HARVEST FESTIVAL AT BELLEISLE

Inspiring Annual Service With Special Music, Floral Decorations and Excellent Address

Those who were able to be present in St. Mary's Church, Belleisle, last Sunday afternoon will not soon forget the inspiring service. The Church, as is always the case on this occasion, was tastefully decorated with flowers and "fruits of the earth", the presence of which lent additional meaning to the selected Scriptures, Psalms, and hymns. For the musical portion of the service the full choir of the Parish Church (St. James', Bridgetown) was present and in addition to the harvest-hymns sang very beautifully, the Rev. G. I. Foster's setting to the magnificent and Nunc Dimittis, and Sir John Stainer's Harvest Anthem "Ye Shall Dwell in the Land", the soloist being Mrs. Harry Ruggles, and Mr. Thos. Handley. The Rector of the Parish (Rev. E. Underwood) conducted the service and preached from the words "Behold a Sower Went Forth to Sow". The Chapel Warden and Congregation of St. Mary's desire to thank the organist and choir of the Parish Church for their kindly and helpful visit and to express the hope that this may be the forerunner of many.

OBITUARY

At his home in Hampton, on the 17th of September, William H. O'Neal, sixty-two years old, passed to his Heavenly home. He was the youngest son of the late Charles O'Neal, and was born April 23rd, 1860, at Outram. In 1907 he sold his farm at Outram and, with his family, moved to Brooklyn, and from there to Hampton. In March he was taken very ill and all that medical skill and loving care could do was done, but he gradually grew worse. In May he went to the Victoria General Hospital, Halifax, thinking an operation would relieve his sufferings, but of no avail. He returned home and continued to fail until the end came and during all his sufferings no one ever heard him complain. Mr. O'Neal was a member of the Mount Hanley Baptist Church thirty-eight years ago. He was a man with a genial kind-hearted disposition and had a large circle of friends which was shown by the beautiful floral gifts. Over twenty years ago he was appointed Justice of the Peace, and for twenty-one years of faithful service in military duties as Sergeant he won the long service medal. He leaves to mourn their loss, a widow, formerly Miss Sophia Sprowl; two children, George, at home, and Mrs. Everett Mitchell, Hampton; two brothers, Simon, living at East Arlington, and George, Melvern Square; besides a large circle of relatives and friends. The funeral took place from his late home on Tuesday afternoon and was very largely attended by those who came to pay their last tribute of respect to one who was honored and loved by all. The service was conducted by Rev. D. W. Dixon, who spoke comforting words to the bereaved ones. The funeral arrangements were in charge of W. E. Reed, interment being at Hampton. We commend the sorrowing ones to the care of him who doeth all things well.

Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Wentzell spent Saturday in Bear River. Most all the men of this place are busy working on the road. Mr. and Mrs. E. Weir, of Digby, is spending a few days here. Mr. Lawrence Munro spent over Sunday at his home.

PRESENTATION OF HIGH SCHOOL PRIZES

Large Number Of Parents At Annual Presentation Last Friday--Good Programme--List Of Winners

The annual presentation of prizes in connection with the Bridgetown schools took place in the Primrose Theatre on Friday afternoon with a large attendance of parents and others, and the various rewards of merit were distributed to those having the highest standing in all classes from Primary to the last year in High School. Dr. M. E. Armstrong, Chairman of the School Board, presided, and on the platform with him was Mayor Warren, Principal Archibald and Clergymen of the town, all of whom gave addresses of interest to the rising generation. Dr. Armstrong, in the course of his address, referred to the step in advance made this year for the first time in the history of the High School in taking up the "A" work. This move came as the result of an insistent demand to which the School Board had acceded. Bridgetown was taking this advanced move in school work on the hundredth year of its founding. The doctor also made reference to the exceedingly satisfactory condition of the schools and also to the fact that letters were frequently received from various School Boards asking information on various matters calculated to increase the efficiency of their schools. Rev. J. H. Freestone, Rev. C. W. Robbins, Rev. E. Underwood and Rev. Dr. Jost, all gave brief addresses of an inspiring and pleasing character with excellent and timely advice to the scholars. Principal Archibald, in making reference to the school work, stated that the enrollment for the past term was 256 and the average attendance 247. Seventy-eight pupils were doing High School work, a very large number for a town of the size of Bridgetown. The donors of prizes and prize money had been most generous. Reference in the course of addresses was made to the great interest taken by Dr. W. Chipman of Montreal, in all that pertained to the advancement of Bridgetown, his old home. This year he had given $50 to be applied in prizes as Principal Archibald saw best. The Manual Training Dept. had resumed this year and many thanks were due the Women's Institute for their interest and assistance in Library work. The piano had been paid for, books added to the library, surroundings of school improved. This term it is proposed to establish a scholarship open to members of the grade "A" class, the value to be from $100 to $150, according to the amount of support the movement receives. At the conclusion of the speeches Dr. Armstrong presented prizes as follows. The programme was made even more agreeable by school choruses at appropriate intervals. Grade I—Highest standing in Advanced Class, Book, won by Alice Wilson. Class A, Book, won by Leta Durling. Class B, Book, won by Isabel Freestone. Class C, Book, won by George Annis. Grade II—Highest standing—Book, won by Barbara Longmire. Second standing: Book, won by Glendon Seaman. Grade III—Highest standing: Two dollars, won by Vera Tupper. Second standing: Book, won by Laura Phinney. Grade IV—Highest standing: Two dollars, won by Kathleen Barrow. Second standing: Book, won by Winifred Annis. Grade V—Highest standing: Two dollars each, to John Orlando and Will Archibald, who made same. Second standing: Book, won by Thelma Messenger. Grade VI—Highest standing: Two dollars, won by Beatrice Chute. Second standing: Book, won by Vera Murtha. Grade VII—Highest standing: Two dollars, won by Annabel Annis. Second standing: Book, won by James Craig.

Grade VIII—Highest standing: Five dollars, won by Lillian Taylor. Second standing: Book, won by Annie Todd. HIGH SCHOOL "D" CLASS First Aggregate: Ten dollars, won by Roy Chute. First Mathematics: Seven dollars, won by Roy Chute. First English: Seven dollars, won by Ina Orlando. First French: Five dollars, won by Edna Miller. First Latin: Five dollars, won by Helen Beeler. First Drawing: Five dollars, won by Ina Orlando. "C" CLASS First Aggregate: Ten dollars, won by Edgel Harding. First Mathematics: Seven dollars, won by Victor Walker. First English: Seven dollars, won by Ila Freeman. First French: Five dollars, won by Rose Orlando. First Latin: Five dollars, won by Ehel Harding. "B" CLASS First Aggregate: Ten dollars, won by Aubrey Price. First Mathematics: Seven dollars, won by Aubrey Price. First English: Seven dollars, won by George Foster. First French: Five dollars, won by George Foster. The School Board and teaching staff are especially grateful to Dr. W. W. Chipman, of Montreal, for his contribution of fifty dollars to the prize fund, also to all the other donors, who were the following: M. C. Foster, Inspector of Schools; A. D. Brown, Hon. O. T. Daniels, H. B. Hicks, A. A. Dechman, K. Freeman, W. A. Warren, Masee & Charlton, Mrs. Jos. Orlando, Dr. Jost, A. McKenzie, Thos. Mack, E. R. Orlando, J. W. Salter, W. R. Longmire, E. A. Hicks.

PARADISE

Sunday morning, Sept. 10th, Rev. S. C. Freeman, of Parilkmed, India, gave the Baptist congregation an instructive and much appreciated address on the subject "India, a Great Country." Size, population, export trade, difficulties, number of religions, converts to Christianity and present day opportunities were among the outstanding features dwelt upon. Mr. and Mrs. Freeman with their family are leaving Canada soon to resume their work in India on behalf of the Canadian Baptist Mission to the Tegeus.

A chief regret in saying good bye to Sammer is that we must also bid farewell to so many of our young people. Among those leaving last week were Mr. Ronald Longley who will study at Harvard; Mr. Llewellyn Bowly, at Yale, and Miss Alice and Mr. Charles Longley, at Acadia, and also Miss Hazel Gillis, who goes to Hartford, Connecticut. Another fire warning was sounded Wednesday evening, Sept. 13th, when one of the chandelier lamps in the vestry of the church fell, after causing a small fire in the ceiling. Fortunately the choir members were present, the fire was soon extinguished and no great damage was done. Among the week-end guests were Mr. Gordon Longley, manager of the Royal Bank at Waterville, visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Longley; Miss Ruth Kempton visiting her sister, Mrs. A. A. Jodrey; Miss Belle Marshall visiting Miss Leone Banks.

A bountiful harvest supper was served in the church vestry, Thursday, Sept. 14th, by the Church Aid Society. Over fifty dollars was realized including some pledges toward increasing the insurance on the church property. Local solicitors are now out for funds on behalf of the School for the Blind, Halifax. This is a most worthy cause, and should receive our hearty support. Mr. and Mrs. Church, of Falmouth, motored to Paradise Sept. 14th, to visit Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Covert, Mrs. Chas. Hines returned with them for a short visit.

The new picture of the parsonage was taken by Mrs. Tilly is especially good. Be sure to leave your order for one at the parsonage. Mrs. H. W. Longley and daughter, Miss Vera Longley, visited friends in Halifax last week. Mr. E. L. Balcom and family have the heart-felt sympathy of the entire community in the recent illness of Mrs. Balcom. Mrs. Julia Gillatt, of Plainfield, New Jersey, being entertained by Mrs. E. G. Morse and Mrs. Vernon Morse. Mrs. Zaccheus Phinney is the guest of her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Phinney.

POPULAR COUPLE WEDDED SATURDAY

Miss Clara Phyllis Sharp United In Marriage to Mr. Charles S. Bothamley

St. James' Church, Bridgetown, Annapolis County, was the scene on Saturday morning of a wedding of unusual interest to the town and immediate neighborhood, Mr. Charles S. Bothamley, of "The Pines", West Paradise, being united in marriage to Miss Clara Phyllis Sharp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. E. Sharp, of North Williamston. Both bride and groom came from England some eight or ten years ago, the former from Melton Mowbray, Leicestershire, and the latter from Rainhill, Lancashire, and during the intervening period have made a host of friends. As Captain of the Bridgetown Cricket team, Mr. Bothamley is also well known throughout the Annapolis Valley.

Saturday was an ideal Autumn day and the church was filled when the hour of the ceremony (11 o'clock) arrived. The Altar was resplendent with an exceptional collection of Autumn flowers beautifully arranged, the colors perfectly blending. These were contributed by Mr. A. F. Hiltz and Dr. M. E. Armstrong, of Bridgetown, and Mrs. Jarvis of West Paradise, and as the rays of the sun slanted through the stained glass of the East window the effect was very striking. This was heightened by clumps of Cosmos arranged as if growing on the Chancel steps.

Punctually at the hour appointed the bride entered the church on the arm of her father, whilst the choir sang Keble's beautiful hymn "The Voice that Breathed Over Eden". At the Chancel steps she was attended by her mother as Dame of honor, whilst the groom was supported by Mr. Ferdinand Caunter as "best man". The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. Underwood, Rector of the Parish. The second hymn was Dorothy Frances Gurney's "O Perfect Love, All Human Thought Transcending", to Sir J. Bamy's setting, and that during the signing of the Register—"Lead us, Heavenly Father, Lead Us" by James Edmeston to F. Hiltz's tune "Mannheim", after which the bridal party left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Miss Foster, the organist of the church, and took the West-bound train on route to St. John, N. B., whence a trip will be taken up the St. John River.

HYMENEAU

WILSON-BARTEAUX
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester C. Bartheaux, Clarence, N. S., was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday evening, Sept. 20th, at eight o'clock, when their only daughter, Muriel Ermy, became the bride of Clyde Raymond Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wilson.

To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. V. B. Messenger, the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father and took her place beside the groom beneath an arch of green and white from which was suspended a beautiful bell. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. Steadman Smith, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride was very becomingly attired in a gown of white silk crepe de chene, with bridal veil and wreath of star of Bethlehem, and carried a bouquet of pink and white asters. The rooms were prettily decorated, with cut flowers and potted plants. After the ceremony and congratulations, a wedding supper was served to about seventy-five guests. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents, including furniture, money, pyrex, silver, china, linen and two beautiful oil paintings, the handwork of the bride's mother. The young couple will reside in Brooklyn. They have the best wishes of their many friends for a long and happy wedded life.

ATTRACTIVE INVESTMENT

From a strictly financial viewpoint the offer of the Minister of Finance to issue new 5 1/2 per cent. bonds running for either five or ten years, as desired, in exchange for bonds of the 1922 issue, is most attractive. Commenting on the advantages of the conversion, the "Financial Times" says: "The holders of these bonds have until September 26th to decide their

Course of action. From the showing already made, it appears as though a very substantial proportion of the holders will be willing to accept the new issue rather than the cash. This might be naturally expected in view of the scarcity of high grade bonds now offering in the market.
