Sculling Durnan Again . Baseball Toronto 2-6 . Trotting 3d Day at Newark 7-5 . Trotting Cleveland

Note and Comment

Joe McGinnity, the Iron Man of New-ark; is a high-class performer and a good man from the box office stand-point. He wastes no time in delivering the ball, displaying only a meagre wind up motion even with no one on the base. The fans like to see him work. McGinnity is easy on his catcher and a hard man to steal on. He gives his own signs, and thus saves a lot of time that is usually occupied by the back-stop telegraphing to the pitcher. Iron Man Joe says he signals by the way he catches the return, but the enemy never appears to decipher his code.

Lee, left-hander, also keeps the runners glued to first and thus Higgins in these three games appeared a fair throws back-stop. The Leafs should about run wild on him to-day and make an even break on the series.

McGinnity won a double-header from Rochester last week and very nearly repeated the trick on the Leafs yesterday. Wonderful work for a man overs forty years of age.

Once more Jack Johnson, the heavy-weight champion of the world, has declared that he has boxed his last bout and this on top of an offer of $20,000 to face Joe Jeannette for a short ten rounds. He is quoted as saying:

"The promoters won't give me my price for fighting now, and 'i I wait a year I'll probably not be in condition to put up, a fight worthy of a champion. So, it's good-by to John Arthur Johnson, champion of the world."

Asked, if he intended to retire in favor of any fighter, as Jeffries did in the case of Marvin Hart, Johnson said:
"No. let, Jeannette, Langford and Mc-Vey fight it out. I think McVey will thrash any of them, but that is their troubles, not mine. No white fighter can give either of these men a good battle."

Johnson, says he has saved his money

Johnson, says he has saved his money and is worth $200,000, all of which has been accumulated since he defeated Tommy Burns in Australia on De-cember, 26, 1908.

"Twenty-five thousand dollars is my "Twenty-five thousand dollars is my fixed price, for a battle with Packey McFarland in New York at the Garden and I will not step into the ring for one cent less." This was champion Ad Wolgast's final answer to the New York promoters who have been angling for a battle between the leading light-weights at New York.

In an article on baseball fans, Hugh Fulierton tells, the following story:
"One of the quickest things I ever heard was a remark from a Washington fan which upset Frank Ispell, the veteran, completely. Isbell's head is as bald as at concrete pavement and usually he kept his cap plastered tightly on his head to shield himself from the gibes of crowds. This time he tried to steal second and made a desperate diving slide around and under the baseman, only to be called out. He was so enraged that he ran at the umpire, grasped his arm, argued and raved and finally in sheer anger jerked off his cap, hurled it onto the ground and jumped upon it. His bald head glistened in the sunlight and the crowd foared. Then, above the rear, came a voice: voice: "Put on that cap, They pinched Mary Garden here for less than that."

Defender Defeats the Challenger, Watertown, in Light Breeze by 2 Minutes, or About Quarter of Mile.

As expected, the defender, Nerwana, proved the better boat in a light breeze, and won the second and deciding George Cup tacht race yesterday by a quarter of a mile from the challenger, Watertown of the Crescent Yacht Club of Watertown, N.Y., and the cup stays with the R.C.Y.C. yet another season. The challenger gained an advantage at the start, which enabled her to keep in close attendance upon the defender thruout the first thresh to windward and run to leeward, but on the second round the light breeze freshened up a trifle and Nerwana walked away and won handily. Toronto Sculler Seven Lengths Ahead at Rainy River

- Time Was 20.49.

RAINY RIVER, Ont., July 31.—Eddie Durnan of Toronto, champion professional oarsman of America, defeated John Ha kett of Beaudette, Minn., on the Rainy niver to-night by seven lengths, covering the three miles with turn in twenty minutes and forty nine seconds. The time was slow, but Durnan was well within himself at all times, and won as he pleased, paddling across the line.

The race, which suffered postponement several times since 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, was starte dabout 7.30 o'clock to-night after Hackett had refused to appear at an earlier hour. Durnan was at the starting buoy promptly at 7 o'cloc, but it was ten minutes later when Hackett appeared. The champion, who had won the toss yesterday, took the American side, while the American oarsman was sent away on the Canadian shore. The latter was the better position, being protected all the way by the shore, and the booms which lined most of the river. There was scarcel ya ripple on the water and the slight wind did not effect the contestants. There was some driftwood, but it did not interfere.

Hackett was greatly downhearted over the result. At no time did he have a chance, and had Durnan wished he could the result. At no time did he have a chance, and had Durnan wished he could have berten him many more lengths Durnan came out of the race with flying colors, not only by winning, but by the sportsmanslike manner in which he gave way to Hackett's demands, which were many. Don Robertson of Winnipeg was referee. Fred Hermann represented Hackett on the Judge's boat, white Nat Scholes loked after Durnan's interests.

Circuit meeting to-day. First money was pulled down by Apvil, the bay son of St. Valiant Vincent, with "Pop" Geers, the veteran, in the seat.

Six incusand people cheered as Geers drove Anvil into first place in two straight heats, and they cheered again when Geers was called to the judges stand and presented with the Silver trophy cup given the Forest City Live Stock and Fair Co. by 'Jimmy' Mc-Glade. Helen Stiles was the chief contender for

Helen Stiles was the chief contender for first honors, and she ruled favorite at the opening, selling at 2 to 5, while Anvil was pringing 2 to 1. Helen Stiles was not on her best behavior and Geers got a lead on Durtee at the jump and held it to the finish, winning the heat in 2.07½. In the second heat Helen Stiles behaved better, and Geers came near maying to make Anvil show the best there was in him. This heat was in 2.9%, just
