Public MAMUSEMENTS !

Dr. W. H. Drummond, who arrives in town this evening for his lecture and readings at Massey Music Hall to-morrow evening, was born in Ireland, his father being an officer in the Roya Irish Constabulary, but after receiv ing his education as a boy in Ireland he came to this country at an early age and completed his studies at the Montreal High School and Bishops' College, Lennoxville. He is by profession a physician, and possesses an extensive practice in Montreal and he is also professor of medical jurisprudence in Bishops' College. in Bishops' College.

Plunket Greene's Concert.

No singer within recent years has ever interpreted before the Toronto public Schubert's Erl Konig more distinctively and in such a wonderful manner as Plunket Greene. He brings out every hidden depth in the music and pathos of this song. His concert on Monday evening will be signalized by the first appearance of Miss Ethel Martin, the new Canadian prima donna, who has lately returned from London and Paris. Another young Canadian is Miss Fyshe, a very talented pianist, whose home is in Montreal, and who has been engaged in Berlin, and Leipsic, and latterly in New York. Plunket Greene's Concert.

Watkin Mills Coming. Watkin Mills Coming.

The Montreal Herald of the 19th inst., in referring to Mr. Watkin Mills' recital there last Friday, says: "Mr. Watkin Mills, or Mr. Owen Smily, or the combination drew an immense audience to the Windsor Hall last evening." Mr. Smily's many friends will be pleased to hear of his success or this tour, which extends to the Pacific Coast and California, and that he will be with Mr. Watkin Mills and Mons. Edward Purlovitz, the noted pianist, at Massey Hall on Thursday evening, 1st May.

Song Recital at McConkey's. From a musical viewpoint the song recital given in McConkey's assembly room last evening by Mrs. Julie Wyman and Arthur Howard Blight was of a high order and decidedly entertaining to the large audience in attendance. Only expressions of delight and satisfaction were heard at the conclusion. The singing of Mrs. Wyman evoked the heartiest applause, and Mr. Bight established himself and Mr. Bught established himself as a singer of no ordinary promise. His rendition of a cycle of songs from Tennyson's "Maud" by Arthur Somer-vell was particularly good. Mrs. H. M. Blight presided at the plano.
