MANY COPIES WERE SEIZED

Fifteen Hundred Free Speeches
Seized By Police
at Moncton.

CASE AT ST. JOHN.

MONCTON Aug. 21.—On the strength of a telephone message received from the St. John police last evening, about fifteen hundred copies of "Free Speeches" were seized by the police here this morning and taken to the police station. These will be sent to St. John to be used as evidence in the trial of C. Bruce McDougall, who is standing trial for defamatory libel against Mayor Bullock, Ald. Frink, Alex. McRae, and Daniel Mullin. Several pieces of correspondence were also seized and will also be sent to St. John. These are said to be of a spicy nature, and will probably cause a sensation in the St. John courts. The police say they attack the characters of several well known Moncton citizens.

The seizure was made about half past nine by Chief Ridout and Officer Gunn, who went to the Free Speech office on McDougall's name. They then went to the home of Mr. McDougall, from where the correspondence was taken. These papers are dated August 21st, and although several articles appear from many towns, none can be seen from St. John or Charlottetown.

J. C. SHERREN COUNSEL FOR "FREE SPEECH" EDITOR.

Case Came up at St. John Friday and Postponed Till Today

ST. JOHN, Aug. 21.—The telephone says:—The police court was crowded yesterday morning when C. Bruce McDougall was arraigned before Judge Ritchie in the charge of defamatory libel, concerning Dr. A. W. McRae, Mayor Bullock, Dr. Mullin, K. C. and

Ald. Frink. Policeman Scott was the only witness examined.

He testified that on August 2, he seized a parcel of "Free Speeches" in the store of Michie's and Albee, whom he arrested for selling obscene literature. Copies of the issues of July 19, 17, 21 and 21, containing alleged libellous statements against the four named in the warrant were placed in evidence by Dr. McRae and J. B. M. Baxter for the prosecution.

The opening of the case had been delayed an hour while negotiations were entered into with the city lawyers. None of them, however, would consent to take McDougall's case. At the conclusion of Officer Scott's evidence, it was announced that J. C. Sherren of Moncton had consented to appear for the defence. Further examination was postponed till this morning at ten o'clock, the counsel for the prosecution entering no objection. It was intimated that bail would be asked for the prisoner and that this will be responded by Dr. McRae and J. B. M. Baxter, K. C. Mr. Sherren arrived in the city yesterday afternoon.
