GOLD FROM CANADA BEING SENT TO NEW YORK

New York, Oct. 27.—Five million dollars in gold sovereigns from Canada were received by the assay office here today, the first of numerous anticipated shipments of about this size.

The money was for the account of J. P. Morgan & Company and is only about one fifth the size of recent shipments made here from Canada for their account. This shipment is the first to be made in conformance with the request of the assay office that gold be shipped in small shipments rather than in great quantities. So much gold has been received at the assay office recently that the facilities of the institution have been taxed. It was to relieve the pressure of the working staff, that the smaller shipments were requested.

OCTOBER WEDDINGS

A wedding of interest to many friends was solemnized in St. Joachim's church, Silver Falls, this morning by Rev. A. J. O'Neil, the pastor, when Miss Susan Culey of Cullerhasset, East St. John, became the bride of William O'Brien of Fairville. The bride was attended by Miss Blanche O'Brien, sister of the groom, and was becomingly attired in a traveling suit of blue with hat to correspond. The bridesmaid also wore blue with hat to match. Wm. Calley, brother of the bride, was best man.

Following the ceremony, a dainty breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. W. O. Sillis, St. James street, and later Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien left on a honeymoon trip to Portland, Me. They will reside in Church avenue, Fairville. Numerous and costly wedding remembrances were received attesting to the high regard in which they are held. Both enjoy the heartiest wishes of a large circle of friends for prosperity and happiness in their married life.

Holden-Taylor.

Fredericton, Oct. 27.—Christ Church Cathedral was the scene of a happy event this afternoon when Dr. C. Patrick Holden, formerly of St. John, was united in marriage to Miss Agnes Margaret, daughter of J. J. Taylor and Quebec engineer on the St. John and Quebec Railway. In addition to invited guests there was a large gathering of special friends. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Richardson, assisted by Rev. Dean Noyes. The bride was given in marriage by her father, who was costumed in white dress suit trimmed with white fur and pearls. She wore a Juliette cap with orange blossoms and white veil and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Phyllis Taylor, and Miss Dorothy Brown. J. Alexander Thompson was groomsmen. The bridesmaids were dressed in white tulle and carried bouquets of pink chrysanthemums. Professor Smith, organist of the Cathedral, played the wedding march. The brides were Keith A. Brown, J. F. Winslow and Harold Price. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold bracelet watch, and he presented to the bridesmaids rings set with pearls and agate. Out of town guests included Mr. A. G. Blair of St. John, Mrs. A. J. Cresswell of Amherst, and Mrs. Robinson of Fort Elgin. Dr. and Mrs. Holden will leave this evening on a honeymoon trip to Montreal, Boston and New York.

Waif heir to millions

The wedding of Miss Adelaide Frances Harding to William Edgar Dean was solemnized this afternoon in the Queen Square Methodist parsonage, Rev. Hammond Johnston officiating. The bride was dressed in a pretty blue traveling costume with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of carnations and roses. Her brother, Sydney G. Harding, and her sister, Mrs. George Leves, acted as witnesses. Following the ceremony a tempting luncheon was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Harding in Sydney street. Later this afternoon the bride and groom will leave on a honeymoon trip through the province. On their return they will make their home at 110 Sydney street. Numerous handsome wedding gifts paid tribute to their popularity. They have best wishes for happiness in their married life.

Too much cannot be said of the appalling realism of the truth which is the grand climax of the whole story.

SENSELESS RUMORS THAT HURT PEOPLE

Editor of the St. John Times: Sir—Will you kindly impress upon the public who are prone to starting or repeating unauthorized rumors, rumors in regard to the death or wounding of men at the front that the circulation of false and unjustifiable news is contrary to military law and the persons so circulating same make themselves liable thereunder.

Far and above the violation of military rules is the unbecoming and unnecessary cause of needless suffering to friends by such false and unjustifiable rumors—picked up in the street corners and passed from mouth to mouth without any verification whatsoever. It is high time this grievance was put a stop to. Yours truly CIVILIAN.

FIFTH MAN HAS GIVEN HIMSELF UP

New York, Oct. 27.—Max Breitling, the fifth man named in the conspiracy of false and unjustifiable news in connection with the destruction of ships laden with munitions for the allies, surrendered himself today to the authorities. He was held in $5,000 bail.

Breitling, who is a relative of Edward N. Breitling, the banker of this city and marquette, Miss Breitling, the necessary bail bond was released. He came here directly from Chicago, the city in which he was arrested. He is now in the custody of the military authorities.
