2. Accordingly, articles the growth, produce or manufacture of either country shall in no case be subject, in regard to the matters referred to above, to any duties, taxes or charges other or higher, or to any rules or formalities other or more burdensome, than those to which the like articles the growth, produce or manufacture of any other foreign country are or may hereafter be subject.

Similarly, articles exported from the territory of Canada or Nicaragua and consigned to the territory of the other country shall in no case be subject with respect to exportation and in regard to the above mentioned matters, to any duties, taxes or charges other or higher, or to any rules or formalities other or more burdensome, than those to which the like articles when consigned to the territory of any other foreign country are or may hereafter be subject.

4. Any advantage, favour, privilege or immunity which has been or may hereafter be granted by Canada or Nicaragua in regard to the above mentioned matters, to any article originating in any other foreign country or consigned to the territory of any other foreign country shall be accorded immediately and without compensation to the like article originating in or consigned to the territory of Nicaragua or Canada, respectively, and irrespective of the nationality of the carrier.
