urges the Italian authorities to take drastic measures against, and even to shoot, those persons who are found guilty of speculating with contraband in favor of Germany and Austria. Such men are smugglers, the paper says, but at this time smugglers are no better than traitors and spies. The Secolo calls attention to the fact that as there is at present no state of war between Italy and Germany certain products may still be exported from Italy into Germany, which means Austria. It urges that these condi-
