"BABUSHKA" SPEAKS FOR HER PEOPLE

TUESDAY MORNING JUNE 10 1919

Madame Catherine Breshkovsky Appeals for Russia at Convocation Hall.

Russia Not Bolshevik or Her People, Says Ex-Siberian

Exile.

Convocation Hall last night was the meeting place for the foreign clans of Toronto. Besides a mighty throng of citizens, a strong element of Jews and Russians assembled to do honor to their noted countrywoman, the beloved Madame Catherine Breshkovsky, Hundreds thronged the Varsity grounds and crowded into the doorways, but tickets of admission were useless. They all failed to get in. The large hall was filled in a trice, and overflowed into every available corner, thile those who were a minute late found locked and policed doors. The guards were busy preventing a literal riot on Convocation steps, for very determined people showed a feverish desire to see their "Babushka."

Inside one found many types of humanity, joined by the common bond of a mighty patriotism. The audience was splendid in its enthusiasm and showed a keen appreciation of the stranger in their midst. Spontaneous fervor was splendid in its enthusiasm and showed a keen appreciation of the stranger in their midst. "Germany looked upon Russia as a future colony, and the danger still exists of a new alliance which may be formed by dividing Russia among Japan and Germany, causing a new war. Russia must be helped. What Russia needs is to work again. If she is not helped, a bad future awaits the world. The young generations must be educated, and for this purpose a mission to America was formed to get aid for the millions of orphans. For four months I have traveled from city to city, and am now in your city of Toronto to appeal fr the same thing. My dear citizens of Canada, now you have the opportunity to join the worthy cause."

On the platform were university officials, Salvation Army members, prominent citizens and the speakers of the evening. The general at lience was decidedly mixed, but they all wanted to see "the little grandmother of the revolution."

Summarized Situation

Sir Robert Fulconer was the presiding officer and in an appropriate speech introduced Dr. Egbert, American Red Cross delegate to Russia. Dr. Egbert's talk summarized the Russian situation and showed a keen grip on foreign arfairs while on the subject of "Russia and her Value to the World."

Madame Breshkovsky's secretary, Mrs. Harper, gave a biographical sketch of "Babushka's" life and stated madane's position in the present situation with a little incident. The Russian had been accused of being Lenine's friend. At a conference in Switzerland, both were present, and Lenine had to leave the meeting because she wouldn't speak to him. "That," said Mrs. Harper, "was her friendship for him." In the words of Mrs. H. P. Plumptre, the two preliminary speakers "formed an admirable background against which to place madame."

The machinists decided at a largely attended meeting, held yesterday afternoon at the Labor Temple. to remain on strike until the Employers' Association accepted the demands of the Metal Trades Council, and R. C. Brown, president of that council, stated that the report that the mayor was effecting an agreement between the opposing parties was incorrect. He stated that it had been brought to his attention that employers had visited the homes of strikets to induce them to return to work. If this was true, he said, it was a decided about-face to the attitude shown two or three weeks ago. The strength of the metal trades strikers had been increased, said Mr, Brown, by financial assistance, and the cause had never been more hopeful.

Reading a telegram received from W. H. Marcon, an ex-elder of Albernie, B.C., the moderator remarked that had it been addressed to him perconally he did not know what he should have done with it. He read it to the assembly, whose property it was. The message follows:

"Dare the assembly stand for the Master's teaching of co-operation and brotherhood and join the Methodists in demanding the only remedy, the public ownership of the means of wealth production? The whole world is groaning under the present system and demanding relief. What would be His words today? God does not make our laws. We do. The church should lead in this momentous mat-
