

STANDARD WORLD

"You are right and I am wrong," she said. "I beg your pardon, Mr. Bradstone! This is not the way my father would treat you. Whatever he may have felt he would have behaved with courtesy. Yes, I beg your pardon! You tell me that"--she paused, as if the words cost her an effort-"that you love me, and ask me to be your wife?" "I do, I do," he broke in. "I love you to distraction. I haven't a thought in the world but you. You are just life to me: I swear it. I've told the squire what I will do-I'd spend my last penny in making you happy. I'd lay down my

She stopped him with a cold but queenly gesture.
"Please," she said in a low voice. "I am sorry, very sorry, Mr. Bradstone, but it cannot be. I mean that I cannot

"You can't? You refuse?" he stam-mered, his small eyes growing red, and an ugly stiffness coming over his

"I do refuse, as gently as—as considerately as I can," said Olivia. "I am grateful to you for the honor—." She stopped. "Oh, let me pass, please, and never, never"-and her dark brows came down straight, and majestic as Diana's-"never speak to me like this

He did not move, but stood regarding her with feverish and sullen re-"That's not what your father says,"

Olivia looked at him with imperious "What do you say?" she said.

"I say that it wasn't in this way your father heard me," he answered, sullenly. "He didn't treat me like this -he consented." Her eyes flashed back the retort, and as eloquently as eyes could speak, said, His face grew red; it had been white a moment ago. 'You don't believe me?" he said. "I do not! Let me pass, if you please,

Mr. Bradstone. "But I say it's true!" he exclaimed; cept me for a son-in-law if you'll say 'Yes,' and—" He paused. "I think you will say 'Yes,' with all your accursed pride!"

The word slipped from him, and he would have recalled it the moment after he had uttered it. But its effect upon Olivia was not what he expected. 'You are right, Mr. Bradstone," she You have misunderstood my father; I am sure of that."

"No. I haven't," he put in. that he should have spoken as you say he did. Let there be an end of this. I thank you for the honor-it is an offer from a man-I thank you, and beg you to believe that it is impossi-ble that I should accept it."

Her lovely eyes rested on him for a moment, then looked aside. His face went white

"Why?" he persisted.

an insult for me to ask you to be my phantom and queer? You wouldn't treat Lord Bertie

"Ah," he said with passionate anger. "That's true, I can see. But let me be soon, and naught will remain of tell you that I think myself as good as him but the history of his nerve, his made another attempt to pass him—"as and the further fact that he won in good, and better. Could either of them the space of three minutes, $52,000—a offer what I do? I've just told your father that I'd settle fifty thousand pounds upon you. I tell you now that reached Broadway last night and man that's nothing to me; I didn't make it good things were said to his credit. more for fear of hurting his feelings; hundred thousand-She put out her hand. covered her with shame. "If it were the pet of chance. We persuaded him Oh, I know," he broke in huskily. "It's as he said. You don't care for was a man in a million; true to his money. It's all the same to you whe- friends and with no enemies worth the ther a man's poor or rich; but money's something, Olivi—a"

"I am usually addressed as Miss down upon him.

"I say it's all the same to you; but it isn't to him. No! And I'll bet that before we part tonight you'll consent,

She looked at him calmly-questioningly. For a moment there arose in her mind the suspicion that he had been drinking, and he read it in her

"No, I'm not drunk," he said bit-"I'm only half-mad, driven so 2 2-3 yards. by your words and looks. And I mean THE RING. I say-you will consent, as he

'Consent to marry you!" said Olivia. stung into retort.
"Yes," he said, sullenly, "for his

BRONCHITIS

Immediate relief invariably results from the use of Angier's Emulsion. It makes breathing easy, overcomes, the cough, soreness, inflammation and purulent discharges. It counteracts and expels the poisonous secretions. It fortifies the system and does the greatest possible good. It is decidedly different from other emulsions.

Indicate relief invariably results from the time how and had more than held its own. Mr. Hamilton wished the club would have the most prosperous year of any club in London.

McCoy set a hot pace from the time how. Mr. Hamilton wished the club second Vice-President—George Gibbons, jun. Second Vice-President—George Gibbons and second vice-President—George Gibbons and second vice-President—George Gibbons and second vice-President—George Gibbons and second vice-President

He nodded.

"Yes. Look here, Olivia, we've been beating about the bush long enough. You've treated me like a dog—yes, you have; or like the dirt under your feet. And I don't deserve it. No, by God, for I spared the old man."

"You spared—"
"Yes, I did. I could have told him what a cleft stick I'd got him in, but what a cleft stick I'd got him in, but didn't. I knew you wouldn't like it. knew you'd rather he remained in igprance till the affair was over." "I am afraid you are wasting your breath, Mr. Bradstone," said Olivia. "I do not in the least comprehend you—"

"But you will presently," he said, with a half-cunning, half-furious smile. "Look here! Your father, the squire, is, as he put it, a fraud—"
She drew herself up, and sent a lightning shot from her eyes that made him quail.

oointing to the door.
"Stop!" he said. "Wait!" for she had wept with the dignity of an insulted oddess towards the bell. "So help me, eaven, it is true! He will tell you so himself if you are foolish enough to ask him. He is a fraud—well, well, he's a ruined man, then. Up to his neck in debts, the Grange's sunk, the very furniture under a bill of sale; nothing can save him-nothing. He will have to turn out, neck and crop. Turn out! You don't know what that means. But he does! The day he leaves here a ruined, broken man, dates his death-wargoes unless you accept me. Olivia." "Unless-unless-Oh, you are mad!" ***********************

she panted. "Am I? No, I am not. It's you who are mad—with pride. Do you think I am an idiot and don't know what I'm alking about? What I tell you is true; and what is more, I hold your father's

[To be Continued.]

AT DEATH'S DOOR

Famous Horseman Is Dying in Agony of a Nervous Disease.

Asheville, N. C., Jan. 6. - George Smith, the race track plunger, better known as "Pittsburg Phil," is here in a sanatorium, critically ill, in fact on the verge of the grave. He has been here several weeks.

Notwithstanding his condition he did not forget his old friends on Christmas Day. To each he sent a token of re-

His ruling passion, "picking the winners." has not forsaken him. He continues, though weak and at times delirious, to select, with the success that has made him famous, the horses to capture events on the several tracks.
"Pittsburg Phil's" death is hourly expected. Friends of his in this city have received the sad information that 'the plunger's constitution, no longer able to withstand the awful nervous strain that years of horse racing have out upon it. has finally collaps his last ticket. Drawn of feature, wasted to a mere skeleton of his former self, he hovers on the verge of the line, the crossing of which marks the end of his race. His body, but a shell end of his race. His body, but a shell for a fevered brain, his every nerve strung to the pitch of most awful hufor a fevered brain, his every nerve man suffering, he calls again upon Salvator, The Picket, Handball—each of his favorites, in turn, pleads with them, cries to them his hopes, bets upon them phantom fortunes, and falls back upon his pillows, weak, exhausted, a men-"I say he consented. He's ready to ac- tal wreck, whispering his huzzas of fancied triumph as his selections cross the line. His approaching end and its attendant delirium marks this man as the victim of that wonderful self-repres sion that made him famous wherever horses ran and bets were laid. No man ever yet could divine from

"Phil's" features or actions whether his bet upon any race was a cigar or said quietly, "I am proud, and apt to a fortune. His was the face of the forget that others have as much pride sphinx to those who sought to read his as I have. I beg your pardon again. mind, his feelings, his hopes and his

And this wonderful self-repression, "I know my father." she said, as this is what is killing him as surely as quietly as before, "and it is impossible the fellest disease. His disease is beyond the cure of medicine.

Casting his lot in a maelstrom where men are but the playthings of an awful honor for any woman to receive an passion-where hearts, hands and bodies swayed in the agonies of "the race" are as things mad, "Phil" was like a rock, around which eddied and flowed this terrible current, sweeping against him on all sides, but never moving him in the least.

Is it any wonder after twenty-odd "I understand," he said slowly, "you years of such a life, that today, on the you think I am no more than the dirt verge of final dissolution, the nerves under your feet. You think, because give away, and the mind, no longer I made my own way in the world, and with its accustomed restraint, breaks or—or that fellow Faradeane like this his end would be, what the breakdown would mean, and the ablest specialists At Bertie's name a smile flickered counseled him, the rock, to mix up in about her lips, but at Faradeane's a the whirlpool. He listened and turned wave of color swept over her face and away. What his thoughts were no man can tell.

Today he is dying, and his end will either of them. Stop"-for she had bets, his good judgment as a "plunger" fortune, surely.

News of "Phil's" approaching end reached Broadway last night and many ing. George Considine said of him this: but I tell you I'll settle a hundred, two "When the season closed here last year 'Phil' was a total wreck-he had bet right and left, recklessly, but every "Oh, hush," she said, as if his words turn of the wheel of fortune found him to take a rest, for he was prostrated. I am sorry to hear of his going-he was a man in a million; true to his Others echoed Considine's epitaph. Olivia Vanley," said Olivia, flashing SWIMMING.

BROKE RECORD; THEN FAINTED. Chicago, Jan. 6.-E. P. Swatek, member of the Central Y. M. C. A., broke the world's record for swimming under water at the annual New Year's meet of the Central Department of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon and then fainted. Swatek is not yet 20 years old. He set the world's mark at 106 2-3 yards, beating the previous record, held by T. W. Reilly, of England, by Coy is on the verge of a complete breakdown. He has declared off his fight with "Twin" Sullivan, and from boxer's weakened appearance it is not likely that he will ever fight again. strength, and had more than held it

SPECIAL BARGAINS FOR SATURDAY.

For Quick Clearing We Offer for Saturday, the Following:

Clothing.

Children's Suits, regular $4 00, for .....$2 25 Children's Suits, regular $3 50, for .....$2 90 Boys' Suits, regular $4 00, for $2 10 Boys' Suits, regular $4 90, for $2 90 Boys' Suits, regular $2 60, for $1 70 Men's Tweed Suits, regular $6 50, for ......$3 75 Men's Tweed Suits, regular $13 00, for .....$7 75 Men's Tweed Suits, regular $11 00, for .....$6 90 Men's Tweed Suits, regular $10 00, for ......$5 50 Men's Tweed Suits, regular $8 00, Men's Trousers, regular $3 50, Men's Trousers, regular $2 50. Men's Trousers, regular $2 00, Men's Overalls, regular 90c, for 49c Men's Overalls, regular $1 00, for 53c Men's Smocks, regular 90c, for 51c Men's Smocks, regular 50c, for 32c Men's Overcoats, regular $16 50, for .....$10 50 Men's Overcoats, regular $4 90, for .....$2 90 Boys' Overcoats, regular $6 00.

for .....$3 00

Suitings.

Tweeds in profusion, new goods. regular $1 75, for ......99c Tweeds in profusion, new goods, regular $1 10, for .....60c Tweeds in profusion, new goods, regular $1 30, for ......70c Tweeds in profusion, new goods, regular $1 20, for ......65c Tweeds in profusion, new goods, regular 80c, for ......50c Tweeds in profusion, new goods, regular 50c, for ......25c

Men's Hosiery and Underwear.

Heavy Wool Socks (black), regular 30c, for ......18c Heavy Wool Socks (gray), regular, 30c, for ......18c Heavy Cotton Socks, regular 25c, for ......12c Heavy Cotton Socks, regular 20c, for .......10c Men's Unshrinkable Wool Underwear (Standfield's), regular $1 65, for ......$1 05 Men's Unshrinkable Wool Underwear (Penman's), regular $1 65,

Men's Fleece-Lined Underwear, regular 50c, for ......35c Men's Heavy Wool Underwear, regular $1 00, for ......69c Boys' Fleece-Lined Underwear,

Men's Shirts.

Men's White Shirts, laundered, Men's White Shirts, laundered, Men's Neglige Shirts, regular 90c. Men's Black Sateen Shirts, regular Shirts.

Men's Linen Collars, regular 15c for..... ..... ..... ..... 5c

Underwear.

regular $1, for......62c regular 85c, for..... ..... 51c Men's Colored Shirts, regular 85c, for......51c for..... 55e 85c, for......51c There is a choice selection of Men's Men's Silk Ties, regular 50c, for..31c Men's Silk Ties, regular 25c, for..16c

Ladies'

Men's Silk Ties, regular 20c, for..12c

Ladies' Wool Vests, regular 25c, Ladies' Wool Vests, regular 50c, Ladies' Wool Vests, regular 65c, for ......39c Ladies' Wool Vests, regular 75c, for .......40c Ladies' Wool Drawers, regular, Ladies' Wool Drawers, regular, 85c, for ......49c Ladies' Wool Drawers, regular,

Furs.

Furs, Ladies' Caperines, Dogskin, regular $6 25, for .....$2 99 Furs, Ladies' Caperines, Seal, regular $7 00, for .....$3 10 Furs. Ladies' Caperines, black, regular $2 75, for .....$1 75 Furs, Ladies' Sable Stole, regular $11 50, for .....$6 00 Furs. Ladies' Sable Stole, regular $9 50, for .....$4 25 Furs. Ladies' Black Ruffs, regular $1 37, for ......70 Fur Caps, Dogskin, regular $3 75, Fur Caps, Seal, regular $3 75, for .....$1 99

Shirtings, Sheetings and Cottons.

Shirtings, regular 15c, for ......10c Shirtings, regular 121/2c, for .....71/2c Shirtings, regular 10c, for ..... 6c Wide range and choice patterns. Bleached Sheeting, regular 25c, for ......16c Bleached Sheeting, regular 20c, for ......130 Bleached Sheeting, regular 35c, for ......21c Bleached Sheeting, regular 30c, for ......190 Bleached Pillow Cotton, regular 22c, for ......121/30 Bleached Pillow Cotton, regular, 25c, for ......15c Bleached Pillow Cotton, regular, 15c, for ..... 10c

Tickings and Denims.

Ticking, regular 18c, for ......12c Ticking, regular 15c, for ..... 9c Ticking, regular 121/2c, for .....71/2c Denims, regular 15c, for ...... 9c Denims, regular 20c, for .......14c Denims, regular 28c, for ........19c

Eiderdown and Wrapperettes.

Flannelette, regular 121/2c, for .. Flannelette, regular 10c, for ..... 7c Flannelette, regular 9c, for ......61/2c Flannelette, regular 8c, for .....5%c Flannelette, regular 6c, for ..... 5c Wrapperettes, regular 121/2c, for 9c Wrapperettes, regular 10c, for .. 7c Riderdown; regular 50c, for ....29c Eiderdown, regular 35c, for ....21c Astrachan (curl cloth), white and red, regular $1 90, for ......99c Canton Flannel, regular 121/2c, for ..... 9c

Canton Flannel, regular 10c, for 71/2c Canton Flannel, regular 16c, for 12c Canton Flannel, blue, regular 15c, Canton Flannel, red, regular 121/2c,

THIS IS A SALE TO THE FINISH!

$10,000 Worth Choice Winter Goods to Be Sacrificed.

B. KEENLEYSIDE, DUNDAS STREET.

Football Teams Assured of Success in Coming Season

Were Present at Annual Dinner—Fine Speeches

this thorough mastery of the nerves— Advertiser Offers Cup for Cross. Country Run for Players on the Teams.

> note of everything at the annual din- The former stated that last year had ner of the London Rugby Club held at the Masonic Temple. Speeches, don. Never before had a local senior songs, jests and a great wave of en- team been successful, and they certhusiasm all pointed to this one motto, which was taken up in the first speech and echoed and re-echoed shadow of a successful coming season was materialized by the plans outlined and the prospects pointed out. In this body football centers, and if their support and earnest effort can the team along. be relied upon for all next season, Toronto and Hamilton must take a back seat. the teams and their supporters. Foothave manifested a surprising awak-Buoyed up by this and with should be a banner year. London all praise. has had intermediate and junior championships. The senior will be the next, or all signs must be disbelieved.

The Dinner.

The dinner saw the closing of one players of last year were present. The dinner served was a splendid one, and a material tribute to the caterer. Mr. Cyril Brennan, pianist, also contributed a programme which was greatly appreciated.

After the toast to "The King" had been honored, the health of "Canada" was proposed by Rev. D. S. Hamilton, an ardent enthusiast and an exmember of the McGill championship their lasting admiration. This proposal team. He stated that the very first element of Canada's greatness was The replies given by Messrs. Glennie that of the physical side. A country Wilson and Michael Tierney to "The Canada had been tried in athletics and asm. player, the speaker had seen that unanimously elected as follows London had a very strong team in the Honorary President—W. J. Cl race. In the senior contests London had shown up with great reserve

Over One Hundred Enthusiasts ball, lacrosse and hockey and he asked finisher. Mr. Frank Reid had also ofthe reason for this not being the case fered a gold medal for competition. With at present. What was needed to attain it was hearty, united effort. The play as well as possible winalways figure ning a championship. In the past term of office. though London had played hard. The iuniors should be watched as they would make the seniors. Mr. Meredith said that the credit for placing teams in the field was due to Mr. Ewart Field. The names of Mr. George C. Gibbons and Dr. Melville Hueston were attach-"We will win." That was the key- ed to the toast to "The Old-Timers. seen the realization of the hope of years-to have a senior team in Lon-

Dr. Hueston, who recently arrived home from Philadelphia, where he capinto all those following. The spirit tained the Dental Fraternity team of haven't got a name or a title, that it's forth in the wild delirium of races manifested was one that counts for the University of Pennsylvania, said success. Over 100 young men, all of that he had had an opportunity of "siz-"Phil" was advised years ago what them directly interested in football ing up" both the American and Burnin London, were there, and this side games. He also knew the old game well, and he thought that the Burnside game was vastly superior to either of "The London Seniors" brought a neat response from Mr. Ewart Field, the hard-working captain. Some had been The fact that London did so well dubious, he said, of placing a senior last year seemed to give assurance to team in the field, but after going the teams and their supporters. Football is one sport to which the citizens team had come out on dry land. It took for the Chosen Friends, the score being everything in their favor, next year to win. The officers were deserving of Mr. Gilbert Bice, the star wing of the seniors, also responded.

To the toast to "The Juniors," Messrs. Pierre Thomson (captain), and Will Macgregor responded. The former said that the team had worked season and the opening of another, hard to win and that there was great the purpose of the gathering being to satisfaction in the support given them wind up the affairs of 1904, and launch by the citizens. The teams which dethe ship for 1905. Nearly all of the feated them were a shade faster, and deserved to win. Next year the juniors would make a good record, he prophe-Mr. Macgregor, who has been one of the very strongest workers on the team, also promised a good showing for the juniors next season. At this point the president called for a health to Mr. William J. Clark, who had nobly aided the team and won met with hearty approval.

have strong men first of all. Ladies" were received with enthusi-KID McCOY ON SICK LIST.

never found wanting. London was

This closed the toast list, and the doing her part. As an old football officers for the coming year were Honorary President-W. J. Clark.

President-H. McK. Millman, Vice-President-Dr. Palner Smith. Vice-President-George Gibbons, jun.

The game should be played both for its own sake and to land the champion-In regard to the practices they were to be started early in August, and before the season began a number of cross-country runs were to be held, The Advertiser had put up a cup for the winning team, and Mr. W. J. Clark, a diamond medal for the first such encouragement the team should was to get into the field surely come out winners. The new president congratulated Mr. Meredith, the retiring president, on his creditable

The officers of the dinner committee, season the best team had won, alMessrs, Millman, McMahen and W. J. Clark, were extremely fortunate in securing the services of two of London's Moule and Arthur Garthwate, Besides contributing solos, they gave a duet, "The Old Brigade," which was a decided feature of the evening. They were heartily encored, Mr. Thomas Ranahan's solo was also received splendidly and encored heartily.

THE OPENING GAMES

Canadian Fraternal Societies' Carpetball League at Work.

The first games of carpetball on the schedule of the newly-organized Cana-London had very bright chances dian Fraternal Societies' Carpetball and he would do all in his power to help League, was played on Thursday evening, Jan. 5, in the Foresters' Hall, South London. The first game, between Trafalgar Lodge, of the Sons of England, and Council No. 19, of the Chosen Friends, resulted in a victory better sports to play this year, because 33-37. The game between Westminster no one thought there was much chance Lodge A.O. U. W. and Court Brigh-Lodge, A. O. U. W., and Court Brighton, A. O. F., was easily won by the Foresters, the score being 28-37.

The players then sat down to a splendid table of refreshments, to which ample justice was done. Among Sproule, of Ingersoll Orange Lodge. THE SCHEDULE.

The schedule of games of the present series was read by the secretary of the league as follows: Jan. 5-Sons of England vs. Chosen Friends. Jan. 5—United Workmen vs. Ancient Foresters. Jan. 10-Chosen Friends vs. United Workmen. Jan. 10-Sons of England vs. Ancient Foresters. Jan. 18-United Workmen vs. Sons of Foresters. Feb. 2-Sons of England vs. Chosen Friends. Feb. 2-United Workmen vs. Ancient Foresters. Feb. 9-Chosen Friends vs. United Feb. 9-Sons of England vs. Ancient Feb. 15.—United Workmen vs. Sons

Jan. 18-Chosen Friends vs. Ancient

England

of England.

Feb. 15-Chosen Friends vs. Ancient

NELSON TO MEET CORBETT AGAIN

BE STRONGER

ranged for Latter Part of Next Month.

San Francisco, Jan. 6 .- Young Corbett and Battling Nelson, the great again. They have been secured by Either Jack Brown or Harry Peel will Jimmy Coffroth, matchmaker of the referee. Yosemite A. C., to engage in a twentyround battle the latter part of next

Corbett and Nelson met Nov. 29, and Nelson won in ten rounds, the seconds evenly-contested game by 9 to 7. Only of the Denverite throwing up the sponge. Corbett claimed he prepared ruled off. hurriedly and was not in good shape. Nelson and Corbett lost no time in accepting the terms offered by Coffroth and will sign the articles of agreement within the next few days.

Jimmy Britt, who refused a flattering offer from Coffroth to fight Willie Lewis, the New York lightweight, has consented to fight the winner of Nelson-Corbett battle, but judging from the way Britt expresses himself he will not be prepared to fight the winner for at least three months. Either new articles for the fight be- Peebles, of St. Marys, was put out of tween Marvin Hart and Jack Johnson will be signed or the Louisville heavyweight and the colored champion not meet in the ring on Jan. 27. Hart laims that "Billy" Pierce, of Boston, who signed for him, was not authorized to do so. The trouble is over the finanpurse in half and gave Pierce 25 per cent of Hart's half. The new agree- Waghorne gave entire satisfaction as ment, if signed, will give the winner 65 referee. per cent and the loser 35 per cent, and the prominent speakers was Bro. T. F. McCormick will sign as the manager.

INTEREST IN SHOOTING

The Melrose Rifle Club met on New Year's afternoon and enjoyed a few hours of the old-time sport. The club has for some time past been unable BASEBALL. to keep the members interested enough to attend. But it is the intention to try and get some of the old-time interest aroused again, such as was taken about five years ago. It has been arranged to meet again on Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 11. at 1 o'clock sharp. scores were made on Standard American target, during a heavy snowstorm and might wind, with the	1	OI.	reret	9

with open sights:
100 yards, rest:
E. J. Shaw
F. Harrison	8	8	8	7	5-
C. Harrison	8	7	8	3	10-
D. Steinhoff	7	6	6	8	8-
N. Challoner	7	6	8	5	6
G. Shaw	5	6	5	6	8-
50 yards, off-hand:
E. J. Shaw	6	10	8	7	10-
F. Harrison	7	9	9	8	.7-
D. Steinhoff	6	8	10	8	8
N. Challoner	9	6	5	8	9
G. Shaw	4	4	9	6	5
C. Harrison	6	4	4	5	7
Totals: E. J. Shaw 81, 1	7	H	arr	is	on
D. Steinhoff 75, N. Challon	er	69	. C	. 1	Ha son 62, G. Shaw 58, nott on or order

HORTONS WILL

A Twenty-Round Battle Ar- Several Changes Made for Woodstock Game Tonight -Other Results.

At the Jubilee Rink tonight a large crowd will likely be present when the Chicago fighter, who recently gave Horton Juniors will meet the Wood-Jimmy Britt, the pride of California, stock Juniors in a return match. Sevmale singers, Messrs. Ernest such a hard battle in their twenty- eral changes have been made on the round bout at Mecranics' Pavilion here local team, and with this strengthentwo weeks ago, have been matched ing the team are confident of victory.

> ate O. H. G. game of group three, played at Ayr tonight, Preston won ah one man, Kinder, of Preston, was Uxbridge, Ont., Jan. 5. — The first game in district No. 3, junior series, O.

H. A., was played here tonight, with

Ayr, Ont., Jan. 5. - In the intermedi-

Markham the opposing, team, home team won by a score of 17 to 0. Clinton, Ont., Jan. 5. - The return O. H. A. intermediate match between St. Marys and Clinton was played here this evening, Clinton winning out by a score of 4 to 2. During the second half business by a crack over the eye. The Newmarket, Ont., Jan. 5,-The first junior series, O. H. A. game played in this district played here between Parkdale and Newmarket resulted in a vic-The articles already signed split the tory for Parkdale by a score of 13 to 5. The game was very fast throughout, E game was refereed by Jack Brown,

Cobourg, Ont., Jan. 5. - The first junior O. H. A. match was played here tonight between the Belleville BEING AROUSED was 2 to 0 in favor of Cobourg, and at full time 4 to 2 also in favor of Cobourg. The game was fast and some#### what rough.

TO GOVERN WORLD'S SERIES. Cincinnati, O., Jan. 6.-Chairman Hermann announced yesterday that, in his judgment, rules for the government of a series of baseball games for the championship of the world would be adopted at the coming meeting of the Everybody welcome. The following national commission, which is to control such contests, along the lines suggested by President Brush of the New

The winning club is to get a silver trophy, similar to the Temple cup. The club that wins the series is to be only the custodian of the cup, and is responsible to the national commission for its safe keeping. He believes that under these conditions there is no good reason why the Boston Americans and New York Nationals should not meet in the spring.

The plan of the minor leaguers to present Brush an embossed testimonial for the efforts to have the draft price for minor league players increased has been held in abeyance until after the meeting of the national commission.