Radicals Intended To Destroy Fort.

Rome, Oct. 19.—Following yesterday's attack on the Aureliano fort a few naites from this city, police and carabinieri sent from Rome attacked an inn where it was reported anarchists were gathered. They found a number of persons at the inn, but all of them escaped except three, who were arrested.

Some time ago, officers of the gartison received information that anarchists intended to attack the Aureliano fort for the purpose of seizing arms and munitions. Early toda ythree persons approached a sentinel, whose challenge was answered by three revolver shots. The tentinel fired his rifle at his assailants, and the garrison sprang to arms. Several machine guns were fired info the darkness, killing a horse and smashing a carriage in which the men who attacked the sentinel had reached the vicinity of the fort.

and measures taken by the Government to meet the crisis. Laborite members of the House of Commons have been for several days in conference with leaders of the Miners' Federation and other great labor organizations and London was hopeful that they had reached some decision which would tend to bring about a solution of questions that brought about the walkout of the coal diggers.

PREMIER WILL PRESENT PLAN TO PARLIAMENT

London, Oct. 19.—Great Britain's coal mining industry has been almost completely paralyzed by the strike. Reports of idle pits come from all coal fields in England, Scotland and Wales, but thus far in the strike no disorders have occurred. Sharp autumn weather prevails over the British Isles and belief was expressed today that this would have an important bearing on efforts to end the strike. No announcement so far has been made by the National Union Railwaymen and the Transport Workers' Union relative to joining the miners in some districts appear to have entered the strike in a half-hearted manner, there is no sign yet of any break in the ranks of the men and consequently the dislocation of the country's industries is becoming widespread.

Testerday's serious rioting near the official residence of the premier, in Downing street, brought the problem of unemployment sharply to the attention of the people. Premier Lloyd George has promised to bring at once before Parliament definite plans looking to the initiation of operations which may give relief to men who are out of work, and he told a committee which waited on him, yesterday, he had proposed similar measures to the London City Council. Details of financing these undertakings are being studied, he said, and he indicated the building trades unions would be asked to relax their rules and permit men discharged from the army to engage in building houses which are greatly needed in this city and throughout England.

Some stone throwing occurred, but the crowd dispersed upon appeals by the police, although later windows in police stations were smashed.

A considerable number of idlers vis-ited Whitehall, the scene of yesterday's rioting, this morning, seeking signs of the damage done to the public buildthe damage done to the public buildings. The traces, however, have been largely obliterated.

The usual police patrols were somewhat strengthened, but did not interfere with the crowds which sauntered through Downing street and other thoroughfares in the neighborhood.

EFFORTS BEING MADE TO SETTLE COAL STRIKE

London, Oct. 18.—Persistent reports that efforts to bring about a settlement of the coal miners' strike are being made partially relieved the spirit of anxious uncertainty with which the British nation began work today. For the moment these reports seem to have British nation began work today. For the moment these reports seem to have greater basis in hope than in actual information, but without doubt many of the most prominent men in labor circles are willing and eager to find means to bring to an end the dispute which brought about a complete cessation of the coal industry. The question is how far their influence will be able to influence the men who quit work on Saturday.

work on Saturday.

Clynes is Confident.

John Robert Clynes, former controller, and one of the most moderate of the labor leaders, has expressed confidence that a settlement was possible within a week, if both sides could be brought together to calmly discuss the merits of the controversy. He advocates as a hasts of agreement the merits of the controversy. He advo-cates as a basis of agreement the granting to the miners of half their demands, and the submission of the remainder to an impartial tribunal. He professes great confidence in the power of Parliament to harmonize the differ-ence between the Government and the coal miners, which brought about the strike.

Moderate Statements. J. H. Thomas, general secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen. has also made moderate statements, and both these men are relied upon to do their utmost to shorten the Newspapers contrast the attitude of Clynes and Thomas with that of C. T. Cramp, president of the National Rallwaymen, who has given significant warning to the members of that union as to the serious situation which will be created if the miners are defeated.

They also call attention to an utterance by another prominent laborite. Edwin Bevin, secretary of the Dock Workers' Union, who, in a speech yesterday, accused the Government of having engineered the strike, and charged it with double dealing. He declared his statement will be proven in a few days as he had learned France, with Great Britain's connivannce, was going to make another pounce on the Ruhr mines

The position of the Government with regard to the strike is entirely different than it was in 1912, when it interrened between owners and miners to settle the dispute. The Government as a result of the war, has been placed in the position of the directorate of the mining industry, the finances of which it controls, and it is consequently interested in the prosperity of the coal trade, which is yielding a large sum to the exchequer. It is maintained the Government wholly supports the premier's intimated readiness to explore every avenue towards settlement, and will facilitate almost any movement to-ward the reopening of negotiations. Such a movement, it is suggested, may be started at today's meeting of the In connection with the character of the demonstration it was pointed out Union Congress with the executive that the appearance of a red flag in a

an Operation

There is nothing in the world a woman so much fears as a surgical operation. Often they are necessary, but often not; and many have been avoided by the timely use of that good old-fashioned root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If you are suffering from some dread ailment peculiar to your sex, why not profit by the experience of these two women whose letters follow?

These Two Women Saved from Operations. Cedar Rapids, Ia.—" After the birth of my last child I had such painful spells they would unfit me entirely for my housework. I suffered for months and the doctor said that my trouble was organic ulcers and Iwould have to have an operation. That was an awful thing to me, with a young baby and four other children, so one day I thought of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and how it had helped me years before and I decided to try it again. I took five bottlesof Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and since then I have been a well woman, able to take care of my house and family without any trouble or a day's pain. I am ready and thankful to swear by your medicine any time. I am forty-four years old and have not had a day's illness of any kind for three years."-Mrs. H. Sandusky, Ohio.—" After the birth of 'my baby I had organic trouble. My doctor said it was caused by too heavy lifting and I would have to have an operation. I would not consent to an operation and let it go for over a year, having my sister do my work for me as I was not able to walk. One day my aunt came to see me and told me about your medicine-said it cured her of the same thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and they have cured me. Now I do my own housework, washing and ironing and sewing for my family and also do sewing for other people.
