CROCKETT SAYS

Pleads Public Interest For Charge Against Emmerson.

MR. PUGSLEY HAS DEMURRER

Against Contention That Morals Cabinet Minister Can Be Discussed Publicly.

Fredericton, N. B., June 19.-Everyo'clock.

The adjournment was allowed upon to the plea which had been presented involved. by the defense. Judge Landry granted the request for the adjournment only after a vig- would be a justification is a question orous protest on the part of Mr. J. of law. This is important because Douglas Hazen, M. P. P., leading coun- under another section of the code it sel for the defense, who demanded that trate, that although Mr. Crockett the trial proceed.

cution should if possible have the lic interest. The demurrer which we demurrer prepared by 2:30 o'clock in will raise under this plea we expect to the afternoon, when the court would cover the defense under the other sego ahead with the trial of the case if tion of the statute. The defense has the prosecution was ready.

At present, the prospects of a settlement having vanished, it is thought that to try the case out on its merits will take well on into next week.

Reads Formal Plea. When the accused was asked to plead, Mr. Hazen immediately stood up and said that he had prepared, according to the law, a formal plea,
