

MCGILL UNIVERSITY
PRINCIPAL AND VICE-CHANCELLOR
L. W. DOUGLAS

14th September 1938

Dear Mr. Jarrett:

In the absence of Mr. Douglas, we are taking the liberty of handing your letter of September seventh to Dr. Simpson, Associate Dean of the Faculty of Medicine. We have asked Dr. Simpson to write you direct relative to the questions which you ask.

Your letter will, of course, be handed to Mr. Douglas immediately upon his return to Montreal.

Very sincerely yours,

John H. Stewart
Principal's Secretary
