NEW GROUND FOR COBALT STOCKS.

World Office, Monday Evening. Oct. 1.

The Cobalt stocks continue to break into new ground. Nipissing mines and McKinley-Darragh both made new prices today on the New York curb. It was stated to-day that the option held by an American syndicate on a large block of McKinley-Darragh had been exercised, and that the stock was again in the market for open purchase. Nipissing mines sold up to 22 1-4 at New York and McKinley-Darragh at 2.75. The new discovery on the Nipissing property is reported to be showing wonderful ore values, as will be seen by a despatch from Cobalt in this issue. Street gossip on Foster was very persistent to-day, but the price of the stock was only steady. Buffalo mines was firm and North Star irregular. World Office, Monday Evening, Oct. 1.
