

In closing, Minister Regan added, "In the coming weeks, you will certainly be hearing much more about Export Trade Month from me and the Provincial Ministers of Trade. Our intention is that by the end of October even more Canadians will be involved in international trade, strengthening the basis for a sound economy and providing jobs for Canadians."