SUFFERED TERRIBLE AGONY

"Fruit-a-lives" Alone Gave Him Quick Relief

Buckingham, Que., May 28, 1915. "For seven years, I suffered terribly from severe headaches and indigestion. I had belching gas from the stomach, and I had chronic constipation. I tried many remedies but nothing did me good. Finally, a friend advised 'Fruit-a-lives'. I took this grand fruit medicine and it made me well. To everyone who has miserable health with Constipation and Indigestion and Bad Stomach, I say take 'Fruit-a-lives', and you will get well!"

ON THE SIDE

Argus' work on the receiving end is beginning to show much improvement. His last round performance in the morning fixture left nothing to be desired. He hit the ball hard and timely and fielded the ball around in fine fashion.

Gilbert started to warm up in the third of the morning game after Lodestro allowed two hits and two runs, but Larry who was the victim of poor support in that inning, tightened up after that and looked invincible.

It was one of the sultriest afternoons of the season, yet a monster crowd turned out. As usual on holiday afternoons the Beavers dropped the game. They haven't won an afternoon holiday fixture this year before a loss crowd.

Two out of three from the first division Baitle Creek team is good work. Now Rose and Gilbert will probably help things along and take today's and Thursday's battles from the Plinties. If they do they will be well on the road towards a berth in the first division.

Shaughnessy had to swallow a bitter pill when the Saginaw's took a both ends of Monday's double header. The Aces out entirely in the three game series, but was lucky to come through with the third, which they won after a hard struggle 9-6, before the season's largest crowd. The Aces now lead Hamilton by five full games.

Brantford broke even over the holiday, beating Flint in the afternoon fixture, 9-7 but dropping the morning encounter to Saginaw 4-3. In the latter fixture all of the runs were scored in the first inning by both clubs.

The London Tecumsehs under Dad Stewart are showing a marked rejuvenation. They trimmed Bay City to a standstill on Monday by taking both ends of a double header and broke even with the Wolves in the holiday games, winning the first by the shut-out route, 3-0. Hemion who was bested by Gilbert in Saturday's fixture at London came back in Monday's game and did the iron man stunt by pitching both ends of the double-header and won both.

Experts who are paid real money to enlighten baseball fans declare that George Sisler of the Browns is the greatest first baseman in big league society.

The recent rumor that spread rapidly over New York, to the effect that once the Yanks landed at the top they never could be ousted, has proven to be a base canard.

Both the Cleveland Indians and the Cincinnati Reds look like a million dollars right now. But you never can tell. For years these two outfits have been flitting with pennants for part of a season, only to curl up and blow before the finish.

Missouri fans don't know whether to cry or laugh at the Cardinals' antics. The Braves or some other down-trodden outfit will trim the Cards easily, while the very next day the Rickeys will make the Giants look like a deceased haddock.
