and many others: "Yes, we believe in unionism but - the unions." There are other strong articles and a variety of short serial by Gensai Murai, begins in the July St. Nicholas. This unique story is founded upon the life of Bunzayemon Kinokuniya, a Japanese merchant of the eighteenth century, whose pluck, wisdom and enterprising spirit made him one of the most prosperous and respected men of the time. Short stories, lively verses and an instructive miscellany, with good illustrations sustains the character of St. Nicholas as the young folk's favorite.

In its handsome new dress the July Atlantic opens with an article or 'Washington in War Time." drawn from Ralph Waldo Emerson's Journal of a visit to that city in 1862, recordof a visit to that city in 1862, recording pen pictures and notes of conversations with Lincoln, Seward, Sumner, Chase, and others, Archibald H. Grimke contributes a thoughtful paper upon "Why Distranchisement is Rad." Professor Norton's third installment of Ruskin's letters, shows Ruskin's fine contempt for the United States during the rebellion period. Arnold Haultain has a capital article on "The Mystery of Golf, and the Day We Celebrate." drawn from a series of records of the day and its doings from the diaries of an old-time clergyman. The usual va-riety of instructive and interesting articles will be found in this number.

The Canadian Magazine for July contains three good stories by Canadian writers. There is a racing story by W. A. Fraser, the author of several books, and a resident of Georgetown, just west of Toronto. There is a humorous tale by A. R. Carman, a staff writer on the Montreal Star, the author of two novels, and a descriptive writer of considerable experience. The western story, "Star-Blanket," is by Duncan story, "Star-Blanket," is by Dunca.
Campbell Scott, an officer in the department of Indian affairs at Ottawa, and the author of some volumes of more than ordinary merit. verse of more than ordinary merit. Among other articles of great interest are "The Ladies' Empire Club of London," by Lally Bernard; "An Outing on the Bay of Fundy's Shore," by F. C. Sears: a character sketch of Richard McBride, Premier of British Columbia, by T. A. Gregg, and "How Our Grandfathers Lived," by Frank Yeigh. All these contributions are appropriately illustrated.

Hans Dahl the famous German painter, is credited with the invention of an automatic electric speed indicator for automobiles. The device is quite complicated in description, and should receive the most careful July 12, Aug. 5 and Sept. 2. Tickets though simple enough in construction and operation. It imparts to a series looseness of the bowels is noticed, adelphia, Tickets good on Black Diaof springs the motion of the axles of the wheels, so that at a speed of, say, 15 miles an hour, the first spring will stretch out enough to complete an electric contact with a disk in which sale by all druggists. a large opening will then be filled with green sheet of transparent material. can be shown, and at night the colored sheets are illuminated enough to be the beginning of the next collegiate of the International Red Cross Society. just as easily read as in daylight. year.

Our Customers Save Money on Every Purchase.

SPECIAL OFFERS THIS WEEK IN:

Fancy China, Crockery, Glass, Wall Paper, Paints,

Dinner Sets, Glassware, Souvenir China, Window Shades, Traveling Cases.

A FEW MINUTES IN THIS GREAT STORE WILL CONVINCE YOU. GOODS DELIVERED.

Toronto,

Disorders of the Bowels Among Children. During the summer months children On Lehigh Valley Special Seashore are subject to disorders of the bowels Excursion from Suspension Bridge, on Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diar- mond Express and all regular trains. rhea Remedy should be given. This Just the time to take your vacation medicine has never been known to fail Call on or address Robt. S. Lewis, and always gives prompt relief. For passenger agent, 10 King street, East makes the necessary contact and a red been appointed lecturer in English litmakes the necessary contact and a red disk appears in the indicator. In that evaluate at Amherst College, and will feeble health at the age of 73. She was manner all important changes in speed begin the discharge of his duties at one of the advisers of the organization

Only $10 to Atlantic City. Cape May and Return $10. attention. As soon as any unnatural good 15 days, Stopover allowed at Phil-

Professor George E. Woodberry has Florence Nightingale, the world-fa-

STORIES of ACTION

10 Splendid Summer Stories

100 Superb Illustrations

30 Pictures in Color 16 Portraits of Society Beauties

22 Separate Titles

An Ideal number of the Ideal American Periodical "A 35-cent Magazine for 15 cents"

For Sale by your Newsdealer

The July number of the METROPOLITAN MAGAZINE

