"The author, who went to England to fill Chas. H. Spurgeon's pulpit, has been for years devoting himself to the arousing of missionary zeal among all denominations. His book tells not of things hoped for but of things accomplished. . . . Some of the stories read like tales of enchantment, and can not fail to kindle enthusiasm anew."—Christian Leader, Boston.

SOWING THE SEED OF THE WORD OF GOD.

"It is packed full with History and Crowded with Interest."

Its design is to tell enough about the important and characteristic features and events of lifelong toiling for the diffusion of the blessed "Glad Tidings" to the ends of the earth, as shall meet the wants of the multitude of readers.

"A GOOD BOOK IS A SEED OF THE KINGDOM."

"The book should go into every Sunday-school and church library, and many a home will also welcome it."—The Congregationalist, Boston.

"It is crowded with interest, and will prove of especial value to the Young People's Societies of America, all of which are taking up missions for study."—The Cincinnati Times-Star.

"The pages glow with the descriptions of the advancing Kingdom and the glory of the Lord. It is a book of thought, enterprise, and inspiration—a new 'Acts of the Apostles.'"—Zion's Herald, Boston.

"The story is well told, and it is one of fascinating interest."—Christian Literature, New York.

12mo, Cloth, 432 pp., with Practical Index. Price, $1.50; post-free.
