The Life and Times of Bishop Hedding.

Life and Times of Rev. Elijah Hedding, D. D., late Senior Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church. By Rev. D. W. CLARK, D. D. With an Introduction, by Rev. Bishop E. S. JAMES. Pp. 686. Price, large 12mo., $1.50; 8vo., $2.00.

A memoir of the Rev. Dr. Hedding, late senior bishop of the Methodist Church, has been prepared by the Rev. Dr. Clark, which is published in a handsome volume. It professes to portray the life and times of this venerable man, and involves almost the entire history of this denomination, at least for some thirty years past. In the controversies and vicissitudes of the denomination during this period, Bishop Hedding took always a prominent part, giving the characteristic form and policy to the issue. He was evidently a man of great energy and power, and possessed those personal qualities which make fast friends and gave him a preponderating influence in the Church of which he was so long bishop. The religious traits of his character were prominent as well as peculiar. The memoir is composed with great beauty of style and affectionateness of feeling; and altogether it will be regarded by the denomination as a welcome and instructive work.—New-York Evangelist.

We have received a copy of this work, which presents, mechanically, an elegant appearance. We have not yet found time for its perusal, but when we do, we shall speak more minutely of it. The name of Bishop Hedding lingers in the memory of the Church like the fragrance of a rose after its beauty hath departed, and is cherished with a filial fondness, while that of the talented author is a surety that his onerous but honorable task is well performed. This book must have a large and ready sale.—North-Western Christian Advocate.

Temporal Power of the Pope.

The Temporal Power of the Pope: containing the Speech of the Hon. Joseph R. Chandler, delivered in the House of Representatives of the United States, January 11, 1855. With Nine Letters, stating the prevailing Roman Catholic Theory in the Language of Papal Writers. By JOHN M'CLINTOCK, D. D. 12mo., pp. 154. Price, 45 cents.

A series of letters to the Hon. J. R. Chandler, stating the prevailing Roman Catholic theory in the language of papal writers, forms the substance of this volume. They were prepared in reference to the speech of Mr. Chandler, delivered at the last session of Congress, and from the position and character of the writer, as well as from his mode of treating the subject, are eminently deserving of public attention.—N. Y. Tribune.

Carlton & Phillips, No. 200 Mulberry-street, New-York, have just issued a neat duodecimo volume of one hundred and fifty-four pages, with the foregoing title. It needs not that we say the work is a most timely and masterly production.—Western Christian Advocate.
