HIPPO JIM VAUGHN STEPS IN PUZZLES BARROW'S BOSTON SOX

Chicago Scored a Shut-out in Fifth Game of Series and Boston's Lead is Cut to One Game--Red Sox Died Hard, But Could Not Penetrate the Chicago Defence.

Boston, Sept. 10.—Big Jim Vaughn, the powerful lefthander pitcher of the Chicago Nationals, kept the Boston Americans out of the world's championship today by winning the fifth game of the series, 3 to 0, after the contest had been delayed for an hour by an unprecedented strike of the players of both teams for a readjustment of their share of the proceeds.

"royal rooters," the Boston world series cheering organization.

Taking a huge megaphone and going to each section of the stands and bleachers he stated the cause of the delay and the determination of the players to go thru with the series for the sake of the public, the game and the soldiers and sailors, regardless of the outcome of their dispute with the National Commission.

Shortly before the time for calling the game. Chairman Herrmann stated the position of the commission, positively, "The commission cannot change the rule," he said. "It was proposed and agreed to by both leagues, and it is up to them. If these, is a strike we shall end the series at this point and divide the money that was coming to the players equally among the club owners. And we shall also take care of the players' share of the Red Cross contribution."

Mr. Herrmann's words only led to further argument, which was leading nowhere, when Harry Hooper, one of the most popular veterans of the game, turned to hisfellow ployers and reminded them of the crowd walting outside. He put the situation up to them forcibly and in a few words, and all hands agreed to call off the strike and go on with the station up to them forcibly and in a few words, and all hands agreed to call off the strike and go on with the game for the game's sake.

Crowd At Sea.

In the meantime the crowd was utterly at sea as to the cause of the deserted diamond. They filed in steadily until nearly 25,000 had been seated, in the fear that such a luge gathering would start a riot in the event of the announcement of a strike, police reserves were rushed to the park; one squad of mounted officers picketed the outfield in front of centre field and right field in the crowd took the long wait partiently. The band did its best to fill in with popular war numbers and patriotic airs. The arrival of detachments of woulded soldiers and saliors brought all hands up cheering lustily. Finally, half an hour after time, it was announced that the hostilities would begin in "about fifteen minutes." At this point the cause of the deserted field by Former Mayor John F. Boston went into the last of the ninth determined to end the series then and there. The faster Vaughn shot the ball across the plate the harder the Red Sox sluggers slammed it back, but they were up against an impenetrable defence. Miller, pinch-hitting in place of Jones, sent a long-soaring drive to left field, a double under ordinary circumstances, but Mann, judging the ball perfectly, ran far back, climbed up the embankment, slipped to a sitting posture as he reached the top of what is popularly known as "Duffy's Cliff," and caught the ball sitting down. The brilliant catch was loudly applauded by the fans. Captain Hooper tried to start things going by poking a fly into short left field, apparently beyond the reach of anyone, but Hollocher, racing like the wind, got it in his outstretched hands. Shean came thru with a hit, but Vaughn, to show he was anything but weak, struck out Strunk, Amos swinging hard at the last one.

The Red Sox, however, were not a bit discouraged. They still lead Chicago, 3 to 2, in the series, and need but one more win to give them the championship, while the Cubs must win two straight games to wear the laurel wreaths on their brows.

FANS WERE PLEASED.

The excitement at the Star Theatre, yesterday afternoon when the wonderful playograph and paragon scoreboard showed the two Cub runs coming over the plate in the eighth inning was almost equal to the last Toronto-Buffalo game, with hats, canes and pop corn going up in the air, while the cheering lasted until the last player was retired.

STILL WANT BIGGER CUT IN THE MELON

Boston. Mass., Sept. 10.—A possibility that the world's series game tomorrow might be delayed in starting developed tonight when the dispute between the players of the Chicago Nationals and Boston American teams and the National Commission regarding the players' share of the series receipts took a new turn. The players' committee announced that they would ask the commission to meet them at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning to make a further effort to come to a settlement. They said they would ask the commission not to permit tomorrow's game to be started until the matter was ironed out.

The players claim that under the present arrangement they will receive little more than the members of the teams which Tinished second and third in the two leagues.
