PUBLIC AMUSEMENTS.

Owing to the illness of Miss Charlotte Behrens, the Robert Mantell Company, which is billed for next week at the Grand Opera House, will not be able to open until Tuesday evening. Miss Minnie Radcliffe has been engaged for the role of Marguerite Bertram and is now on her way to join the company.

The scenes in Mr. Mantell's new play, "The Secret Warrant," are laid in Paris during the regime of the Regent Duc d'Or-leans. Mantell is a picturesque actor, who has a strong sense of such dramatic effects as are to be produced from a study of the beautiful in dress and appropriate details.
Besides this, he manages his situations with unusual skill. He is not fond of melodramatic, but achieves his strong points by a well-arranged development of artistic methods. He has always favored the romantic drama and especially French historical works, and it is easy to say that he is unexcelled in these productions. The equipment will also be perfect, and the short scenes of romance will doubtless be more than justified at the presentation of "A Secret Warrant." The regular matinee will be given.

Comic Opera at Popular Prices.
The Palmer Comic Opera Company will be next week's attraction at the Toronto Opera House, presenting the following repertoire of popular operas: Monday evening and Tuesday matinee, "La Mascotte"; Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, "Chimes of Normandy"; Thursday matinee and evening, "Olivette"; Friday evening and Saturday matinee, "H. M. S. Pinafore." Miss Minnie Jarboe will be seen in the title role of each of the operas. "Olivette," said to have an excellent voice and a charming stage presence, has been engaged for her praise of some of the best operatic critics in the United States, and have made her a great favorite with the theatre-going public. Altogether, the organization numbers about 25 people. There will be no deviation from the customary scale of popular prices during the engagement.

Princess Theatre.
"Woman Against Woman," a well-known and popular play, will be presented at the Princess Theatre next week by the Cummings Stock Company, in a manner that it is said will exceed by far any previous production of this play in Toronto. "Woman Against Woman" has been one of the biggest successes of the Cummings Company's repertoire, from the natural and thoroughly up-to-date way in which they present it.
The second act, the home of the brothers is promised, will be as truly natural as any domestic scene ever presented on a stage; the transferring of this home to the stage, has been the success of the Cummings version. While the play in itself is a good one, and has always attracted an abundance of comedy scenes, Mr. Cummings has taken the liberty of adding to direct its production in such a way as to eliminate from it every thing that is not drama, which the majority of the companies playing the piece choose to adopt. Miss Helen Byron will appear in the principal role, "Beattie Barton," and it is said that this character will present the best opportunity which has been offered in a strong leading part. The Cummings version will appear as "John Trevelyan," a character in which he has been praised by the press.
Wherever he has appeared, "Woman Against Woman" will receive correct and attractive tagging, and a splendid production in every particular may be expected.

At the Bijou.
At the Bijou next week lovers of clean romance, neat dancing and great singing will, it is promised, have a bill to suit them. Lillian Day and her splendid company come with an enviable reputation as dancers and are said to be artists of great grace and beauty. McDonald Bros., as intelligible and beautiful as the former, are styles of dancing; Mudge and Morton, in a musical act, and the Miller sisters, ban-joists, dancers and singers, complete a strong list of attractions.

About Marion Crawford.
Francis Marion Crawford, the eminent novelist, who visits Toronto on Wednesday evening to deliver a lecture on "The Vatican," has had a remarkably interesting career. Born in Italy 43 years ago of American parents, his education was in the United States, and he was educated at the University of Rome. To perfect himself in this tongue he went to India and was there editor of a daily paper for two years. In 1880 he was at Harvard, in the United States, still studying languages.
Next year he produced his first book, "Mr.
Isaac," and took up his abode at Sorrento, in Italy. In fifteen years he has written twenty-eight splendid stories. He is a wonderful master of description and a most distinguished lecturer. His study of Leo XIII. and his pictures of Roman society are of special interest.
The sale of seats begins this morning at Tyrrell's bookstore, 12 King Street West.
There promises to be a considerable rush.

Toronto Orchestra.
A series of concerts is to be given by the Toronto Orchestra, this organization having received the support of our musical and business people of the city. The practices have been going on for some time. The management are arranging with some first-class foreign artists, who will assist. A number of local artists will also be present.
A. S. Nordheimer's. Subscribers have first choice of seats. Further announcements will be made shortly.

Manly Hall Concert Course.
All the notices for the subscription to the Manly Hall concert course have now been sent out. The plans open on Wednesday morning next at the box office (entrance on Victoria Street). The sale of the best seats will be made shortly.

GYMNASTICS FOR THE P.C.'S.

The Winter Classes Will Commence Next Week—Suggestion That an Entertainment Be Given in the Spring.

A general topic of conversation among the members of the police force is the approaching term of winter gymnastics, which will likely commence next week.
The splendidly equipped gymnasium of the Young Men's Christian Association has been chosen by the Commissioners as a suitable place for the gymnastics. The police to go and get their exercise at and twice a week half of the force will learn funny tricks at the West End athletic fountain on Queen-street, and the other half will be at the central music shop on Yonge-street. The constables take different views of the innovation.
Some of them, particularly the younger men, look upon it as a sort of a joke, while others will grant, then look around to see if a sergeant is in sight before they start to give a strong, honest opinion.

There is much speculation as to what standard of efficiency will have been attained by the bluecoats at the end of the season, and it has been suggested that those who are still living then give an entertainment in Massey Hall for rataplays only. Citizens would be delighted to see the constables turn a series of back handsprings, while the spectacle of P. C. William Paterson, K.D.D., jumping the splits could only be equalled by one of Inspector Spen-ner bending half a dozen iron crowbars or walking across the platform on his hands. These three events alone would be worth an extra tax rate of five mills. Then a horizontal bar by the Stuart Brothers-Dupuy, Chief Stewart and Stuart Burrows—with Inspector Archibald putting in a clown turn would bring down the house, and a high wire act by P. C. Utz carrying P. C. Whitesides on his back would be a sight never to be forgotten. Other events that would prove strong attractions would be a double tumbling act by Sergeant Cross and Vachey, or a performance by Ambulance Driver Geddes and P. C. Charlie Bell, the middlest strong man. The idea of such an entertainment is full of possibilities, and there should be an immense field of talent to choose from. In the meantime the "copper" are spending their pocket money in liniment, electric oil and insurance premiums, awaiting the arrival of the gymnastic classes will commence.

Living Pictures of Palestine.
Mrs. Mountford will give a series of four of her celebrated Oriental entertainments in Massey Hall, during the week after next. The dates are the 18th, 19th, 20th and 21st.

Forward Lely Coming.
A musical event which the Scotch folk will not overlook is the coming appearance of the immensely popular Scotch equalists Mr. and Mrs. Forward Lely, which is announced by Carroll & Macdonald, to take place in the Massey Music Hall Thursday evening, Feb. 10. It is some seasons since Mr. Lely sang here, and Scotch people are sure to give him a rousing reception and will not want to do on all his previous visits.
For his recital Mr. Lely will have the aid one of the most excellent Scotch choirs this city affords, under the baton of Mr.
A. C. Campbell.

The Billed Archer.
Little Boy Love drew his bow at a chance.
Shooting down at the ballroom floor.
He hit an old chap who was watching the dance.
And, oh, but he wounded her sore!
"Heh, Love, you couldn't mean that!"
But he drew on her and he quiver.
No word would he say.
But he drew on her and he quiver.
For the little boy's busy and how can he stay?

Little Boy Love drew a shaft just for sport.
At the subject club in Paul Mall.
He winged an old veteran drinking his port.
And down that old veteran fell.
"Heh, Love, you mustn't do that!"
But he drew on her and he quiver.
"You can't be right!"
But it's no use to argue, for Love's out of sight.

A sad faced young clerk, in a cell all spart.
Was planning a catheval vow; But the boy's random arrow had sunk in his heart.
And the cell is an empty one now.
Heh, Love, what would you be at?
Heh, Love, what would you be at?
Heh, Love, what would you be at?
Heh, Love, what would you be at?
"But I am his duty," quote Love as he had hoped.

The King sought a bride, and the nation
had hoped.
For a Queen without rival or peer, But the little boy shot, and the King has dropped.
Heh, Love, you mustn't do that!
Heh, Love, you mustn't do that!
Heh, Love, you mustn't do that!
Heh, Love, you mustn't do that!
had hoped.

When the wheat is in the granary
And the roosters are crowing,
And the chickens are clucking,
When the fish are jumping out of the water, And the barn is full of timothy,
And the bins are full of oats, Oh, it's then that I feel A realin' at his feet.
When the rain's on the roof,
And the night is glorious,
And the birds are singing,
And the girls are kicking him,
When the wheat is in the granary
And the roosters are crowing.
