

Mound-Builders as farmers, 86.

Mournful journey, 74-6.

NARRAGANSETTS once 30,000, 138.

Nationality of Indians denied by Congress in 1871, 110-11.

Necessary for the people to enforce the Dawes bill, 176-91.

Newfoundland, last Indians in, 142.

Number of Indians, decreasing, 3, 138-166, 199-200.

OFFICIAL figures on their number, 163-6.

Opposition to the Dawes bill on the frontier, 184-9.

Opposition of Georgia to Indian elevation, 61-84.

Ordinance of the North-west Territory, 33, 34.

"Oregon: The Struggle for Possession" on Indian policies, 123-4.

Oregon Indians once and now, 150.

Osages crowded off their reservation, 41-2.

Outrage of drunken officer on Indians, 44, 45.

PENN-INDIAN treaties, peculiar, 15.

Penn's Delaware Indians, in 1810, 17, 126-7; in 1884, 200.

Personal testimonies to the author, 154-7.

Philip III. of Spain and Indian Missions in New Mexico, 20.

Plymouth Court and Marshpee Reservation, 14.

Policies, Indian, all a failure down to 1874, 23.

Pope Alexander VI. and Indian missions, 20.

Pynchon treaties for Northampton, the Hadleys and vicinity, 16.

RANDOLPH, JOHN, and soldiers to control Indians, 14-15.

Randolph, Richard, on government treatment of Indians, 14.

Reports and results of Indian work contrasted, 43-4.

Reservation system a failure, 56-84.

Reservations; change of, the ruin of Indian elevation, 125-33.

Rhode Island early crowded the Indians, 18-19.

Richelieu, Cardinal, and Indian missions, 20-21.

SCALPS bought of the Indians by the English, 171.

Bounties on Indian, in Pennsylvania, 198.

" " " " in Massachusetts, 198.

Scotch society for Indian missions, 21.

Schoolcraft on number of Indians once, 138.