LATE LOCALS

As many active members of the Every Day Club as possible are urged to be on the Victoria grounds this evening.

The fire investigation is being continued before Judge Ritchie in the police court this afternoon, having started at two o'clock.

R. Gordon Stewart and E. A. Harvorh of Ottawa, representing the Dominion Dredging Co., which is the contractor for dredging St. John harbor, were in the city on Wednesday.

Another phase in the McClary theft case was to have been aired in court this morning, but owing to the absence of Dr. A. W. Macne, the plaintiff's counsel, was set aside till tomorrow.

Terence Toole, an aged man, living in a room just back of 138 Beauséjour street, is reported by the police to be in a destitute condition.

Invitations to the silver anniversary of No. 1 Salvage Corps and Fire Hook, which is to be held on June 29, have been sent out. The cards are very tastefully prepared, with the coat-of-arms of the city in silver, embossed in the center.

Says the Halifax Chronicle: "Hon. David Laird, the first Lieutenant Governor of the Northwest Territories and now Chief Indian Commissioner with an office in Winnipeg, was a passenger on the Maritime Express yesterday afternoon en route to Charlottetown to visit relatives.

A NEW SALMON BOAT LAUNCHED

Very Pretty Craft Turned Out by Elijah Ross for Harold K. Clawson.

A very pretty sample of the boat-builders' art was launched yesterday from the workshop of Elijah Ross on the west side. It is a salmon boat, with a large cabin and was built for Harold K. Clawson. The new boat is 28 feet in length, 8 feet wide and has a depth of 36 inches.

POLICE COURT

The fondness of Peter Deegan for blue coats and brass buttons is manifested by the fact that three, since Tuesday night, he has figured in police circles. First, he craved protection, then on Wednesday he was arrested for wandering about the streets and again, last night, he was arrested for drunkenness.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S OUTING

A large party of boys and girls, members of the Young People's League of Queen Square Methodist church, left this morning on the Star Line Steamer for Brown's Bluffs, where they will enjoy an outing as the guests of John F. Bullock.

Judge Forbes returned yesterday from Montreal, where he attended the Press Association Assembly.

DROWNED MAN IS IDENTIFIED

He is James Cotton an English Immigrant Who Was in St. John Last Fall.

The drowned man found in South Branch Oromocto Lake has been identified as James Cotton, an English immigrant, who came here about a year ago and was for a time in this city. He was without funds and had resorted to begging.

He stayed all night at the home of Nat Floyd, a guide, in Gaspereaux region, on October 27 or 28. Next day he started to walk to the depot camp near South Branch Lake.

C. P. R. TO AID POTATO GROWERS

Will Do Everything in Their Power to Extend the Markets and Make Them More Profitable.

(Fredericton Gleaser.)

A party of C. P. R. officials, consisting of W. R. McInnes, freight traffic manager; W. B. Belling, assistant freight traffic manager; Frank Lovell, chief of the tariff bureau, and J. M. Kierstead, general freight agent, accompanied by F. P. McInnes, freight agent, arrived here last evening over the Gibson branch in the private car Rosemere and spent this morning calling upon the merchants and shippers in this city, accompanied by Charles K. Howard, the local station agent.

Mr. McInnes said that so far as could be learned there would be about fifteen to twenty more acres erected, and if the farmers were to be successful in their enterprise they would have to have the sheds erected without delay.
