MISCELLANEOUS.

"When Bishop Berkely said there was no matter, It was no matter what he said"—Lord Byron.

The Lover's Lament. Your face is like a drooping flower, Sweetheart! I see you fading, hour by hour, Sweetheart! Your rounded outlines waste away, In vain I weep, in vain I pray, What power Death's cruel hand can stay?

Sweetheart, Sweetheart! Why, nothing but Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It imparts strength to the failing system, cures organic troubles, and for debilitated and feeble women generally, it is unequalled. It dispels melancholy and nervousness, and builds up both flesh and strength. Guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or money paid for it refunded.

Now, children, you must be very good to-day, for your father has hurt his hand and if you are naughty he cannot whip you. —Flegende Blaetter.

We're not waiting for the bats and moles but for men and women who have eyes and use them, who have brains and reason! There's a new world for them—suffering and sickly as they are—a new world created from the brain of a skillful physician—a discovery—the "Golden Medical Discovery."

Editor (to aspiring writer): You should write so that the most ignorant can understand what you mean.

Aspirant: Well, what part of my paragraph don't you understand?

Years ago Dr. Pierce found out that the secret of all scrofula, bronchial, throat and lung trouble lay—in the beginning at least—in impure blood and the weak tone of the system; that the way to cure these effects was to remove the cause, that human nature being the same, the same results might be looked for in nearly all cases. So confident was he that the exceptions were uncommon that he took the risk of giving the medicine to those it didn't benefit for nothing, and the results have proved that he was right.

Wife: I am going to call you "hubby" for short.

Husband: I am glad of that.

Wife: Why?

Husband: I'm glad you're not going to call me "hubby" for long.

And "Golden Medical Discovery" is the remedy for the million! The only guaranteed Liver, Blood and Lung remedy. Your money back if it doesn't help you.

"This man got weighed on a slot machine without dropping in a coin," said the policeman.

"He stole a weigh, did he?" replied the magistrate.

And the prisoner laughed so heartily at the judge's joke that he was discharged on the spot.

A Cure for Coughs. There is no remedy that makes as large a percentage of perfect cures as Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. In nearly every case of coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, etc., its curative effects are prompt and lasting.

The Married Man: I tell my wife everything, sir—everything. The Bachelor: Ever tell her a lie? The Married Man: Didn't I say I tell her everything?

The joints and muscles are so lubricated by Hood's Sarsaparilla that all rheumatism and stiffness soon disappear. Try it.

"Oh, May; what do you think? Charles has proposed to me!" May: Well, I'm not surprised. When I refused him he said he would do something silly.

Dyspepsia Cured.

Gentlemen,—I was troubled with dyspepsia for about four years. I noticed an advertisement of Burdock Blood Bitters, so I started to use it and soon found that there was nothing to equal it. It took just three bottles to effect a perfect cure in my case.

Bert J. Reid, Wingham, Ont.

Minnie: I didn't know until last night that Mr. Kely was a married man. Helen: Did he tell you? Minnie: No; but he asked Fred for a nail to fasten his suspender with.

Can You Think?

Can you think of a worse disease than dyspepsia, it plunges its victim in gloom and despondency, makes him a burden to himself and others, and causes constipation and bad blood. Yet Burdock Blood Bitters cures dyspepsia or indigestion, and has done so in thousands of cases.

Miss Lillian (about to marry a widower): Mona, dear, I am going to be your new mamma. Mona (aged eight, with dignity): Oh, poor papa! Thank you, Miss Lillian, I prefer to be my own mother.

Ask for Minard's and take no other.

To Be Let alone—all the imitations of Pearline. Let some one else suffer, for they're dangerous. Pearline stands alone by itself. It is a powder that is better than soap; more economical than soap. It costs little, but it saves a great deal. Without Pearline, it is soap or nothing; soap makes you work hard—Pearline does away with half the work and makes the other half easy. 277 JAMES PYLE, N. Y.

B B BAD BLOOD CURES. This complaint often arises from Dyspepsia as well as from Constipation, Hereditary Taint, etc. Good blood cannot be made by the Dyspeptic, and Bad Blood is a most prolific source of suffering, causing BOILS, PIMPLES, BLOTCHES, Eruptions, Sores, Skin Diseases, Scrofula, etc. Burdock Blood Bitters really cures bad blood and drives out every vestige of impure matter from a common pimple to the worst scrofulous sore. H. M. Lockwood, of Lindsay, Ont., had 53 Boils in 8 months, but was entirely cured by 3 bottles of B.B.B., and is now strong and well. Write to him.
