London Diplomats Point Out Charges Disproved by Serb Acceptance of Ultimatum.

BERLIN, Jan. 26, via London, 6.30 p.m.—Telegraphing from Budapest the correspondent of The Tageblatt says that according to a Sofia despatch two letters and one telegram signed by the Russian emperor were found among the archives of the Serbian Crown Prince Alexander, which were recently captured by the Bulgarians.

All the documents were dated just before the outbreak of the war. The first latter advises the crown prince under no dreumstances to yield to the demands of Aus ria-Hungary for the dissolution of the Narodni Ochrana, a Serbian poli-of the Narodni Ochrana, a Serbian political society.

In the telegram Emperor Nicholas is said to have instructed the Serbians to reject the Austro-Hungarian ultimatum because Russia was ready to support Serbia with the force of arms.

In the second letter the Russian emperor is declared to have pointed out the the following Russia's orders. His majesty added that Russia's armed power was being held in readiness, and he tiged Serbia to resist to the last drop of blood.

Placido, 75 Walton street An agreement for the purchase of bed by the Bonias from the Di Placidos was the cause of the trouble. High words ensued between them, resulting in Mrs. Bonia seizing Mrs. Di Placido by the hair, while her husband beat her about the head with his fists. Mrs. Di Placido was taken to St.

TRIPS TO BERMUDA.

Bermuda, the Land of Sunshine and Flowers, seems to be more popular this year than ever, judging from the great number that are weekly sailing to this lovely resort. The Quebec Steamship Co., which is at present operating two steamers a week to Bermuda, is flinding it very difficult to accommodate all the passengers. Ber-muda has for years been a great attraction on account of the short dis-tance from New York and on account of the climate. The climate is delight tourist does not have to look very long for something to do. A. F. MINIMARY THE TENTMAKER."

Along with a tremendous sex interest, "Omar, the Tentmaker," in which Guy Bates Post will return to the Alexandra for a week's engagement, commencing on ext Monday, also boasts of those sumptuous and spectacular adornments which make for an equally large measure of popular approval. Here are wonderfully reproduced in a series of pictures, rarely if ever excelled upon the American stage, all the bewildering and fascinating ocular spells of the orient, black dungeons, gay silks and luxurious rugs.

Mr. Post's splendid performance of the intricate title role of Richard Walton Tully's Oriental spectacle constantly wins for him new admirers. Lovers of the Rubaiyat note with delight that many of the most popular approval at the bewildering and fascinating ocular spells of the orient, black dungeons, gay silks and luxurious rugs.

LOEW'S THEATRE. Next week's bill at Loew's Yonge Street Theatre will be featured by a most gripping one-act playlet by the well-known author, Mr. Wm. Anthony McGuire, author of "The Devil," and the little sketch for next week features Harry English in "The Evil Hour." Mr. English is a well-known New York actor. "Chums in Vaudeville," a very unique offering, will be presented by Ford and Truly. The Brown-Fletcher Trio will present their own version of a story in song called "Christmas Eve." Mayne and Fern in bits of comedy and song; Elsie White, queen of syncopated melodies; the Casting Mellors, sensational aerial marvels, and well-selected first-run variety of photo plays complete the run variety of photo plays complete the

MIDNIGHT MAIDENS.

The Midnight Maidens, coming to the Gayety next week, offer the first of the new type of burlesque shows to tour the Columbia circuit. It is away from the Columbia circuit. It is away from the braten path with the stereotyped Irishman and Jew. Pete Curley and Frank Lynch head the cast of funmakers, closely followed by Johy John Larkins, supported by Harvey Brooks, Billy Walsh, the original "Jimmy Hicks," Tony Shane, Bob Calvert, Ed. Bisland, Norma Bell, Roce Kessner, Jean Leonard and a chorus of pretty maidens, who fill all the requirements of the feminine contingent.

MONTE CARLO GIRLS.

The American circuit has a new one to offer this season in "The Monte Carlo Girls," who come to the Star Theatre on Monday. The show is brand new in every respect, even to scenery and properties, and it will offer some of the most interesting costumes seen this season. Several features make this entertainment exceptional. Two ckits of musical comedy nature are staged, "Izzic the Detective" and "A Night in Paris," Harry Welsh, Fred Binder, Jimmy Francis, Dolly Morrissy, Mabel White and the Olympia Trio make up the cast.

The Toronto World's "Omar" contest, announced in The Sunday World, by which a prize of $25 is offered for the best quatrain for use by Guy Bates Post in "Omar, the Tent Maker" at the Royal in "Omar, the Tent Maker" at the Royal Alexandra next week, has already resulted in hundreds of verses being sent to The World. The judges, Guy Bates Post and Hector Charlesworth, are likely to be confronted by a formidable task next week when the poems are read and the award is made. In tomorrow's issue The World will publish two or three of the best quatrains received to date. P. C. Browne, Bedford Park, sends a rhymed query as follows:

"O, Editor, when thou the task did set "To imitate old Omar's Rubalyet"

SHEA'S THEATRE.

Bessie Wynn, popularly known as "Lady Dainty," will headline the bill at Shea's next week, with her varied repertoire of new and exclusive songs. Her singing of "Molly Dear," "Mother's Rosary," "Haweii, How Are You" is said to be particularly effective. Craig Campbell, the lyric tenor, will be remembered here in the support of Emma Trentini in the purity and perfect in its method of production. Billie Burke is a producer of noveitles, and in "Tango Shoes" next week has a sketch that contains a genuine surprise. The Seven Colonial Belles are clever musicians, while form B. Hymer will be featured in the rural comedy. "At Jimtown Junction." Jed and Ethel Dooley are comedy cyclists, singers, dancers and musicians, and, with the new kinetograph features, complete the bill.

THE HIPODROME.

"The Earl and the Girl," a bright, clever musical comedy offering, will headline the bill at the Hippodrome next week. The songs are catchy and new, while the dancing is of an exceptionally pleasing nature. Special scenic equipment and unique lighting effects combine to make the offering particularly attractive. The feature film of the bill will be "The House of Tears," with that clever emotional actress, Emily Stevens, in the role of the heroine. John P. Rogers and Mark Hart will be featured in their rural comedy, "Back Home." Stoddard and Hynes, in the laughable comedy sketch, "The Absent-Minded Professor"; Jean Moore, singing comedienne; Dunn and Stevens, in a musical melange; "Bertie Ford, in a genuine surprise, and comedy fils, compilete the bill.

MADISON THEATRE. Lou-Tellegen, the celebrated romantic actor, will make his second appearance with the Jesse L. Lasky Company in the thrilling drama, "The Unknown," founded on I. A. R. Wylle's famous story of the Foreign Legion, "The Red Mirage." The cast is one of unusual excellence, and is composed of such prominent artists as Theodore Roberts, Dorothy Davenport, Hal Clements, Tom Forman, Horace B. Carpenter, Raymond Hatton and others. Mr. Tellegen will be seen in "The Unknown" at the Madison Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

BIG CROWDS AT STRAND. The superb V.L.S.E. production, The superb V.L.S.E. production.

"Graustark," the photo play version of George Barr McCutcheon's novel of that name, continues to draw crowded houses to the Strand Theatre, where it will be presented for the remainder of this week. The photo play is of an excellence, both as a story and as a spectacle, which is rarely met with. Francis X. Bushman is the manly hero, who wins the love of a princess, to the very life, and Beverly Bayne makes the loveliest of princesses.

RUSSIAN SYMPHONY. The Russian Symphony Orchestra, which comes to Toronto next Monday. Tuesday and Wednesday in connection with the Mendelssohn Choir concerts, where the first properties on the with the Mendelssohn Choir concerts, stands among the first orchestras on the concert stage today.
