MANNING DOHERTY QUILTS THE PROGRESSIVE PARTY

Ex-Leader of Ontario Party Resigns From the Legislature To Support Meighen in Federal Politics—Action Comes as Complete Surprise—Leaves Today For West.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Toronto, Nov. 26.—Manning Doherty, M.L.A. for East Kent, in a statement issued this evening, announced that he had resigned from the legislature. Mr. Doherty was minister of agriculture in the Drury Farmer-Labor government, and after its defeat led the union farmers at Queen's Park for one session.

In giving his reasons for retiring, Mr. Doherty stated: "The main purpose of the farmers' party having been accomplished, I feel duty bound to give my support in federal politics to the party whose pronouncements most nearly coincide with my ideas."

This, the statement set forth, was the Conservative party.

Mr. Doherty in his statement outlined the steps connected with his appointment as minister of agriculture in the Ontario Farmer-Labor government. As minister, he devoted much time and effort "placing before our people the national advantages which would come from the putting into force in this country a system of commodity co-operative marketing of farm products."

It was explained that while he made substantial progress, it was comparatively slow because the principles and technique of such co-operation was entirely new to the people of Ontario when he began.

"I gave my support to the Farmer party," the statement added, "because I was in full accord with their determination to force the government of this country to recognize the vast importance to the welfare of Canada of developing in an aggressive, business-like way our agricultural possibilities."

I am without a single regret for the part I have taken in the political activities of the organized farmers of this province. The importance of our agricultural problems is in the minds of our public men of today as never before in the history of Canada.

Party Aim Attained.

"As a party we have accomplished the main purpose of our coming into existence. After much thought and a careful survey of the present situation I have come to the conclusion that the immediate problems of agriculture are economic rather than political. I would not, however, hesitate a moment to again join in a farmers' political movement should our government fail to give a systematic support to the farmers' demand for the economic marketing of their products."

"The present political situation at Ottawa is one of grave concern to every serious-minded citizen. Canada is confronted with tremendous problems which must be grappled with at once or our children's problems will be even more serious than ours. Definite leadership in public affairs must be established and without unnecessary loss of time. The main purpose of the farmers' party having been accomplished, I feel in duty bound to give my support in federal politics to the party whose pronouncements most nearly coincide with my ideas."

"Right Hon. Mr. Meighen has stated that if his party comes into power he will set up a tariff board which will, after thorough investigation, make recommendations to the government as to tariff adjustments. I have always been in support of such a policy. He has further stated that if his party comes into power he will immediately give every legislative aid and assistance toward the establishment in Canada of a national co-operative system of marketing our farm products, both at home and abroad. As the main purpose of my entry into public life was to bring about the acceptance of such a system, I feel I am bound to give my support to the political party which has announced its intention of putting it into effect."

Not Fair to Electors.

"It is true that the electors of East Kent elected me as their representative in the legislature, and the matters of policy herein discussed are federal rather than provincial. I feel, however, and technique of such co-operation was entirely new to the people of Ontario when he began."

"I value beyond expression the honor of being your representative in the legislature, but I am prepared to make any sacrifice rather than place myself in a position where I might be charged with being unfaithful to the trust you have reposed in me."

"I have, therefore, asked the speaker of the legislature to accept my resignation as member for Kent East. In due time it will be accepted. It is my sincere hope that you will approve of the action which I have felt compelled to take."

DUTY TO MOVEMENT.

Special to The Advertiser.

Thamesville, Nov. 26.—The decision of Hon. Manning Doherty to quit politics and to devote all his time to furthering the cause of co-operative marketing among the farmers of the dominion was communicated to the executive of the East Kent United Farmers by the ex-minister himself at a special

Was Biggest Man in Agricultural Movement, Says Montgomery.

Special to The Advertiser.
Chatham, Nov. 26.—The ranks of the Farmers' party in Ontario have been dealt a hard blow by the action of the Hon. Manning Doherty, according to S. A. Montgomery, of Dover township, president of the Kent Farmers' Political Association.

"There is no doubt about it, the Hon. Manning Doherty is the biggest man in the Dominion of Canada, as far as agriculture is concerned," declared Mr. Montgomery.

"If he joins the Conservative party, we have no quarrel with him. If he says that his convictions have caused him to take such action, you may be sure such is actually the case," asserted Mr. Montgomery.

Mr. Montgomery had a conference with Mr. Doherty about one month ago, and at that time no mention was made of his present action. Instead, his course in the coming session of the legislature was discussed, and he seemed to be dissatisfied with the Ferguson government.

he contemplated joining the Conservative party," Mr. McKenzie was asked.

Through With Politics.

"He did not," was the answer. "On the contrary, he told us definitely that he was out of politics for good."

With a view to investigating co-operative marketing in the west, Mr. Doherty will leave for Winnipeg on Saturday, he told the executive. While there he will make a thorough study of the methods used in marketing, and will apply the knowledge gained to the situation in the province. The troubles of the farmer were economic, and would not be relieved by political action, he stated.

N. Z. TRADE LAWS DOUBLY SEVERE

Canadian Exports Must Be 50 Per Cent Home Products After April 1.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Ottawa, Nov. 26.—New Zealand is doubling the percentage of British labor and material required in imports under British preferential rates.

The present percentage of "British origin" required is twenty-five. The new regulations, which come into force on April 1, next, will be fifty.

The effect of it will be that Canadian goods exported to New Zealand will have to be fifty per cent Canadian labor and materials if they are to get the advantage of the British preference.

The increase will particularly affect Canadian branches of American firms which are only assembling or partly manufacturing in Canada.

TORONTO'S BECK DRIVE
TOTAL NOW $62,357

Special to The Advertiser.

Toronto, Nov. 26.—The report, luncheon of the Beck memorial fund workers today, crowded out of the Pompeian Room at the King Edward hotel, gathered in the Oak Room. Chairman John O'Connor presided, and in a few characteristic remarks, urged the campaigners on to relax no effort to bring the $150,000 total in sight for Saturday noon.

The largest team report came from W. G. Pierdon with $58.75. The second was Willis MacLachlan's team with $49.15.

The day's total was $11,062.85, making the grand total $62,357.

URGES FOUR-HOUR DAY

George Bernard Shaw Pictures Life in Paradise of Fabian Socialists.

Associated Press Despatch.

London, Nov. 26.—Picturing life in an idealistic socialist state, George Bernard Shaw wound up the Fabian Society's annual popular lecture course tonight, declaring that the standard day would be four hours work, eight hours sleep and four hours for drinking, dressing, undressing and a little resting. That would leave eight for leisure.

The first postulate of the socialist, said Shaw, is that everybody must have the same income; for a person to get a penny more or less than his fellows would be a crime.

The Nurses' Home Bylaw:

Victoria Hospital has doubled in size in the last fifteen years, yet no extra housing has been provided during that time.

At present the nurses are living in six different buildings, where it is impossible to secure privacy, sanitation or proper toilet facilities.

Many nurses are accommodated in the Children's Hospital, occupying rooms that should be used for sick and crippled children.

These conditions are unjust to the nurses and tend to impair the efficiency and service of the entire hospital.

That is why a new nurses' residence is so urgently needed—a residence devoid of luxuries and frills, where the nurses may have the decent accommodation they are entitled to.

The cost will only be about 20 cents per thousand of your assessment.

A new nurses' residence will solve one of the most baffling problems that has ever confronted Victoria Hospital—and it will provide employment for the people of London.

The Ridout St. Bridge Bylaw:

If you have driven or walked over the present unsightly structure known as the Ridout Street Bridge you will appreciate how important it is that a new bridge be built.

The present bridge is a menace to motorists and pedestrians. It is unsafe. Cars are not permitted to travel over it at a rate exceeding five miles an hour.

A new bridge will make this much-used thoroughfare one which citizens can be proud of.

It will permit re-establishment of street car service, which has been cut off for many months.

It will give employment to many citizens.

A new bridge MUST be built some time. The longer it is delayed the longer will the life and limb of citizens be endangered and the longer will Londoners be forced to endure great inconvenience and discomfort.

The Victoria and Aged People's Homes Bylaws:

These two institutions have offered refuge to the old and crippled for years. At a surprisingly low cost per patient they are supporting the aged and incurable of the community, ministering to their scant wants—bringing happiness to them in their declining years.

These two splendid institutions are now in need of additional quarters and are asking London to vote $75,000 for extensions.

Londoners will respond wholeheartedly to this appeal of the aged and incurable.
