H. V. MEREDITH IS LIKELY TO BE PROMOTED

Former Londoner May Become Head of the Bank of Montreal.

A dispatch to The Advertiser from Montreal states that Mr. H. V. Meredith, formerly of this city, will probably be appointed general manager of the Bank of Montreal at the annual meeting to be held next week.

For some time it has been known that Sir Edward Clouston, at present the general manager, was anxious to retire. His health has not been good, and he is desirous of getting away from business. He will continue to hold the position of vice-president of the bank.

The news came as no surprise to those who understood the situation, as the retirement of Sir Edward Clouston has been expected for some time. He has had Mr. Meredith under consideration as his successor for some time, and the latter is particularly well qualified for the responsible position.

The promotion of Mr. Meredith will be a source of gratification to his many friends here. He started his banking career in London, and soon advanced to more responsible positions. He continued to be advanced until made assistant-general manager, and he has so proved his genius for banking that the highest position in the bank will soon be his.

Mr. Meredith is a brother of Sir William Meredith, Toronto; Mr. Justice R. M. Meredith, Mr. T. G. Meredith, K.C., Mr. Edmund Meredith, K.C., and Mr. Llewellyn Meredith, of this city.

Handbags, Purse, Wallets, Bill Folders, and all kinds of travelling goods at Lawson's Retiring From Business Sale. These are gift suggestions that will appeal to those who wish to give sensible gifts, and the sale prices are an added inducement.

was proposed by Comp. Atcheson, and ably responded to by Ex-Comp. W.

Ex-Comp. Finlay Marshall and Comp.
J. H. Fowler.

Rt. Ex-Comp. T. H. Baker, on behalf of the visitors, spoke of the hospitality of St. George's Chapter, and the tribute was suitably acknowledged by Ex-Comp. Atcheson and Comp. E.
W. G. Quantz.

One of the features of the evening was the presentation of a past principal's jewel to Ex-Comp. T. P. Elliott. Right Ex. Comp. Thomas H.
Baker, on behalf of St. George's Chapter, made the presentation, and spoke of the untiring efforts made by Comp. Elliott to advance the interests of the chapter. The gift was suitably acknowledged by Comp. Elliott.

It was decided to join St. John's and London Chapters in holding a joint at-home early in January.

LLOYD'S, 100 YEARS OLD, CELEBRATES

Founded in 1811 and Organization Has Become of Immense Importance to the World.

London, Nov. 28.—Lloyd's, the immense organization for the collection and distribution of maritime intelligence published in Lloyd's List, is celebrating its centenary, having been founded in November, 1811.

Lloyd's agents are today to be found on every coast in the world to watch over the vessels within their districts and report arrivals, departures and casualties by wire to the head office in London. When Lloyd's started these ships.

The official description of Lloyd's, as given in the annual calendar of the corporation, says:

"Lloyd's is an association of underwriters in the city of London, but does not as a corporation undertake insurance business. This is conducted solely by its members on their own account, and so long as they conform to the rules of the society they are free to follow their individual views.

Lloyd's is, in fact, a great market for insurance."

But though the agencies were established a hundred years ago the institution itself goes back much further. It dates to the seventeenth century, and the name is derived from a coffee house kept by Mr. Edward Lloyd in Tower street, where underwriters met to transact business. In 1692 Lloyd's Coffee House was removed to Lombard street, and in 1719 Lloyd's left the coffee house to take up premises in the Royal Exchange where it has since remained.

HOW IT HAPPENED.
[Sketch.]

Condescending Chappie—"I really can't remember your name, but I've idea I've met you before." Nervous Host—"O, yes, very likely, I've my house."
