At this juncture McLennan opened his coat and showed two quarts of bottled "energy."

McLennan was taking it to the Harrison House to a friend. Otherwise he would have given the policeman a bottle.

Then, the prisoner told detectives, he was seized with an impulse to shoot.

At another time in his ramblings he said: "Since I came out of the asylum I always carried a revolver, to make sure I'd never be put in the asylum again."

He added that he had resolved to shoot the first person who tried to

DAD IN OVERALLS

Young Woman Brantford Not Stand Could Shock.

Brantford, April 19.—The overall campaign was introduced here last night when a local churchgoer attended in the new costume. His wife and daughter preceded him to church. The opening prayer passed, and the first hymn was being sung when the daughter noted the style of her father's attire and the shock was so great that she fainted and had to be taken home in a layleab.

CITY HALL EMPLOYEE PUTS ON OVERALLS

Hamilton, April 19.—The overall craze has hit Hamilton. As a protest against the high cost of clothing, Ernest Hines, a city hall employee, marched to work in overalls today. Officials of the City Hall Employees' Association, after getting a glimpse at Hines, promptly called a special meeting for 5 o'clock this afternoon, when it is intended to piedge all the members to wear overalls until the price of clothing drops. The lady employees will be requested to adorn themselves in Oliver aprons.

OVERALLS COST MORE.

Toronto, April 19.—Although there is, so far, no recognized "Overall Club" in Toronto to protest against the price of clothing, the cost of overalls here has jumped from 75c to $2.25 for the cheapest variety. The employees of the city hall here are more in favor of an "old clothes league" than the "overall club" idea, so popular in the United States at present.
