

As noted in Table 1, all future activities in Canada will involve Article VI and, except for schedule [1] and the SSSF, will involve the civilian chemical industry. The National Authority will have to make plans as to how it will collect from industry the necessary data on schedule [2] and [3] chemicals and the corresponding facilities. Tables 3a, 3b and 3c give an outline of the requirements.