Four Killed, Ten Hurt Head-on Wreck at St. Vincent de Paul In Collision on C.P.R.

Eight of Injured Were Severely Hurt and One Is Likely to Die—Train From Quebec Crashed Into Montreal Train Which Was Standing Still.

AIR BRAKES WERE AFFECTED BY COLD

THE DEAD

ARTHUR DE HARNAIS, brakeman, aged 40, Quebec.
GABRIEL THIBODEAU, clerk, 22 years old, Lethbridge.
ELZEAR BEDARD, laborer, aged 45, Montreal.
EDMUND BLOFEL, roofer, aged 38, 124 Dufferin-street, Montreal.

THE INJURED.

DIDIER DURENE, 33 years old, Three Rivers, both legs broken and serious internal injuries; not expected to recover.
EUGENE LANOUETTE, employe at Mont St. Louis College, aged 43, legs injured and internally hurt.
ALFRED BOULET, 35 years old, Quebec, contusions to abdomen.
JOSEPH YVERDURE, Hull, general contusions.
ERNEST CLOUTIER, aged 60, Three Rivers, right foot smashed.
SEVERE COMTOIS, aged 58, St.
Barthelemy, right leg broken.
ANDRE CARON, aged 56, Three Rivers, general contusions.
O. FRECHETTE, conductor, 43 years of age, Quebec, right foot cut off at ankle, compound fracture left leg; severe scalp wounds.
JAMES HAMILTON, engineer, 23 years of age, Outremont, both legs broken and serious internal injuries.

MONTREAL, Jan. 8.—(Can. Press).— Four men were killed and eight others badly hurt, while the injuries of still another are likely to prove fatal, in a head-on collision on the Canadian Pacific Railway this afternoon at St. Vincent de Paul.

The collision occurred at 2.20 in the afternoon, when the Montreal train was run into by the train that left Quebec at 8.30 in the morning.
It was a double-header from Quebec on account of the heavy train, and, instead of taking the siding at the station, it went straight ahead and plunged into the engine of the train from Montreal, which was standing on the main line, with the expectation that the train from Quebec would take the siding.

Air Brakes Didn't Work.
It is stated that the cold weather was the cause of the wreck. The engineer of the first engine on the double-header from Quebec said that, when approaching the siding at St. Vincent de Paul, he applied the airbrakes as usual. He suddenly found that they were not responding and made wild signals to the engineer of the second locomotive to use his airbrakes. But by this time the train was too close for effective application, and, apparently, the engineer on the second engine didn't discover what the trouble was until it was too late. The Quebec train did not slow down, but smashed into the waiting train from Montreal at twenty miles an hour.

Engine Badly Smashed.
The front engine of the doubleheader was a light one and the second a powerful locomotive. This lighter engine was badly damaged, but the other was scarcely hurt. The two front baggage and mail cars came out, without serious injury, but the impact was so

Seine s Again Rising

PARIS, Jan. 8.—The River Seine, which was already much swollen by the continuous heavy rains of the past week, is again rising, altho there is no immediate danger of a repetition of the great flood of January, 1910, when an enormous amount of damage was done.
The hydrometric service to-day announced that there will be a further rise of three feet in the level of the water during the next 48 hours.
The steamer service between Paris and London has been suspended, as the vessels cannot pass beneath the bridges.

MENACE OF BEAR HANGS OVER CHINA

Demand for Recognition of Outer Mongolia Comes at Time When Civil War Clouds Are Re-Gathering Darkly—Republic Must Fight for Life.

PEKIN, Jan. 8.—(Can. Press).—Two important developments to-day intensified the interest in the situation in China. These were a renewal of hostilities and the demand of the Russian Government that China recognize the independence of Outer-Mongolia. Revolutionists from Shansi and Shensi, having recaptured the Town of Shenchow, are advancing on Honan, while reinforcements have been despatched to the imperialists. The armistice has not been renewed, and there is a deadlock in the peace negotiations; so that early fighting may be expected between the opposing forces.

In addition to requesting China to recognize the Kutuktu of Urga, as the monarch of Outer-Mongolia, the Russian Government has notified China that the independence of Outer-Mongolia must be recognized as concerns internal affairs. The note adds that Russia will assist the Mongolians in maintaining order, and that she intends to build a railway from Kiakhta, Siberia, to Urga. Henceforth, China will not be permitted to maintain military forces or send colonists to Outer-Mongolia, but may retain control of external relations. To this note China has as yet made no reply.

Protest Against Russia.
To the other powers, however, the Chinese Government to-day communicated the substance of the Russian demands. Undoubtedly a strong protest will be made by the Chinese Government against the action of Russia, but

Arrested for Complicity in Bank of Montreal Robbery

In John McNamara of Frisco
New York Police Believe They Have Ringleader in Theft of $375,000 at New Westminster—Tried to Negotiate Canadian Currency.

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—(Can. Press).— John McNamara, of San Francisco, known to detectives of half a dozen cities as "Australian Mack," was arrested here to-night by central office detectives on a warrant charging him with the larceny of $375,000 from the Bank of Montreal at New Westminster, B. C., which was dynamited on Sept. 14. Eleven hundred dollars was found in his wallet and detectives are searching the city to-night for $240,000 of the bank's funds which he is believed to have brought to New York with him.

For ten days McNamara has been under the shadow of the police here.
For more than two months he has traveled over the United States and Canada with his pursuers, apparently without suspicion that he was watched. Police headquarters here first learned of his arrival in New York as a tip that efforts were being made by someone to exchange a large amount of Canadian money for American currency. The police shadowed the money brokers and the trail of the latter, they said, led them to McNamara's lodging-house. None of the money, however, was found there and none of the bank's bill were upon his person.

Prisoner Cheerful.
Exchanges for McNamara's arrest have been under way between the police here and the Canadian authorities. They ended this afternoon with the issuance of a warrant by Chief Magistrate McAdoo. Four detectives surrounded McNamara on the street in Harlem late in the afternoon and placed him under arrest. He submitted quietly and asked to see the warrant.

Rev. R. J. Felgate Murdered.
SHANGHAI, Jan. 8.—Word has reached here that the Rev. R. J. Felgate of the China Inland Mission, at Kokanshan, Province of Chekiang, has been murdered, it is supposed, by robbers.

The official list of missionaries attached to the China Inland Mission does not contain the name of the Rev.
R. J. Felgate. A. Langman and wife, according to the list, are stationed at Kokanshan.

Cold Weather and Furs.
The last few days of frigid weather have started people into their furs—and everyone realized that furs are a real necessity in Canada. There is more of that cold wave still to come, so that the big January sale at Dineen's should be an attraction worth considering. All furs are greatly reduced in price. The Dineen Company handle nothing but genuine pelts of the highest quality, and every garment is made on the premises.

LAURIER BITTER IN ATTACKS ON BORDEN

"Greatest Corruptors Canada Ever Saw," is His Description of Government at Rally in Montreal—Principles Already Gone to Ruin, He Declares.

MONTREAL, Jan. 8.—(Can. Press).— The Monument National, the scene of former triumphs of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, was crowded to-night to hear him speak from the cold shades of opposition, and for an hour and a half he talked, asserting that he was inno way embittered by the defeat of last autumn, that he accepted it as the will of the people and that he only assumed the lead of the opposition at the urgent request of friends.
Once again the former premier reiterated his adherence to the old program of Liberalism, which he declared to stand for the prosperity that marked the past 15 years and once more he stated that he was neither Imperialist nor Nationalist, but simply Canadian.

The government came in for some criticism, the chiefly in relation to the Nationalists, and the speaker spent a good deal of his energy in hitting at Mr. Bourassa and Mr. Monk, and the latter's position in regard to the navy.

Defeated Ministers There.
The meeting was under the auspices of the Association of Young Liberals, and was presided over by Victor Belque, and on the platform with Sir Wilfrid were several of his late ministers, including Hon. Sydney Flaher, George Graham, William Mackenzie King, also Messrs. Mederic Martin, R. W. Bickardike, D. Laforaine, Roch Lancot, Charles March, M.P., Leon Garnau, L. Gauthier, M.P., Oscar Gladu, Victor Geoffron, ex-whip, Ser-erin Letourneau, Ralph Smith, M.P., Charles Murphy and others.

The Hon. Wm. L. Mackenzie King touched on the recent provincial elections in Ontario and marked two things that had been responsible for making the fifteen years' Liberal regime famous; namely, the prosperity of the country and the personality of the chief.

Pities the Victor.

Abattoirs Versus Cattle Drivers

They Come to a Deadlock on the Toronto Live Stock Market as to Who Shall Stand the Loss of Condemned Carcasses.

There was lack of harmony, indeed there was war, yesterday on the West Toronto live stock market, as between commission men and drovers who were selling cattle, and the abattoirs who were prepared on conditions—to buy from them. The issue is: Who is to stand the loss of the carcasses condemned by the Dominion inspectors under the Dominion Act to secure pure food—the killing houses or the drover?

The abattoirs claim they have been losing the money, and they want to change the method so that it will not fall altogether on them; but when they tried to put a new method in force yesterday, the ran up against the drovers and the commission men and little business was done. But the best of good nature prevailed on both sides.

One way to explain is to take the case of a carcass that has been condemned. Supposing the abattoir paid $50 for a steer and when slaughtered, condemned by the government inspector as tubercular. The carcass has to be "tanked" and the fat saved for soap or other non-food use and the flesh converted into a fertilizer. Not more than $10 would be realized, including the hide in such a case. The killing house, therefore, had to stand the loss of $40.
The abattoir have been collecting, or trying to collect, this from the drover, who in turn tried to collect from the farmer, but in nearly every instance there would be a wrangle and nobody satisfied.

The New Conditions of Buying Cattle Several conferences have been held to try and reach a settlement, but without success. Nevertheless, the abattoirs gave notice last week that they would buy on the market at the Union Stock Yards yesterday, on the following conditions: That in the case of cattle that brought over 3 1/2c a pound, they would deduct 20c for every head, and in the case of inferior cattle, selling at 3 1/2c or less per pound, 50c a head (as in this class the danger of contamination is much greater), as a fund to protect themselves for any loss they might suffer thru the inspection of the government.

About 20 carloads of cattle were offered on the market yesterday, and not more than 40 carloads sold under the new conditions, hardly that many, and as a consequence, instead of harmony, there was discord for the first time in a good many months.

What the outcome will be it is not at present known, as not more than 20 per cent. of all the cattle killed in Ontario are government inspected, and the only protection the people of Canada who buy butcher meat have, is the meat that passes thru the Toronto abattoirs, and one or two other places.
There is no inspection whatever in small slaughter houses, nor in the towns outside Toronto.

The Two Sides.
The commission men and drovers on the contrary want the abattoirs to take all the risk, and to adjust their prices accordingly. This would be another way out of the difficulty, but the abattoir men prefer to act on the plan of 20c and 50c a head deduction, and they say that even then this sum would not secure them completely. They are prepared to show their books to prove how much they have lost up to the present thru condemned carcasses. In Chicago, the packing houses take all the risk, but there nearly all the cattle and meat of the whole country passes thru their hands, and in that way they have better control of the trade.

The abattoir men say it is unfair that they should assume the loss on 15 or 20 per cent. of the meat of the whole of Ontario when there is no inspection of at least 80 per cent. killed in small slaughter houses and in towns outside Toronto, and which actually comes into competition with their product.

An Independent View.
The World asked a man who is not in the business, but who is well acquainted with the provision trade, and his opinion was that in any case the consumer had ultimately to meet the loss. As to the point that some of the commission men held, that the government ought to pay the loss, this man observed that if government had to pay, government would soon cease to inspect. The trouble was, he said, that there was not enough of inspection and there were too many slaughter-houses, and while he did not wish to do anything to hurt the small but-

Parents Murdered By Insane Daughter

New York Police Believe They Have Solved Mystery of Shocking Tragedy.

The police to-day gave up any further search in connection with the murder of Isaac Futterman, aged 50, and his wife Rachael, aged 72, who were found dead in their East Side flat yesterday. At headquarters it was declared that the police were satisfied with the detention at Bellevue Hospital of Edna Futterman, the 40-year-old daughter of the murdered couple, who, the police say, is acting in an insane manner.

When Police Inspector Hughes asked her to-day what she thought of the murder of the bodies, she replied:
"Why, I suppose doctors cut people up, don't they?"
"Did you kill your father?" the inspector asked. The woman replied:
"If I tell you that I suppose that you will cut me up, too."
The police said no further movement would be made in the case until after further examination as to the woman's sanity.

McManigal Tells His Story to Jury

Accomplice of McNamara to Give Light on Thirly Dynamite Explosions.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 8.—(Can.
Press).—Whatever Orrie E. McManigal, the confessed dynamite, knows about the complicity of others beside the Mc-Namara brothers in the blowing up of more than one hundred "open" shop structures in various sections of the country in the last five or six years, is believed to have been related by him in his preliminary story before the federal grand jury to-day.

Taken from the cell in the federal building, where he had been lodged before daylight, after his secret trip in the custody of government officials from Los Angeles, Cal., McManigal, confessed accomplice of John J. and James B. McNamara, went before the jurors after his written confession had been presented in detail.

McManigal professes to have personal knowledge of at least thirty of the explosions which destroyed bridges and other structures erected by firms employing non-union men.
