Money advanced by the Company at current rates of interest, and on favorable terms on the security of productive farm, city and town property.

Money accepted by the Company from investors, and debentures issued therefor having interest coupons attached, payable half-yearly, as may be arranged. Private individuals, trustees, executors and others seeking a safe and desirable mode of investing their own or trust moneys, will find these debentures meet their requirements. They are secured not only by the whole assets of the Company, but by the uncalled capital of the proprietors, and are readily accepted by British investors.

Particulars will be furnished on application to

A. M. COSBY Manager.
