

is, besides, full of new pictures, such as I never saw before: do, pray mamma, examine it, and tell me what you think of it." Mrs. Meadows slightly glanced over the pages of the little volume, and having always felt great sympathy towards the poor savages which it attempted to describe, considered it not unworthy of purchase. With mamma's permission, therefore, this, "Peep at the Esquimaux," became one of Harriet's treasures, and was quickly deposited in her little basket, as the fruit of her first visit to the Soho Bazaar.
