LANTERN STARTS BLAZE

Fire Does $35,000 Damage to Wholesale Grocery House of Taylor & Mulveney.

Hamilton, Jan. 11.—(Special.)—The wholesale grocery and glassware establishment of Taylor & Mulveney, on East King-street, near the corner of Catherine-street, was visited by fire this evening, and about $35,000 damage was done to the building and contents. The principal loss is on stock, and is covered by insurance.

The fire broke out about 5 o'clock, and was caused by the upsetting of a lantern between two crates of ware. The lantern had been placed on a crate while one of the employees took the number of a corner store of goods. The fire spread rapidly in the straw, and in a short time the cellar was in flames. They spread up the stairway and burned thru the first and second floors before they were checked. The damage on the second floor was slight, but in the basement and on the first floor were large quantities of fine china, cut-glass and marble statuettes, which were completely ruined. The loss to the building will not be heavy, as only part of the first floor and stairways were burned. The fire will not prevent the firm from filling its orders as usual.

The burning straw caused a very heavy smoke, and Chief Ten-Eyck and many of his firemen were overcome. The chief had to be assisted out, and is under the care of a doctor to-night, tho it is not thought he will be long sick. Firemen Walsh, Broadbent and Lindsay had to be carried out, and others had to leave the building to avoid being overcome. The Gerhard-Helmman Piano Company, which occupies the corner store, had to move out all its pianos to save them from injury by smoke and water.

The cellars of that and the store east of Taylor & Mulveney's were flooded, and considerable damage was done in both. The firemen fought the fire for an hour before it was under control, and worked another hour and a half before it was out.

ON TRIAL FOR THEFT.
Charles Reid, Toronto, and Henry McCormick, were placed on trial this morning on the charge of stealing a watch from Reid, pleaded guilty, but exonerated his claim.

Percy Day, who was sent down for 18 months for forging orders on A. L. Daniels, is likely to be deported. After Day was convicted Daniels begged him off, and he returned out of two weeks' board. Magistrate Jelks has taken steps to have the prisoner deported.

ECHO OF RIOTS.
In its presentment to-day the grand jury recommended the release of John Seaman, the Greek storekeeper, who was sent down on a charge arising out of the street car riots. Justice Cluett said he could pardon only by the governor-general. The jury also recommended the erection of a poor house, and the judge said it was a disgrace and a shame that poor people were sent to jail.

On the subject of labor disputes, Justice Cluett said he had had considerable experience in such matters, and was satisfied that 99 cases out of 100 could be settled without a strike. He spoke of a mine in British Columbia, where 1400 operators were employed, and where there had been a strike for 14 months. The modus operandi was that none but union men were to be employed, and that they were to lay all their grievances before the manager, who was seldom that any benefit resulted from strikes, and the true method of dealing with disputes was by peace, reason and justice to bear upon them.

DICKSON FOR FINANCE.
It is likely that Ald. Dickson will be appointed finance minister in the city council. There is some talk remaining for positions on nine independent boards. Those who retire on the various boards are:
Board of health—C. H. Peebles and C. E. Bodgan.
Park board—W. Kavanagh and Albert Pain.
Hospital board—George A. Rutherford.
Cemetery board—James Donald.
Library board—John Milne.
Board of education—R. C. Fearman and William Bell.
Court of revision—Col. Moore and Richard Mackay.
Chorists Engaged.
Hamilton Robinson and Miss Longhurst have been engaged by the First Methodist Church Choir.
Thos. Frawley got a verdict from the Hamilton Steamboat Company of $1300 for the loss of a foot.

STUDHOLME'S ISOLATION.
Labor Member From Hamilton Not Allied With Either Party.
Allen Studholme, Labor M. L. A. for East Hamilton, was in the city yesterday and called upon Hon. J. W. St. John, the speaker, to discuss his coming appearance in the house. Mr. Studholme does not want to sit in the ranks of either of the parties, and will probably be accommodated with a desk in the neutral territory which at present separates the depleted ranks of the opposition from the to-spars majority of the government, which is located to the left of the speaker.

Mr. Studholme spent a busy week campaigning for the Labor candidate in the Kingston majority contest. But the city is too hot politically for an independent to have a chance.

The Amalgamated Carpenters will banquet in the Temple Building Feb. 13.

Dominion Lodge No. 342, A.O.U.W., held a large meeting with Bro. Thos. Jennings in the chair. Grand Lodge Treasurer Bro. Inwood, assisted by Brothers Lawrence, Toose, Burgess, Proctor and Armstrong, installed the new officers as follows: P.M., W. Bro. Jennings; W.M., Bro. Fred Harris; foreman, Bro. Foy; overseer, Bro. Geo. Adams; treasurer, Bro. Wase; financier, Bro. Douglas; recorder, Bro. Clatworthy; guide, Bro. New; watchman, Bro. Whitley.

ELKS' MINSTREL SHOW
GROWDS MASSEY HALL

Best Amateur Production of the Kind Ever Given in the City, the Critics Say.

Toronto has oft been afflicted with amateur minstrel shows and has borne with them with the patience which is only described in biblical lore and poetry. But the city has changed last night, when the Elks' minstrel had the good taste to work only the best features, and make a continuous performance which became monotonous and brought in some saucy stunts which would make good anywhere, and, to use the stereotyped phrase, were "better than the professionals."

Massey Hall was crowded to the limit, and the sold out for the regular performance to-night. The Western Hospital will benefit to a pleasant degree by the generous enterprise of the Elks.

From the opening chorus to the closing, every number was a hit, and one can scarcely give too much praise to A. L. E. Davies and Geo. Smedley, to whom, as musical director and stage manager, respectively, most of the credit of the performance is due. Indeed, Mr. Smedley displayed the most marked versatility, for, besides acting as stage manager, he told some exceedingly good stories, gave a clever imitation of an old dapper preacher, played, in his own inimitable fashion, on the Italian lute, the mandolin, and the banjo. In "Bill Simmons," Mr. Smedley displayed singing and dancing ability that were worthy of an old-time minstrel.

A. M. Gorrie gave a sweet rendering of Crowley's "Slumber Deep," "Donald C. Macgregor" gave much applause as usual, for "Eileen Alannah," Frank Bromrose made one of the hits of the evening with an exquisite rendition of "Howley's" "Pretty One, Sleep," and Ruthven McDonald was deservedly encored in "Yale and Sleep." In all the numbers the ensemble work of the quintet was very much admired.

Little Master Quarrington has a fine-like soprano of much sweetness and his solo, with unaccompanied chorus, was enthusiastically applauded.

The comic work was very well looked after by "Bill" Draper, Charlie Passmore, Walter, Eddie Riggs, Bert Harvey, and "Colly" Ross, all of whom were given rapturous encores.

The chorus work was exceptionally good, and the numbers were well sung. The chorus from "The Provost" was done with a verve and expression worthy of grand opera.

The orchestra's accompaniments added much to the enjoyment of the music.

The second annual "smoker" of the West End Club was held in the assembly hall, Labor Temple, last night. W. O. McTaggart, B.A., presided.

HAS NOT RESIGNED.
Dr. Torrington Throws New Light on Metropolitan Church Affairs.

There seems to be some mystery surrounding the announcement of Dr. Torrington's retirement from the position of organist and choirmaster at the Metropolitan Church.

"I have not resigned yet, but I will resign," Dr. Torrington said yesterday. "I have been cruelly used. The statement that the work of the College of Music is too arduous is false, for I am not going to give up church work, and in a very short time, mark my words, I will have another organ friends city. To say that trips to the coast had taken me from my church duties is also false, for during the past ten years I have hastened home from the seaside and cut my holidays short to be on the spot, and to not inconvenience the musical committee. And that is not all. I have received insulting letters, which may be used later, and have been ridiculed and maligned by one man on the musical committee for the past two years.

"Last Saturday Fred Roper and George Kerr waited on me and told me if I would resign without making a fuss the church would give me an annuity of $500 a year. I have never seen the committee's report. The thing has been put thru under cover. A trustee who was not at the meeting told me that if I wanted it he would circulate a petition thru the congregation to retain me at the organ and that I would be supported 100 to one. I asked the gentlemen if my age was the reason and they said:

"It is friction, doctor," they said. "Friction! Why I have never had any friction. At the choir reception last night every member of the choir except one paid soloist would have quit right there, and there would have been no choir on Sunday only I said, 'Two wrongs don't make a right.' Every one must be on hand Sunday."

Prof. Torrington went on to say that he had been brewing for the last two or three years. He had not been given the appropriation that he considered a fair one for his services. In fact with the exception of a Xmas card of his own the Christmas music was all old anthems, which he had fixed up. At the same time he had received a complimentary letter highly eulogizing his work and the services rendered by his choir.

The trustees, it is understood, voted 15 to 3 for the resignation.

Mr. Austin, chairman of the musical committee, would make no statement last night.

Just who will succeed Dr. Torrington is exciting the curiosity of local musicians. The present salary ($1000 a year) will not tempt a man of the
