

CHAPTER VII.

IRON ORE.

The twin giants—Has Nova Scotia abundance of ore of merchantable quality—The opinions of the savants—The results of practical exploitation—Counties possessing iron ore—Attempts at development. 60

CHAPTER VIII.

GYPSUM.

Abundant in the Province—Production and prices 71

CHAPTER IX.

DIATOMACEOUS EARTH.

75

CHAPTER X.

MOLYBDENUM.

78

CHAPTER XI.

BARITE.

81

CHAPTER XII.

MANGANESE.

83

CHAPTER XIII.

TUNGSTEN.

86

CHAPTER XIV.

SILVER.

88

CHAPTER XV.

ZINC, COPPER, LEAD.

Where found—The Sterling property, Richmond, 90

CHAPTER XVI.

ASBESTOS.

98

CHAPTER XVII.

ANTIMONY.

101

CHAPTER XVIII.

GRAPHITE.

103

CHAPTER XIX.

MAGNESITE.

Its uses—Linings for Basic Steel Furnaces, etc. 106

CHAPTER XX.

FIRE CLAYS.

Many kinds in province—Is there clay suitable for first class fire brick—The clays of Inverness, Cumberland, and Pictou—Analyses, etc. 112