gains

new lines ps at very irst of all v Soap ; for 25c

rge Cake ake-2 for 25c

ToiletSoap t at the price

er Soap )c. 3for25c

CASTILE Soap 35c

aren STATIONERY

ath occurred at his late Carrie street, Strathroy, night of William Thomas night of William Thomas Lewis, a well-known citizen th year. Mr. Lewis was Ingland and came to this '9 years ago with his par-e retired from his farm years ago, coming to this 3 is survived by one son, Kent Bridge, and one Miss Lily, at home.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS Swift's Sale of Boys Overcoats. Swift's Sale of Boys Overcoats. Men's heavy work sweaters $2.25 -A. Brown & Co. Mrs. Nagle, Mt. Brydges, is the guest of Mrs. Davidson. Miss V. Kennedy, London, was the weekend guest of Mrs. C.C. Leigh. Attend Swift's Sale of Ladies' Coats Coats. It would take 4,377,500 German to buy a ton of Canadian marks Marks to buy a ton of Canadian Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Aylesworth and baby Phyllis visited relatives in Michigan last week. Remember the Presbyterian Bazaar on Dec. 8 and 9, in the Armory. Full on Dec. 8 and 9, in the Armory. Full particulars next week. 10 only Burberry style ladies' and misses pure wool coats. Regular up to $21.75 for $14.95.—A. Brown to $21.75 for $14.95.—A. Brown & Co. The United States Thanksgiving will be observed on Thursday, Nov. 30th Christmas is only four weeks from next Monday. How is the Christmas shopping progressing? First snow of the winter in Wat-ford on Nov. 21. Just a sprinkle, gone in a few hours. Mrs. A. J. Weight and daughters Elsie and Edith have returned after spending five months in England. Choice currants, raisins, candied spending five months in England. Choice currants, raisins, candied peel, nuts and everything required in the grocery line for Christmas at P. Dodds & Son. Hockey meeting at the Rowhe House this (Friday) evening str. 30 Everyone interested urged to attend. All millinery at clearing prices. Brown & Co. Don't miss Bebe Daniels in her Don't miss beee Daniels in her latest snappy motor comiedy success "The Speed Gärl" at the Lyceum next Thursday night. Wm. Williamson the coal dealer has secured T.G. Mitchell's old stand for an office. Mr. And, Hay's office is now at the elevator. All accounts due Harper Bros. office is now at the elevator. All accounts due Harper Bros. must be paid by Dec. 15th, as the books must be closed on account of a change in the business. n17-2t There will be no meeting of the IA.Y.P.A. on Tuesday evening next in order to allow the members to at-tand Jack Minar's lacture.

Volume XLVIII-No. 45

mer residents.

tend Jack Miner's lecture. At Swift's Sale of Ladies' Suis you get unheard of bargains. Calvary and Watford Baptist churches services November 26th: Calvary at 3.00 p.m., Watford at 7 p.m. Subject "We would see Jesus." Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Leigh are spending the week in Guelph. Mr. tend Jack Miner's lecture. At Swift's Sale of Ladies' Suits you get unheard of bargains. Calvary and Watford Baptist

Wheat $1.10, oats 40c, butter 30c, ggs 47-48c. eggs 47-48c. We are rapidly becoming a soft people. First it was soft collars and cuffs, then soft drinks, and now we are asked to use soft coal, and many people are looking for soft jobs. Are we developing into a race of softies. At the recent meeting of the Y.P. S. of the Presbyterian Church Miss Margaret McLeay, the Warwick Township Sunday School Associa-tion's delegate to the recent conven-tion of the Ontario Religious Educa-tion Council in Toronto, gave an in-terestag report of the convention. Extra. heavy. pure linen damask terestag report of the convention. Extra. heavy. pure linen damask $1.45 per yard.—A. Brown & Co. There is not much talk about mun-icipal elections yet. Reeve Harper will not be a candidate for the reeve's chair next year, as the will move to Cakrary in the spring. W.G. Con-nolly. W.E. Fitzgerald and Paul Kingston are spoken of for the office but have not yet declared themselves. Now is the time to secure rubhers.

Now is the time to secure rubbers, before the weather is bad. He keeps them to fit any kind of shoe for women, men or children. Call and see them. - P. Dodds & Son. On Friday last Kenneth Bondy, son of Pierre Bondy, South Col-chester, had a close call to loging his life when his pant leg became caught in the tumbling rod driving a cement mixer and his leg was badly twisted and broken. Fishing in Lake Huron at present in the tumble of the basis Travellers on the Sarnia branch of the G.T.R.will soon miss the pleas-ant smile of Conductor J.B.Richardson, who goes on the pension list on Dec. 1st. Baggageman William Rodgers will also be retired on that day. Two popular and well-known old timers that will be long remem-hered bered. Our Christmas Handkerchiefs are to hand.—Swift's. Each citizen can make the Guide-Each citizen can make the Guide-Advocate news columns more inter-esting by sending in news items re-garding trips, social events, successes of former residents in other places, marriages of local people or their relatives, bereavements of local fam-ilies or deaths in other places of for-mer residents

Linen Towelling, 6 pieces, 4 yards for $1.00. At the close of the trial at Sarnia early Tuesday afternoon Dr. James Allen Milne. London dentist, was ac-quitted of the charge of perjury perferred against him in connection with testimony given by him at the trial of Edward McMullen, charged with robbing the branch of the Bank of Toronto at Wyoming. Misses fine ribbed heather hose, sizes up to 9 at 70c, 80c, 90c.—A.

An apple packer, at Exeter was fined $50 and costs for branding four barrels of inferior apples as high CHOP STUFF Petrolea people complain that there are chicken thieves and dog poisoners in their midst that they could do without. grade.

Watford Guide-Advocate

WATFORD, ONT., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1922

Canada produced 388 million, and the United States 810 million bushels of wheat this season. With one-thirteenth of the population of the United States, Canada grew nearly half as much wheat. The new $20,000 combination school at Melbourne was opened last Friday with an interesting program of addresses and music.

Friday with an interesting program of addresses and music.
The death occurred on Wednesday of Mr. John Dodge, former resident of Alvinston, at the home of his son. Walter, near Sarnia.
E.V. Thornicroft, of Appin, has solde the old Baskerville Kome in Strathroy to L. Thomas of Adelaide. Consideration in neighborhood of $4,000.
Mr. J.C. Wilkes, who passed away last Friday at his home in Mount Forest at the age of 85, had held the office of Division Court Clerk continuously for the long period of 63 years.
Two men were arrested in Thames- ville for stealing geese and were griven a term in the Reformatory. They were arrested while attempting to sell them.
On Friday last Kenneth Bondy, son of Pierre Bondy, South Cohchester, had a close call to loging his life when his pant leg became caughtin the tumbling rod driving a cement mixer and his leg was badly twisted and broken.
Wen a bern mixer and his leg was badly twisted and broken.
Wen a tork when the spant leg became caughting the tumbling rod driving a cement in the tumbling rod driving a cement in the Glence to serve the counties of the strater.
Math as much wheat.
Clarabell McKinlay, Chandra took place in the afternoon to Beechwood cemetery. Rev. John Murray conducting the structure of the s been heard from for some time. A jail or industrial farm, situated at. Glence, to serve the counties of Middlesex, Elgin, Kent, Lambton and possibly Essex, is the phan advocated by E. A. Peacock who as a member of the civil service commission was in a position to study the question at first hand. This is the suggestion of Mr. Peacock in connecion with the Mr. Peacock in connection with the plan of Dr. H.A. Stevenson, M.P. P. who stated that he would make an attempt during the coming session to have such an institution establish-ed for the county of Middlesex.

and broken. Fishing in Lake Huron at present-is reported as being the best in years. Monday afternoon Norman Ferguson of Sarnia took from his nets over 10,000 herring besides a number of lake trout, pickerel and whitefish. John Chivers. of Belmont, applied for $420.50 for the new public ibd-rary in that village, This amount was collected by the township with the fest of the taxes, at the request of the village, and turned over to Mr. Chivers. Forest poppy sale realized $30. At the Bruce county sale of lands at Walkerton in the year 1892 a number of 100-acre farms on the Bruce Peninsula were purchased for 25 cents cash. The same farms are now valued at between $5,000 and $10,000. On Tuesday, November 14th, at midnight, Albert Tobias Sr., of Moraviantown, had his house and concents all burnt up. A grandson coupled, because of smoke, which aroused the other inmates otherwise they would likely have been consum-ed by the fire. A happy gathering was held a few Mary Alice, wife of Lew Richard-son, died in Detroit on Sunday, and interment was made on Wednesday at the Baptist cemetery, second con-cesion, Bosanquet. She was the third daughter of John Crookenden, who daughter of John Crockenden, who left here for Detroit some 15 years ago. She was in her 55th year and was twice married. Her first husband was Dr. N. Cornell, who was acci-dentally shot at Bad Axe, Mich., shortly after their marriage. Nettie, children survives. they would likely have been consum-ed by the fire. A happy gathering was held a few days ago of the family and near rel-atives of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ken-nings of Lobo Township. In honor of their golden wedding anniversary the aged couple were presented with a purse of gold by the family and other theory.

Frank Linder, a farmer living in Maidstone township, his wife and their two children narrowly escaped death Sunday night when their auto-mobile stalled on the tracks of the Michigan Central railway at the Maidstane townline. As the motor As townline choked, gasped and stopped, Linder saw bearing down upon him a west-bound express train travelling close to 70 miles an hour. Grasping his two children, one under each arm, Linder shouted to his wife in the

$2.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE In United States $2.50

JACK MINER COMING TO WATFORD Under the auspices of the Young People's Society of Christian En-deavor of the Congregational Church Jack Miner will give his most inter-esting lecture on bird life illustrated by Moving Pictures in the Lyceum. Watford, Tuesday, Nov. 28th, at 8 0.m. Mr. Miner owns a large farm near Kingsville and a part of it is used for a large park where the feathered creatures find a real home and plenty of food. His lectures are JACK MINER COMING TO and plenty of food. His lectures are all based on facts gathered from ex-perience and observation. His com-ing means a real treat for the citi-zens of Watford and the surrounding country. Don't fail to hear him. Admission Adults 50c, children 35c.

VISITOR FROM LAMBTON (Collingwood Bulletin) Mr. J.W. Edwards, of Watford, is a viisitor in town this week. He left here a couple of years ago when he sold his farm in Nottawasaga, just outside of the town and since has been located in the Lambton town, where he is encreased in comprehence where he is engaged in operating a meat business. Speaking of his western Ontario home Mr. Edwards said that it was properous and progressive. It is a small town, yet nevertheless the centre of quite a large business.

centre of quite a large business. Speaking of the newspaper there. The Guide-Advocate he mentioned the fact that it is edited by Mr. Thomas Harris, which in turn recall-ed another fact, namely, that Mr. Harris was, half a century ago, a resident in Collingwood and foreman in the Bulletin office. While in Collingwood Mr. Ed-wards renewed acomaintances with wards renewed acquaintances with many of his friends in town and in the surrounding country, all of whom gave him a very cordial welcome.

WARWICK

WARWICK Mr. Russell Smith. 12 sideroad. has purchased a new black driver. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Barnes visit-ed friends in Camlachie recently. Missee Margaret and Deliah Haw-kens spent Sunday with Miss Mildred Barnes

Barnes. Mr. and Mrs. George Cundick of was Dr. N. Cornell, who was acci-dentally shot at Bad Axe, Mich., shortly after their marriage. Nettie, a daughter survives. Later she mar-ried Lew Richardson, a native of Strathroy, who, with two grown-up

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cable of Detroit visited their cousin, Mrs. Sidney Barnes and other relatives last week. There will be no evening service at nly, Nov. 22 RACTIONS EEN STAR World's Champion WELL WHO PUT HIS

the barber shop during Mr. Leigh's absence. Reduced fares are announced on the railways to the International Live Stock exhibition at Chicago. Dec. 2nd to 9th on lines running into Chi Swift's Sale of Grils' Coats. Come spending the week in Guelph. Mr.

Swift's Sale of Grils' Coats. Come now, only $7.50. The department of finance announ-ces that holders of 1922 Victory bonds, due December 1. can have their bonds paid off in cash at any thartered bank in Canada. We are loth to part with our sum-mer friends, the birds and flowers. but Jack Frost's frequent taps of late suggest that it is time for them to say goodbye till spring welcomes them again.

them

only Men's Sitka Beaver Coats, rior quality at $35.00.—A. superior Brown & Co. F.H. Haskett of Watford was among the successful candidates at the fall medical examinations, ac-cording to the announcement of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario.

The eight-hour day is a good thing but at getting up time we sometimes earnestly wish that someone, would arrange a schedule with eight hours for work, eight for play and twelve for work, eight for play and twelve for sleep. Buy Watson's underwear it does not shrink.-Swift's stock Complete. Johnny-"Dad, teacher said some-thin' today about findin' the greatest common divisor." Dad (in disgust) -"'Great Scott! haven't they found that thing yet? Why they were hunt-in' for it when I was a boy!" On Friday evening in the basement of the Public Library, Mr. W.B. Race. Principal of the Ontario School for the Blind, will address the Read-ing Club. All interested and all old friends of Mr. Race are cordially in-vited.

storily to do the milking and run the separator by wireless. We are clearing out our Wallpaper Artistic patterns, good quality paper now. — P. Dodds & Son.

miringly, "What won't science dis-cover next? Why, if that rod had straw on the other end, you'd be sweeping.

sweeping. Ladies! A fur trimmed suit, regu-lar $60.00.—Swift's Sale $45.00. lar $60.00.—Swift's Sale $45.00. In response to a number of re-quests from residents of Lambton County, an order-in-council prohibit-ing the hunting or killing of deer in that district from November 8, 1922, until November 21, 1925, has been passed at the instigation of the de-partment of game and fisheries, ac-cording to word received by Colonel Richard Emmett, Inspector for the department in this district. It ap-pears that there are quite a number of deer in existence in various parts of Lambton and during the past few of Lambton and during the past few weeks several instances of hunters destroying the animals have been reported. Residents became alarmed over the possibilities of total extinct-ion and appealed to the department.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH THANKOFFERING DAY

The Congregational Church cele-brated its Annual Thankoffering Day and Anniversary with special services on Sunday when large congregations on Sunday when large congregations were present at each service. The pastor, Rev. T. DeCourcy Rayner, was honored by a unanimous vote of the church requesting him to be the special preacher for the day. In the morning he spoke on "The Valley of Berachah", and emphasized the fact that under God's provident-ial energy encoura dwalling daily in the ial care we are dwelling daily in the Valley of Blessing. His topic for the evening was "A Saviour Who Can Not Be Hid."

Not Be Hid." Special music was rendered by the choir, with Miss Estelle Craig at the organ. Miss Elsie Brown and Mr.

other tokens James G. Mickelborough of the James G. Mickelborough of the second line of Plympton had 34 tur-keys stolen from his farm Wednes-day evening. Mr. Mickelborough had marked them by cutting off a toe nail on one of the feet and would be pleased if any one would report finding any of the birds on the warked junk.

finding any of the birds on the market. Hector Smith. little son of Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, who recent-ly moved to the 4th con. Bosanquet. was knocked over by a cow he was driving to the new home. and was trampled on the head, sustaining cuts requiring a number of stitches to close, but is making a nice re-coverv.

$200.000 has passed into the $200,000 has passed into the hands of the Sarnia Reserve Indians from the Department of Indian Affairs for the land sold by them to the Alloy Steel Corporation. The amounts paid vary from $350 to $3.-500. The department is holding back $100,000, the balance of the pur-chase price in trust for the Indians.

chase price in trust for the indians. There passed away some days ago the oldest resident of this district in the person of Mrs. Lampman, moth-er of T.A. Lampman, J.P., of Wan-stead, and Mrs. Wark of Wyoming. Mrs. Lampman is also survived by fifteen grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Mr. Wark reeve of Wyoming, is her son-in-law. William Thomas Banton Lewis a Wyoming, is her son-in-law. William Thomas Banton Lewis, a resident of Strathroy for the past thirty years, passed away on Friday evening at his home on Carrie street, adjoining the Hospital property. The deceased was in his 85th year and was born in Devonshire. Ene-land, coming to Canada with his par-ents when five years old. Alvinston skating rink this year will be conducted under the same ef-ficient management of the past three years, by Mr. Mark Mulholland, who has already started the preliminary rear seat to jump. All reached safety as the train thundered by, and hurled the automobile 50 feet to one side, smashing it to a mass of twisted

BROOKE

Rev. Steadman will conduct two weeks special services at Bethesda this week.

this week. Mr. Thos. Kidd and his mother. Mrs. John Kidd returned "Tuesday from a three weeks visit with friends at Smith Falls, Pembroke, Medcalfe and Ottawa and report a splendid time.

The masquerade party held at Mr. The masquerade party held at Mr. and Mrs. Walter Annett's was a suc-cess in every way. Many of the young folk came in costume. Darkies, clowns, Red Riding Hood, fairy, Pierette, Uncle Sam, Queen of Hearts and many other varieties of costume were noticed. Messrs. H. Lett and Wallace Watson were judges. Games spelling matches, singing and lunch brought a very pleazant evening to cfowns, Red Riding Hood, fairy, Pierette, Uncle Sam, Queen of Hearts and many other varieties of costume were noticed. Messrs. H. Lett and Wallace Watson were judges. Games spelling matches, singing and lunch brought a very pleazant evening to a close. Fire completely destroyed the fine large barn of Archie McLachlan on the 15 sideroad. The fire which start-ed in the hay mow, was discovered able work was accomplished. When the 15 sideroad. The fire which start-ed in the hay mow, was discovered about nine o'clock in the morning and the flames soon gained such headway that the barn and entire contents was soon consumed. Mr. McLachlan informs us that it is a mystery how the fire started as none of the family had been near the barn that day. The barn was full of hay and grain. There was only about $750 insurance on the building and contents.

contents. The November meeting vears, by Mr. Mark Mulholland, who has already started the preliminary work. With the fine material on hand for a hockey team, and the early start, a winning aggregation may be expected to represent the village. William Armstrong of Parkhill was taken to Victoria hospital at 4.30 o'clock Monday afternoon suffering from a serious gunshot wound in the foot. Doctors decided an amputation was unnecessary. Armstrong was wounded when a shotgun accidentally discharged while he was on a hunt-ing trip in the vicinity of Parkhill. of the

There will be no evening service at. Sharon Free Methodist on Dec. 3rd on account of quarterly meeting ser-vice at Thedford. Mr. Charlie Cable of Detroit, has been visiting his cousin, Mr. Harry Cable, fourth line, returned home this week. Evening service in Zion Conc't this week. Evening service in Zion Cong'i church on Sunday at 7.30 p.m. The Rev. A.R. Johnston of Warwick Village will preach. Everybody wel-

The ladies of Grace Church, 4th
The ladies of Grace Church, 4th
hine, Wanwick intend having a bazaar and also a home-made baking sale in Watford on Dec. 2nd.
Watch for particulars next week.
The Women's Missionary Society of Knox church. Main Road, will hold the annual Thankoffering meeting in the church on Monday evening Nov. 27th, at 8 o'clock, to which all are cordially invited.
The annual entertainment of are cordially invited. The annual entertainment of Grace Church Sunday School, fourth line east, will be held in the school house of S.S. No. 12, on Tuesday Dec. 19th. A good program of dia-logues, recitations and drills. The Warwick Methodist Sunday School environment will be held next the members were present and the time was spent sewing and consider-able work was accomplished. When the business meeting was ended. Mrs. Williamson served a dainty lunch. and a social half hour was spent over the teacups. It was decid-ed that the next meeting would be held at the home of Miss Jean Mc-Cormick on Wednesday. Dec. 13th. Mrs. Neal A. Edwards, Thornloe. wishes to thank her many friends and neighbors in the vicinity of her old home in Warwick for such a gener-ous contribution of wearing apparel. neighbors in the vicinity of her old home in Warwick for such a gener-ous contribution of wearing apparel. bedding and other comforts. She will write them personally when settled in her own home. The settlers are busy rebuilding and quite a few are in their new homes. They still think old Temiskaming is the place to live. The fire caused a lot of inconven-ience and blackened things up in general but any portion of the bush which was a dry slash is now very easily prepared for the crop where it to would have cost thousands of dollars to clear before the fire. A great many were discouraged and left right after the fire but are now returning to make a fresh start.