Important Judgment in Favor of Bovril. Montreal, Feb. 2.—In the superior ourt. His Honor Mr. Justice DeLorimier has rendered a judgment in favor of Bovril, which is of great interest to all dealers in, and manufacturers o trade-marked proprietary articles. A certain firm of confectioners had been giving their customers various brands of beef extracts when asked for Boyril, and this being proven, his lordship gave judgment restraining them from substituting in the future, and condemning them to pay damages to the Boyril Company, and also all costs of the action, which would be a very considerable amount. The court thus rules that it is illegal IS READILY EXPLAINED for any dealer when asked for a certain article to mislead his customer by handing out some substitute, and moreover, establishes that the manufacturer who can prove such a case has recourse for substantial damages. The judgment is apt to have farreaching effect in preventing substitution, not only in the case of Bovril,
