

never been able to find on the map that place called Zenana, and I hear it spoken of so often." No one who has read "Women's Rights in India," and the Zenana Leaflets can plead such a lack of geographical knowledge. One sometimes hears the question, is Zenana work necessary? I think it is answered by this prayer. "O, Father of the world, hast Thou created us or has some other god made us. Dost Thou care only for men? We are like the animals, we can work, then we can die."

"The Races of Burmah," the "Ka-en," "Shan," "Burman" and "Baptist Mission" are short sketches stating clearly the differences between the various races and missions of Burmah.

"Mah Ongee" must have been a wonderful woman. She lived among the heathen who sneer at and hate the christians, but she was always ready to confess her faith in their despised religion. She said "Never be ashamed to talk of the Lord Jesus. Never mind if folks mock and deride you and whatever they call you don't mind it."

The Lord has done more for Canadian Baptists than he did for "Mah Ongee" and we are in no danger of persecution, yet some of us are ashamed to testify for Him.

Rev. G. N. Masse, Principle. We rejoice as we look back over the year that the Lord of the harvest has not left us without tokens of approbation; but pleasure makes way to regret as we relize how weak our efforts have been. The work of our hands has been like the few small loaves the lad brought to the Lord, which, with his blessing, proved sufficient to satisfy the hungry crowd. To him be all the glory!
