A SERMON.

BY REV. J. R. MUNRO, B.A., ST. JAMES CHURCH, ANTIGONISH, N.S.

"The Christian Soldier."

2 Tim. 2:3-4.

IN the text before us Paul endeavors "to nerve and sustain" Timothy in order to the efficient discharge of his duties as a Christian Minister. It is supposed by many that Timothy, although still a young man, was already chief pastor of the church at Ephesus.

In that case the oversight of the whole body of believers there was committed to his charge. It was his duty to lead his people in resisting the malign influences of surrounding Heathenism and in refuting the heresies which had already appeared in the Church.
