Late Floyd Marsh.

The funeral took place Wednesday of Floyd Marsh, at Coldstream, who was drowned at Kennedy, Sask., some time ago. Rev. C. E. Scott conducted the services, which were held at the home of the parents of the deceased. Rev. E. J. McEwan, of Poplar Hill, and Mr. S. P. Zavitz assisted, and spoke in the highest terms of the young man, who was out 21 years of age, and was popular with all who knew him. The floral tributes were very beautiful. Two were especially noticeable, being made entirely of wild flowers by friends of the deceased at Kennedy. The pallbearers were Arthur Frazer, Bryan Hamby, Albert Wood, Elihu Wood, Roy Marsh and Herman Marsh.

Late William Fenn.

The funeral of Mr. William Fenn took place yesterday at 2:30 from the residence of his son, 753 William street, to Woodland Cemetery. The services took place at 2 p.m. and were conducted by Rev. Mr. Andrews, of Memorial Church. The funeral was largely attended, and the floral wreaths were beautiful and numerous. British Oak Lodge of the Sons of England attended in a body. The pallbearers were three grandsons: John, Albert and William Fenn, and three nephews, Richard, Christopher and William Rawlings.

Miss Wanless Recovering.

The Chatham News says: John Snell and Miss Snell, Lorne avenue, who were badly injured in Monday's street car accident, have been suffering severely. Mr. Snell's ankle is badly cut up, and the inflammation is quite intense. Miss Snell was up for a short time yesterday and today.

Mrs. George J. Wanless, Lorne avenue, who collapsed yesterday and remained unconscious for several hours, is resting easily today. The mental anguish and shock were responsible for the collapse. Miss Wanless, who was with Mr. Bromhead and had such a narrow escape from death, is also resting much easier. The News was shown a brooch taken from the collar of the waist she wore, which was attached at the time of her fall. It had been completely indented by the moving and deadly wheels, the pin being bent so that it had to be straightened before the brooch could be removed. This not only indicates the narrowness of the escape, but the nature of the injury. Miss Wanless's injuries, Alex. Gregory, sen., who had his nose broken, is recovering nicely.

HOSPITAL TRUST

DISCUSSED PLANS

For the New Laundry To Be Erected at Victoria Hospital.

A meeting of the hospital trust was held yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the mayor's office at the city hall.

Plans for the new laundry building at the Victoria Hospital were discussed.

It was decided to apply the Isabella Magdalen Meredith memorial fund of $7,600 to the alterations to the old administration building. Jones Bros., tender for the work was formally accepted, although it was decided on some time ago. The work was commenced this week.

The auditor's report for the past six months was received and filed.

On motion of Trustee Jackson, it was decided to call for tenders for hospital supplies immediately.

Supt. Heard reported that the new X-ray apparatus had been installed. It was tested yesterday morning.

The monthly hospital report was presented and showed that 141 patients had been admitted, 118 discharged, there were six deaths, 21 births and 50 operations. The receipts were $1,847.

New Laundry.

As Ald. Stewart, chairman of the building committee, was present, the plans of the new laundry were discussed.

City Architect Nutter's plans provided for a cement and brick wall, the cement to go as high as the bottom of the window sills. It would be allowed to remain in the rough, the bricks being removed after the cement hardened.

Although it would be very substantial, the trustees did not favor it as it would present a very bad appearance. Mr. Nutter was then called in and stated that if natural stone were used the building bylaw called for an eighteen-inch wall instead of thirteen inches, as the plan showed.

Although the building was but one story, he said that the strain of the shafting in the rafters would be very great. Cement blocks could not be used either as they are not substantial.

It was finally decided to have a wall of cement but a few inches above the ground in order that it could be banked up.

Those present were Chairman Sereation, ex-Mayor Judd, Jackson, Ald. Stewart, Secretary Heard and City Architect Nutter.

AT THE POPE'S GIRL.

Papa Plus X. carries at his girle an old watch of base metal, the face chipped, with a plain leather guard. He was looking at this watch the other day when a Roman noble, whom he had given an audience, produced his own richly chased and jeweled gold watch and begged the Pope to accept it in exchange for the much-worn timepiece, which he said he should regard as a priceless possession.

The Pope gently declined. "It was a present from my dear mother," he said, "it was quite a small boy when she gave it to me with this very same leather guard. I am proud of it. I promised to keep it until it was worn out beyond repair. It must be a good watch, for it has never disappointed me yet."—Exchange.

MAN DISAPPEARS

LEAVES NO TRACE

Charles Warner, Welland, Is the Principal in an Apparently Inexplicable Mystery.

Welland, Ont., Aug. 13.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Charles Warner, of the Warner-Gibson Company, Welland, is as yet unsolved. He has disappeared as completely as if the earth had opened and swallowed him.

The finances of the firm are in first-class shape and Warner himself is known to have a satisfactory private banking account. The circumstances attendant to the case make it appear likely that some accident has befallen him, and accidental drowning is suspected.

Warner was last seen Aug. 4, about 7:45 a.m. He was talking to some strangers in front of the mill in which his factory is located.

It was Warner's habit on entering the works to take off his good clothes and put on a pair of overalls. Sometimes he put on Thompson's overalls. That is what he did that morning. Thompson's overalls are gone and Warner's street suit and working clothes are left in the office. His hat is there, too, and he must have worn an old hat when about the works, for it is also missing.

On the desk lay his spectacles—the only pair he had. He was unable to read or write without them. He wore them constantly when about his work.

His valuable gold watch was in his coat pocket with the chain attached. His wallet was also there, with a number of papers.

Chief of Police Jones made a thorough search of every hole and corner of the big building. The river was partially dragged. Chief Jones has taken possession of the effects in the office, including two business letters which Warner wrote the day before his disappearance.

Warner was a man of fine appearance. He stood about six feet tall, and had a distinguished bearing. He wore sideburns, dark, and rather closely cropped. He was about 50 years of age. He came to Welland last spring.
