No. 20

Media representatives are advised that International Trade Minister Pierre Pettigrew will participate in a number of activities organized to highlight the benefits of the Canadian Trade Commissioner Service, from Tuesday, March 4 to Friday, March 7, in four Canadian cities: Quebec City, Kitchener-Waterloo, Edmonton and Regina.

In each city an event has been organized by the Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade to provide local businesses that are currently exporting and others that are interested in getting into export markets, with the opportunity to share notes with trade staff from Canadian embassies and consulates in export markets as well as with other local exporters.
