

2. Material and equipment shall remain subject to this Agreement until:
 - (a) transferred from the territory of the recipient Party in accordance with the provisions of Article V of this Agreement; or
 - (b) otherwise agreed between the Parties.
3. Technology shall remain subject to this Agreement until otherwise agreed between the Parties.

ARTICLE IX

1. Each Party shall take all measures necessary, commensurate with the assessed threat prevailing from time to time, to ensure the physical protection of nuclear material subject to this Agreement and shall, as a minimum, apply levels of physical protection as set out in Annex E to this Agreement.
2. The Parties shall consult at the request of either Party concerning matters related to the physical protection of nuclear material, material, equipment and technology subject to this Agreement including those concerning physical protection during international transportation.

ARTICLE X

1. The Parties shall consult at any time at the request of either Party to ensure the effective fulfilment of the obligations of this Agreement. The International Atomic Energy Agency may be invited to participate in such consultations upon the request of both Parties.
2. The appropriate governmental authorities shall establish administrative arrangements to facilitate the effective implementation of this Agreement and shall consult annually or at any other time at the request of either authority. Such consultations may take the form of an exchange of correspondence.
