Sir Arthur Currie,
McGill University,
Montreal, P.Q.

Dear Sir Arthur:-

A short time ago Dean Barton communicated with you asking you to write a letter for the Macdonald Alumni Association. This was to be used in connection with the publicity campaign we are conducting for attendance. He had anticipated having an opportunity to talk to you about the matter but was unable to do so.

We had thought that your letter might carry the University appeal and stress the value of the reunion in developing a strong agricultural group among our graduates.

I am enclosing a letter that has been sent out to all our graduates from the reunion committee which will give you an idea of the length of letter that we had in mind.

We had anticipated mailing your letter in March and would appreciate it very much if you could let us have it sometime this week, if that is at all possible.

I presume that there will be available somewhere about McGill a block of your signature. May we secure the loan of it until we have had time to get your letter printed?

Yours very truly,

R.C. Raymond

Asst. Professor of Agronomy.
