AIRTIGHT AND CEDAR-LINED
Changing Climatic Conditions Cannot Affect These Cigars.

From the earliest time, or, as the writer would say, from "time immemorial" the visiting time brought gifts with them. So that gift-giving is not confined to Christmas, but is rather an all-the-year-around custom. Many folks leave town for a country visit at Easter time, and G. W. Muller has imported especially for this season a delightful new device in boxes of cigars. Four beautiful lines of Cabanas are packed in airtight, cedar-lined tin cansisters, which keep these rare cigars in uniform condition under varying climatic conditions.

MR. CAMERON ACCEPTS.
Will Become Pastor of Bloor Street Baptist Church.

The board of management of the Bloor-street Baptist Church last evening received from W. A. Cameron, B. A., an acceptance of the invitation extended to him to become pastor.

Mr. Cameron will assume his pastoral duties on the second Sunday in September. After completing his theological course and exams at McMaster he will spend the intervening time quietly on his father's farm near Palmyra.

The stipend is $2600, and Mr. Cameron is the youngest pastor of an important charge ever appointed in Canada, if not beyond.

That his exceptional talent is fully recognized by others is shown in the fact that Mr. Cameron declined an invitation to become director of religious work for the Y. M. C. A. in Canada, at a salary of $5000 a year.

SAM CHARTERS OPENS CAMPAIGN IN PEEL

Conservative Candidate Meets With Flattering Reception at Meeting at Port Credit.

Port Credit had a capital campaign meeting last night in the interests of Sam Charters, Conservative candidate for Peel in the local house. The hall was well filled and a large number of ladies brightened the audience.

The local farmers turned out well, and if Port Credit is any indication Mr. Charters will be an M.L.A. before midsummer. Charles Elliott was in the chair, and made an engaging address; Thomas E. Charters followed and spoke attractively as an old friend of the candidate, and was followed by J. W. Hamilton, who spoke of the advantage of the farming people taking counsel among themselves.

He had walked down from his farm that evening to meet the candidate for the first time. He did so in the belief that there was a time when honest men should take off their coats and do a little work for honest government.

Mr. Charters referred to his former candidature, when he was defeated by majorities of 123 and 25. It was rarely that a candidate twice defeated was chosen a third time. He remembered only two instances, those of Dakon McCarthy and Thomas White, and with that good example he was encouraged to hope for his own success.

Mr. Charters dwelt on various details of government administration, taxation and other matters. The country had received an education in 1904 $1858, and last year $1816, or three times as much. The country had received for rural schools nothing in 1904, and $1816 in 1907. The Township of Toronto received in the same years $594 and $1738. Port Credit itself had received in 1904 received $90, and in 1907 $237.

Mr. Charters made a striking impression by exhibiting the school books as sold at the reduced prices. The monopoly had gathered $20,000 out of the provincial pockets and would have increased that but for the reason that prices insisted on by Mr. Whitney. Not only the people but the press and pulp everywhere supported the government for their straightforward honest work.

Hon. Nelson Monteth was glad to be able to pay tribute to the many excellent qualities of Mr. Charters as a public man. Such men were of advantage on the floor and in the committees of the legislature, and Mr. Charters would be a great asset to the government. He described the institute work and the judging classes and the valuable results. Over 200,000 people had been brought together by the institutes during last year, while the membership of the Women's Institutes was 11,000.

Richard Blain, M.P., had traveled from Ottawa to be present, and he was delighted to be present, and he was good for his esteemed friend, Mr. Charters. He was delighted also to welcome to the Conservative party Mr. Hamilton.

They had formerly had free trade and protection up for discussion over their backs, but now they had a firm believer in protection for the farmer, and no class needed it more. (Applause.) He wondered where the grade old free trade party were now. There had been a deputation recently at Ottawa asking for higher duties on different articles. At the foot of the list of those in a deputation he found the name of Joseph Featherston, ex-M.P. for Peel, asking for an increase in the duty on port wine.

Mr. Blain gave an interesting account of some of the revelations in the public accounts committee respecting the Scotch whisky trade, and other Ottawa iniquities, and carried his audience with him all the way in sympathy with the opposition efforts.

Mr. Charters holds a meeting in Brampton on Saturday evening.

London Must Wait Turn.
LONDON, April 15.—Secretary Hunt of the Western Fair, in receipt of a letter from Hon. Sydney Buxton, minister of agriculture, stating that it will be an impossibility for London to have the Dominion Exhibition in 1909, owing to the fact that there are two provinces that must have it before it can come back to Ontario.

The rule is now that every province must have this exhibition in turn and as Saskatchewan and New Brunswick have not as yet had it, it will have to go to these places this year and next year.

You Recognize Nasal Catarrh Chiefly by Dizziness, Frontal Headaches, Nose Cold and Stiffness.

Catarrh in almost every instance starts with a common cold in the head, which is added to with another cold, and because of some extra exposure or weakening of the system, it becomes chronic.

A full case of disgusting nasal and throat catarrh then develops. Unless a radical cure is effected, the disease becomes rapidly a chronic one, with nasal tubes and finally to the lungs.

New Lunges.
No man or woman can ever get new lunges any more than new fingers or a new nose; but everyone suffering with Catarrh can get a sure cure by inhaling Catarrh-destroyer, and this is proved as you read further.

Quick, Lasting Cure.
After ten long years of suffering with catarrh in the throat and nose, I write to tell you that I am now completely cured with Catarrh-destroyer. What a relief it was to get that buzzing, itching, and sneezing stopped. I can breathe and easy to breathe thru what a blessing it was to get cured of droppings, catarrh, dizziness, and nasal breathing. As this is the result of Catarrh-destroyer, which I recommend everyone to use for any trouble in the throat, nose, bronchitis.

MCCARREN OUSTED.

Kings County Senator Unseated as Delegate.
NEW YORK, N.Y., April 15.—State Senator Patrick H. McCarrren, leader of the King's County Democracy, was unseated from his place as a delegate to the party's state convention to-night after a two days' contest before the committee on credentials.

He was alternately greeted with cheers and derisive cries and once was insulted by a man on the platform near him, to whom the senator replied that he would talk to him outside of the hall. In a scene that was tense and dramatic in the extreme he first made an appeal to the convention to refuse its sanction to the majority report on credentials, and then followed with a deliberate defiance of those, who he said, were excluding him from a place in the party councils, to which he had been chosen by his constituents.

To the Tammany delegates he delivered a speech, in which he said that he would talk to him outside of the hall. In a scene that was tense and dramatic in the extreme he first made an appeal to the convention to refuse its sanction to the majority report on credentials, and then followed with a deliberate defiance of those, who he said, were excluding him from a place in the party councils, to which he had been chosen by his constituents.

The senator's speech was attended with unusual and picturesque attention. From the time he entered he received the cheers of his loyal followers, but the majority were against him, and the counter demonstration was greater in volume, but he made his contest calmly and with courage.

FIRE AT MATTAWA.
Two Supposed Tramps Jumped for Their Lives.
MATTAWA, April 15.—At about 3 o'clock this morning fire broke out in the rear end of the outbuildings of the Mattawa Hotel situated in the central part of the town. Two supposed tramps jumped from the top of these stables, having been badly burned and hurt in their escape from the flames. They are now in the hospital.

Some valuable cattle perished. Our day's news did not excel that of the other day, but it was a very interesting one. The central part of the town would have been swept.

KIDNAPPED CHINESE.
British Consul in Shanghai May Confiscate Steamer.
SHANGHAI, April 15.—An extraordinary case is being tried in the British court here. The crown is applying for the confiscation of the steamship Maori King on the ground that she obtained fraudulent registration under the British flag while she really belonged to a rich Russian Jew named Ginsburg, who chartered her to a naturalized American named Zimmermann, formerly a Russian Jew. Zimmermann and two low class Americans conspired to kidnap twelve hundred Chinese coolies from Vladivostok under the pretence of taking them to a Chinese port. They were actually landed at Guaymas, Mexico, where they were handed over to a Mexican railway and forced to labor. They still remain there.

The captain of the Maori King, a Britisher, even kept the engineers in ignorance of his destination. Zimmermann is one of the richest men in Shanghai. The case is proceeding.
