2. If so, what are the names and addresses of such persons or companies?

3. What quantities of adulterated butter were involved in each case, and what penalties were imposed in each case?

4. Is the government in possession of any adulterated butter seized in connection with such prosecutions?

5. If so, what quantity of such adulterated butter did the government obtain, and how much does it now have on hand?

6. What does the government propose to do with such adulterated butter?

7. What is the food value of this butter?

8. Was any of this adulterated butter offered to the public for sale, or to the government for purchase under its price support programme? If so, how much was sold to the public and how much was purchased by the government?

Mr. Abbott moved,—That the House do go into Committee of the Whole at the next sitting to consider the following proposed Resolution:

That it is expedient to introduce a measure to provide for the decennial revision of the Bank Act and the extension of the charters of the existing chartered banks till July 1, 1964, and to provide further for certain changes in connection with the administration of the Act.

Whereupon, Mr. Abbott, a Member of the Queen's Privy Council, informed the House, That His Excellency the Governor General, having been informed of the subject-matter of the said proposed Resolution, recommends it to the House.

Resolved, That the House do go into Committee of the Whole at the next sitting to consider the said proposed Resolution.

The House resolved itself into Committee of the Whole to consider a certain proposed Resolution to amend the Vocational Training Co-ordination Act.

(In the Committee)

The following Resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That it is expedient to introduce a measure to amend the Vocational Training Co-ordination Act to meet present day requirements for defence and other purposes, including authority to enter into agreements with
